Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 28, 2014, James T. Caudill, age 47, was elected to the Board of Directors (the Board) of Control4 Corporation (the Company) as a Class II director, to serve until the Company's annual meeting of stockholders in 2015. As a non-employee director, Mr. Caudill will receive compensation in the same manner as the Company's other non-employee directors. The Company previously disclosed the terms of non-employee director compensation in its definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 23, 2014. There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Caudill and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Caudill was elected as a director, and there are no transactions between Mr. Caudill and the Company that would require disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

Since 2010, Mr. Caudill has served as chairman and chief executive officer of D&M Holdings, Inc., which manages a portfolio of companies that manufacture high-end audio, video and home theater equipment, including the Denon, Marantz, and Boston Acoustics brands. Prior to being named as the chairman and chief executive officer of D&M Holdings, Mr. Caudill served as president of the Hardware and Home Improvement group at Black & Decker Corporation. Mr. Caudill had a successful twenty-year career at Black & Decker, where he led a number of global businesses. Mr. Caudill joined Black & Decker as a retail sales representative in June 1990 and served in positions of increasing responsibility in national sales, product management, brand management, and marketing. He earned a B.S. in Marketing and Transportation Logistics from Ohio State University and an M.B.A. from Loyola College.
