LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Dear Fellow Shareholders,

We at Parks! America, Inc. are excited to have our first shareholders meeting since becoming an active company in December, 2003. For some of you, this will be the first communication you have received from us. The Company was originally incorporated in 1954 as Painted Desert Uranium & Oil Co., Inc. and later changed its name to Royal Pacific Resources, Inc. Our current business was merged into the corporation in 2003 after the corporation had been dormant for a period of time.

Our two animal parks have maintained themselves well during the recent recession, not only because of the improvements and marketing, but because we provide a less expensive form of family entertainment than larger attraction venues. Our park in Georgia continues to be our cash cow. In fact, since we purchased it in June of 2005, attendance has increased substantially along with per capita spending in our food and gift shop operations. Our Missouri park was purchased in March, 2008 and was in poor condition at the time we acquired it. We are making improvements to the Missouri park and we believe it is on track to become profitable in 2011.

In March, 2009 many strategic moves were accomplished, including the elimination of our corporate offices in California and consolidation of our headquarters at the Pine Mt., Georgia park. At that time, we installed a new set of officers at lower salaries. Cost savings from changing auditors and law firms have contributed to additional savings.

As you will note, the meeting is being held at our Missouri park in Strafford, MO, which we believe will benefit our shareholder base which is more focused in the western part of the Country.

Your management team encourages you to return the enclosed proxy forms and to be part of this shareholders meeting

COME VISIT THE ANIMALS!

PROXY STATEMENT AND INFORMATION CIRCULAR

MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON October 19, 2010

GENERAL

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of Parks! America, Inc. (the "Company" or Parks America), for use at the Shareholders Meeting (the Meeting) of the Company to be held at the Company s executive offices located at 124 Jumble Drive, Strafford, MO 65757 at 10:00 A.M., Central Time on October 19, 2010, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card are being mailed to our Shareholders on or about August 23, 2010.

The cost of solicitation will be borne by the Company. The solicitation will be made primarily by mail. Proxies may also be solicited personally or by telephone by certain of the Company s directors, officers and regular employees, who will not receive additional compensation therefore. In addition, the Company will reimburse brokerage firms, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their expenses in forwarding solicitation materials to beneficial owners. The total cost of proxy solicitation, including legal fees, mailing and other expenses incurred in connection with the preparation of this Proxy Statement and Information Circular, is estimated to be approximately $47,000.

APPOINTMENT OF PROXYHOLDER

The persons named as proxyholder in the accompanying form of proxy were designated by the management of the Company (the "Management Proxyholders"). A shareholder of the Company (a Shareholder) desiring to appoint some other person (an "Alternate Proxyholder") to represent him at the Meeting may do so by inserting such other person's name in the space indicated or by completing another proper form of proxy. A person appointed as proxyholder need not be a Shareholder of the Company. All completed proxy forms must be deposited with Parks America not less than forty-eight (48) hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, before the time of the Meeting or any adjournment of it unless the chairman of the Meeting elects to exercise his discretion to accept proxies received subsequently.

EXERCISE OF DISCRETION BY PROXYHOLDER

The proxyholder will vote for or against or withhold from voting the shares, as directed by a Shareholder on the proxy, on any ballot that may be called for. In the absence of any such direction, the Management Proxyholder will vote in favor of matters described in the proxy.

The enclosed form of proxy confers discretionary authority upon the proxyholder with respect to amendments or variations to matters identified in the attached Notice of Meeting and other matters which may properly come before the Meeting. At present, Management of the Company knows of no such amendments, variations or other matters.

PROXY VOTING

Registered Shareholders

If you are a registered Shareholder, you may wish to vote by proxy whether or not you attend the Meeting in person. If you submit a proxy, you must complete, date and sign the Proxy, and then return it to our Transfer Agent who is tabulating the vote, by mail or by hand delivery at OTC Stock Transfer, Inc., 231 East 2100 South, Salt Lake City, Utah 84115 not less than 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the Meeting or the adjournment thereof at which the Proxy is to be used.

Beneficial Shareholders

The following information is of significance to Shareholders who do not hold Shares in their own name. Beneficial Shareholders should note that the only proxies that can be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting are those deposited by registered Shareholders (those whose names appear in the records of the Company as the registered holders of Shares).

Intermediaries are required to seek voting instructions from Beneficial Shareholders in advance of Shareholders' meetings. Every intermediary has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions to clients.

If you are a Beneficial Shareholder:

You should carefully follow the instructions of your broker or intermediary in order to ensure that your shares are voted at the Meeting.

