ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The Company's Bylaws provide for the indemnification of its directors and officers to the maximum extent provided by law. The Company shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by, and in the manner permissible under the laws of the State of Nevada, any person made, or threatened to be made, a party to an action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Company, or served any other enterprise as a director, officer or employee at the Company's request. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, shall have the power to indemnify any person, other than a director or officer, made a party to any action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an employee of the Company.

To the extent permitted under Nevada statutes (NRS 78.138), the Company may limit, through indemnification, the personal liability of its directors or officers in actions, claims or proceedings brought against such person by reason of that person's current or former status as an officer or director of the corporation. The Company may indemnify its directors or officers if such person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed was, at least, not opposed to the best interests of the Company. In the event of a criminal action or proceeding, indemnification is not available if the person had reasonable cause to believe his or her action was unlawful.

Further, in an action brought by the Company or in its right, if the person, after exhaustion of all appeals, is found to be liable to the Company, or if the person makes payment to the Company in settlement of such action, indemnification is available only to the extent a court of competent jurisdiction determines the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification. Such discretionary indemnification is available only as authorized on a case-by-case basis by: (1) the stockholders; (2) a majority of a quorum of the Board of Directors, consisting of members of the Board of Directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceedings; (3) if a majority of a quorum of the Board of Directors consisting of members of the Board of Directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding so orders, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or (4) if a quorum of the Board of Directors consisting of members of the Board who were not parties to the action cannot be obtained, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

To the extent that a director or officer of the Company is successful in defending an action, suit or proceeding brought against that person as a result of their current or former status as an officer or director, the Company may indemnify such person against all expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense against such action, suit or proceeding. Nevada law also allows Nevada corporations to advance expenses to officers or directors, which costs are incurred by said officer or director in their defense of a civil or criminal action as those costs are incurred, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the officer or director to repay such expenses if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that such officer or director is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation because such officer or director did not act in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation.

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) or the Securities Act;

(b) FILINGS INCORPORATING SUBSEQUENT EXCHANGE ACT DOCUMENTS BY REFERENCE

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) FILING OF REGISTRATION STATEMENT ON FORM S-8

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
