VODAFONE APPOINTS NEW NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Vodafone Group Plc (Vodafone) announces that Nick Land and Alan Jebson have been appointed as Non-Executive Directors with effect from 1 December 2006.

Nick Land, aged 58, recently retired as Chairman of Ernst & Young LLP after a distinguished career spanning 36 years with the firm. He became an audit partner in 1978 and held a number of management appointments before becoming Managing Partner in 1992. He was appointed Chairman and joined the global Executive Board in 1995. He is a non-executive director of Royal Dutch Shell, the BBA Group and the Ashmore Group. He also sits on the Advisory Board of the Cambridge Judge Business School, is a member of the National Gallery's Finance and Audit Committees and is Chairman of the Practices Advisory Board of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.

Alan Jebson, aged 57, retired in May from his role as Group Chief Operating Officer of HSBC Holdings Plc, a position which included responsibility for IT and Global Resourcing. During a long career with HSBC, Alan held various positions in IT, including the position of Group CIO. His roles included responsibility for the Group's international systems, including the consolidation of HSBC and Midland systems following the acquisition of Midland Bank in 1993. Alan originally joined HSBC as Head of IT Audit in 1978 where, building upon his qualification as a chartered accountant, he built an international audit team and implemented controls in the Group's application systems. He has recently been appointed as a non-executive director of McDonald Dettweiler in Canada.

Sir John Bond, Chairman of Vodafone, commented "I am delighted to welcome Nick and Alan to the Vodafone Board and look forward to their contributions. Nick's financial expertise and experience of dealing with major corporations in many parts of the world will be invaluable to us and Alan's knowledge of international information technology systems, including his experience of CRM and data mining, as well as his financial background will be a great asset for Vodafone.
