Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On February 28, 2007, the Attorney General of the state of Florida issued a release relating to what he described as an active public-consumer related investigation indicating that his office was investigating iMergent, Inc. (the Company) for alleged deception of would-be entrepreneurs who buy StoresOnline business services (websites, etc.) at promotional seminars. The release incorrectly lists the business of the Company as a business opportunity.

The Company vehemently disputes (i) that it is a business opportunity and (ii) that it has engaged in any deception whatsoever.

The Company has received requests for information relating to only eleven customers over the last three years from the Attorney General of the state of Florida. Eight of those cases have been resolved. The Company is waiting for responses from the Office of the Attorney General on the other three. Over the last three years, the Company has entered into over 4,600 contracts with purchasers in the state of Florida. The complaints received from the Office of the Attorney General represent less than one half of one percent of purchasers who entered into contracts with the Company.

The Company intends to actively provide information to the Office of the Attorney General to support that the Company's business practices are transparent and comply with all laws and regulations.

The Company will actively defend any and all claims which may be raised. The Company is confident that there is no basis for the current investigation or any action which may be contemplated.
