Edgar Filing: STORAGE TECHNOLOGY CORP - Form 8-K

Certain statements, projections and forecasts contained in the Exhibit regarding StorageTek's future performance and financial results, future products, and business plans constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as "may", "will", "should", "expects", "plans", "anticipates", and "believes." There are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause our actual results to differ materially.

Some of these risks and uncertainties include our ability to develop, manufacture and market new products and services successfully; the effect of product mix and distribution channel mix on our gross margins; our ability to continue to increase productivity; customer acceptance of new technologies and standards; competitive pricing pressures; rapid technological changes in the markets in which we compete; our ability to attract and retain highly skilled employees; our ability to protect and develop intellectual property rights to manufacture existing and new products and deliver new and existing services without infringing upon the rights of other; our reliance on certain sole source suppliers; potential delivery delays from sub-contractors and increased lead time in ordering parts and components for our products that could result in reducing our control over delivery schedules and affect our ability to fulfill customer orders in a timely manner; general economic conditions in the United States and globally; and other risks described in StorageTek's Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and Current Reports on Form 8-K that are filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and which are available on the SEC's website.