The form of proxy supplied to you by your broker will be similar to the Proxy provided to registered Shareholders by the Company. However, its purpose is limited to instructing the intermediary on how to vote on your behalf. Most brokers now delegate responsibility for obtaining instructions from clients to Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. (Broadridge) in the United States and in Canada. Broadridge mails a voting instruction form in lieu of a Proxy provided by the Company. The voting instruction form will name the same persons as the Company's Proxy to represent you at the Meeting. You have the right to appoint a person (who need not be a beneficial Shareholder of the Company), other than the person(s) designated in the voting instruction form, to represent you at the Meeting. To exercise this right, you should insert the name of the desired representative in the blank space provided in the voting instruction form. The completed voting instruction form must then be returned to Broadridge by mail or facsimile or given to Broadridge by phone or over the internet, in accordance with Broadridge's instructions. Broadridge then tabulates the results of all instructions received and provides appropriate instructions respecting the voting of Shares to be represented at the Meeting. If you receive a voting instruction form from Broadridge, you cannot use it to vote Shares directly at the Meeting. The voting instruction form must be completed and returned to Broadridge, in accordance with its instructions, well in advance of the Meeting in order to have the Shares voted.

Although as a Beneficial Shareholder you may not be recognized directly at the Meeting for the purposes of voting Shares registered in the name of your broker, you, or a person designated by you, may attend the Meeting as proxyholder for your broker and vote your Shares in that capacity. If you wish to attend the Meeting and indirectly vote your Shares as proxyholder for your broker, or have a person designated by you do so, you should enter your own name, or the name of the person you wish to designate, in the blank space on the voting instruction form provided to you and return the same to your broker in accordance with the instructions provided by such broker, well in advance of the Meeting.

Alternatively, you can request in writing that your broker send you a legal proxy which would enable you, or a person designated by you, to attend at the Meeting and vote your Shares.

IF YOU DO NOT GIVE INSTRUCTIONS TO YOUR BROKER OR OTHER NOMINEE, YOUR SHARES MAY NOT BE VOTED OR THEY MAY BE VOTED WITHOUT YOUR DIRECTION.

REVOCAION OF PROXIES

In addition to revocation in any other manner permitted by law, a registered Shareholder who has given a proxy may revoke it by:

Executing a proxy bearing a later date or by executing a valid notice of revocation, either of the foregoing to be executed by the registered Shareholder or the registered Shareholder's authorized attorney in writing or, if the Shareholder is a corporation, under its corporate seal by an officer or attorney duly authorized, and by delivering the proxy bearing a later date to the Company at any time up to and including the last business day that precedes the day of the Meeting or, if the Meeting is adjourned, the last business day that precedes any reconvening thereof, or to the chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any reconvening thereof, or in any other manner provided by law, or

(b)

Personally attending the meeting and voting the registered Shareholders' shares. A revocation of a proxy will not affect a matter on which a vote is taken before the revocation.

VOTING PROCEDURE

A majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of Shareholders. Any number of Shareholders, even if less than a quorum may adjourn the meeting without further notice until a quorum is obtained. Broker non-votes occur when a person holding shares through a bank or brokerage account does not provide instructions as to how his or her shares should be voted and the broker does not exercise discretion to vote those shares on a particular matter. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in determining the presence of a quorum at the Meeting. However, an abstention or broker non-vote will not have any effect on the outcome for the election of directors.

Shares for which proxy cards are properly executed and returned will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the directions noted thereon or, in the absence of directions, will be voted: (1) "FOR" the election of each of the nominees to the board of directors named on the following page and (2) "FOR" the resolution to ratify the appointment of Silberstein Ungar, PLLC as independent auditors of the Company for the financial year ending December 26, 2010. It is not expected that any matters other than those referred to in this Proxy Statement will be brought before the Meeting. If, however, other matters are properly presented, the persons named as proxies will vote in accordance with their discretion with respect to such matters.

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The board of directors proposes that the following seven (7) nominees be elected as directors at the Shareholders Meeting, each of whom will hold office until the expiration of their term or until his or her successor shall have been duly appointed or elected and qualified:

Unless otherwise instructed, it is the intention of the persons named as proxies on the accompanying proxy card to vote shares represented by properly executed proxies for the election of such nominees. Although the board of directors anticipates that the seven (7) nominees will be available to serve as directors of Parks America, if any of them should be unwilling or unable to serve, it is intended that the proxies will be voted for the election of such substitute nominee or nominees as may be designated by the board of directors.

Based upon 73,606,537 shares of common stock issued and outstanding as of the record date, assuming except that shares of common stock underlying options or warrants exercisable within 60 days of the date hereof are deemed to be outstanding.

Under Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act, certain shares may be deemed to be beneficially owned by more than one person (if, for example, persons share the power to vote or the power to dispose of the shares). In addition, shares are deemed to be beneficially owned by a person if the person has the right to acquire the shares (for example, upon exercise of an option) within 60 days of the date as of which the information is provided. In computing the percentage ownership of any person, the amount of shares outstanding is deemed to include the amount of shares beneficially owned by that person (and only that person) by reason of these acquisition rights. As a result, the percentage of outstanding shares of any person as shown in this table may not necessarily reflect the person's actual ownership with respect to the number of shares of our common stock actually outstanding as of the record date. To the best of the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the Section 16(a) reports and written statements from its executive officers and directors, the Company believes that during and with respect to fiscal year ended December 27, 2009 all required reports were filed on a timely basis.

