CREDIT SUISSE BOARD SHARPENS STRATEGIC FOCUS AND APPROVES NEW MANAGEMENT STRUCTURE

OSWALD J. GRUEBEL IS APPOINTED SOLE GROUP CEO; BRADY W. DOUGAN TO HEAD CSFB

EMPHASIS ON STRATEGIC GROWTH THROUGH CLOSER INTEGRATION OF BANKING BUSINESSES AND EXPLORING OPTIONS FOR CAPTURING VALUE OF INSURANCE BUSINESS

ZURICH AND NEW YORK, JUNE 24, 2004 - THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF CREDIT SUISSE GROUP TODAY ANNOUNCED A SERIES OF STRATEGIC INITIATIVES, INCLUDING STRUCTURAL AND MANAGEMENT CHANGES DESIGNED TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE GROUP'S IMPROVED BUSINESS MOMENTUM AND TO STRENGTHEN INTEGRATION OF ITS GLOBAL CAPABILITIES.

Effective July 13, the Group will be structured along three business lines: investment banking and wealth and asset management under the legal entity Credit Suisse First Boston (CSFB); financial services, including global private banking and corporate and retail banking in Switzerland, under the legal entity Credit Suisse; and insurance under the legal entity Winterthur.

Commenting on the announcements, Chairman Walter B. Kielholz said: "At this point in time, we have no interest in pursuing a merger with another financial institution. Credit Suisse Group's financial performance has improved significantly as a result of strong measures taken by management. Our goals now are to accelerate organic growth and strengthen the competitive positioning of our core banking businesses; further improve the profitability of Winterthur and explore all options for capturing the value of our insurance business for stakeholders; and, finally, to position the Group to play a leading role in the evolution of the global financial services industry."

Effective as of July 13, 2004, Oswald J. Gruebel, currently CEO of Credit Suisse Financial Services and Co-CEO of Credit Suisse Group, has been appointed sole Chief Executive Officer of Credit Suisse Group. Oswald J. Gruebel is currently Co-CEO of the Group along with John J. Mack, who has agreed with the Board of Directors not to renew his contract which will expire as of July 12.

Walter B. Kielholz said: "On behalf of the Board of Directors I wish to express our appreciation for everything that John J. Mack has accomplished at CSFB and Credit Suisse Group. He led a dramatic turnaround of CSFB - delivering a USD 1.4 billion profit last year, enhancing its reputation by resolving major regulatory challenges and strengthening the franchise in key areas for future growth."

Also effective July 13, Brady W. Dougan will assume responsibility for the operations of the investment banking and wealth and asset management arm of the Group and be named CEO of CSFB. Brady W. Dougan, who joined CSFB in 1990, has previously held a series of senior positions in the firm, most recently Co-President of Institutional Securities.

In addition to his new position as head of Private Banking and Corporate & Retail Banking, Walter Berchtold will assume the role of CEO of Credit Suisse.

Brady W. Dougan, Walter Berchtold and Leonhard H. Fischer, CEO of Winterthur, will all report directly to Mr. Gruebel.

Walter B. Kielholz added: "Oswald J. Gruebel has an impressive record of success over nearly three decades in leadership roles in CSFB, private banking and our other core businesses. He is a proven leader with the experience and skills necessary to ensure that our management team remains focused on a single integrated strategy to grow our businesses in the months ahead."

Oswald J. Gruebel noted: "Recent results testify to the strength of Credit Suisse Group. We have world-class clients, and some of the most talented professionals in the industry enabling us to pursue promising opportunities to grow organically. The new structure establishes clear lines of responsibility for developing and implementing our strategy, and strengthens our ability to integrate our businesses globally."

Commenting on his new leadership role, Brady W. Dougan said: "CSFB ranks among the most respected global investment banking platforms. The changes announced today reflect the strong commitment of the Group to investment banking. I look forward to working with Oswald J. Gruebel and my colleagues on the Group Executive Board to grow our business by taking full advantage of the business opportunities across our global platform."

In addition to the management appointments announced today, Oswald J. Gruebel will be forming a Committee of the Group Executive Board responsible for the day-to-day management of the Group. Reporting to Oswald J. Gruebel, this committee will include Walter Berchtold, Brady W. Dougan, Leonhard H. Fischer,

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to our plans, objectives or goals; our future economic performance or prospects; the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "intends" and "plans" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable laws.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include (i) market and interest rate fluctuations; (ii) the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations in particular; (iii) the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us; (iv) the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations; (v) political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity; (vi) the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations; (vii) the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets; (viii) operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to properly implement procedures; (ix) actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations; (x) the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices; (xi) competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations; (xii) the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel; (xiii) the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brands; (xiv) the ability to increase market share and control
