Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On January 1, 2013, Abbott Laboratories (Abbott) completed the previously announced distribution of 100% of the outstanding common stock of AbbVie Inc. (AbbVie) to Abbott s shareholders. AbbVie is now an independent public company trading under the symbol ABBV on the New York Stock Exchange.

Furnished as Exhibit 99.1 is Abbott s unaudited non-GAAP financial information for 2012 reflecting the presentation of the AbbVie business as a discontinued operation and other adjustments to provide a historical baseline of Abbott s standalone operating results from continuing operations and excluding specified items. Abbott plans to evaluate its future results from continuing operations against this historical baseline. Exhibit 99.1 also provides a reconciliation of this non-GAAP information to Abbott s historical consolidated results in accordance with GAAP.

Abbott uses various non-GAAP financial measures including, among others: net earnings excluding specified items and diluted earnings per common share excluding specified items. These non-GAAP financial measures adjust for factors that are unusual or unpredictable, such as acquisition-related costs, asset impairments, losses on extinguishment of debt, costs related to the separation of AbbVie, litigation reserve adjustments, acquired in-process research and development, tax audit settlements, restructuring and integration costs, and cost reduction initiatives. These non-GAAP financial measures also exclude intangible amortization expense to provide greater visibility on the results of operations excluding these costs, similar to how Abbott s management internally assesses performance. Abbott s management believes the presentation of these non-GAAP financial measures provides useful information to investors regarding Abbott s results of operations as these non-GAAP financial measures allow investors to better evaluate ongoing business performance. Abbott, however, cautions investors to consider these non-GAAP financial measures in addition to, and not as a substitute for, financial measures prepared in accordance with GAAP.

The financial information is intended for informational purposes only and does not purport to project Abbott s financial performance or cost structure for any future period. The financial information should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes and Management s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations included in Abbott s Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2012.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