Litigation with Larry Eastland

Effective March 28, 2009, Larry Eastland resigned as Chief Executive Officer and Chairman and a member of the Board of Directors of the Company. In connection with his resignation, the Company entered into a mutual release with Mr. Eastland and also agreed to a severance package under which Mr. Eastland shall receive his base salary for a period of six months. The Company and Mr. Eastland agreed to mutually forgive all other amounts owed to each other. As of that date, the Company owed LEA Management, Mr. Eastland's affiliated company, $194,366 and LEA Management owed the Company $62,500 for services provided by its Park Staffing Services subsidiary.

In connection with the resignation of Larry Eastland as Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board of Directors Larry Eastland entered into an Acknowledgement and Resignation, Severance Agreement and General Mutual Release with the Company on behalf of himself, EDLA Family LLC and LEA Capital Advisors, LLC (together, the Eastland Group) effective as of March 24, 2009 (the Release). Under the terms of the Release Parks America agreed to pay Mr. Eastland and aggregate of $85,000 as severance, payable in six equal monthly installments. Also, Parks America and the Eastland Group agreed to mutually discharge and indemnify the other in connection with an existing or future claim that may arise in connection with the Eastland Group's affiliation with the Company during the 15 years preceding the date of the Release. The Release also contained a mutual non-disparage and non-disclosure provisions.

On June 25, 2009, a group led by Larry L. Eastland, the Company's former President and CEO for approximately six years, filed with the SEC preliminary proxy materials expressing their intention to take control of the Company by electing a slate of directors at a shareholders meeting. In addition to Larry L. Eastland, the group consisted of EDLA Family Limited Partnership (controlled by Larry L. Eastland), Jay Pitlake, Queenie Lai, Roderick D. Davies, Michael Lempres and Jack Klosterman. This group amended their preliminary proxy materials on July 6, 2009.

On September 10, 2009, an expanded group led by Larry L. Eastland filed with the SEC a Consent Solicitation Statement. This group consisted of Larry L. Eastland, EDLA Family Limited Partnership, Jay Pitlake, Jack Klosterman, Ben Smith, Jay Goldman, Richard Jackson, Robert O'Brien, Queenie Lai, Michael Lempres, Roderick Davis, Mark D. Stubbs, Bart Marcois, Jonathan Wing Lock So and Richard Nguyen Huu Nam (the Eastland Group). While this Consent Solicitation Statement did not explicitly state an intention to gain control of the Company, the proposal to shareholders was to expand the size of the board of directors and elect new additional directors who would outnumber the existing group. In a subsequent joint filing on Schedule 13D on September 21, 2009, the EDLA Family Limited Partnership, Larry Eastland, Jay Pitlake, Jack Klosterman, Ben Smith, Jay Goldman, Richard Jackson, Robert O'Brien and Mark D. Stubbs stated that their filing of a Consent Solicitation Statement will have the effect of replacing the current board of directors and changing control of the Issuer.

The Company responded by commencing a lawsuit against the Eastland Group in the Nevada District Court in Clark County, Nevada seeking to enjoin the Consent Solicitation Statement of the Eastland Group on the grounds that: (i) the expansion of the size of the board of directors called for in the Consent Solicitation Statement violated the Company's Articles of Incorporation, (ii) the Company's By-Laws require that directors be elected at a meeting of shareholders and (iii) Larry L. Eastland violated his Severance Agreement with the Company by not turning over material corporate records in his possession and was wrongfully using such records to conduct the consent solicitation.

On September 25, 2009, the Court issued a Temporary Restraining Order enjoining any actions by the Eastland Group in furtherance of the Consent Solicitation Statement and restraining the Eastland Group from making any further filings with the SEC. On October 23, 2009, the Eastland Group and the Company stipulated to an Order extending such Temporary Restraining Order for 60 days. The Temporary Restraining Order was not formally dissolved, however, until May 17, 2010.

As of June 15, 2010, the Nevada District Court issued a Preliminary Injunction Order dissolving the Temporary Restraining Order and issuing a Preliminary Injunction against the Eastland Group that (i) enjoined them from taking any further action in furtherance of their consent solicitation, (ii) enjoined them from filing with the SEC documents that violate the Company's Article of Incorporation, as amended, its by-laws and the Nevada Revised Statutes in regard to removing or replacing the board of directors of the Company and (iii) requiring that the Eastland Group and the Company submit to each other all information they have in regard to the actual stockholders of the Company, including the identity of stockholders whose shares are held by registries or other parties.

Except as described above, we are not a party to any pending legal proceeding, nor is our property the subject of a pending legal proceeding, that is not in the ordinary course of business or otherwise material to the financial condition of our business. None of our directors, officers or affiliates is involved in a proceeding adverse to our business or has a material interest adverse to our business.
