If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

Quarterly Reports on Forms 10-Q for the quarters ended June 30, 2003 and September 30, 2003

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

On February 2, 2004, our independent auditors resigned and withdrew their audit opinions for the years 2000, 2001 and 2002. On March 1, 2004, our Audit Committee engaged a new independent auditor to audit our financial information for 2003, as well as the preceding three fiscal years, and to perform all applicable reviews of quarterly periods in order for us to complete and file all required reports. We anticipate that the results of the 2003 audit could provide final financial information which may reflect material changes in our results of operations, but we are currently unable to provide quantitative analysis because there has not been sufficient progress made in those audits and reviews.
