ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On May 12, 2015, Owens-Illinois, Inc. (the Company), through its indirect, wholly owned subsidiary Owens-Brockway Glass Container Inc. (Owens-Brockway), a Delaware corporation, Vitro, S.A.B. de C.V. (Vitro), a Mexican sociedad anónima bursátil de capital variable, Distribuidora Alkali, S.A. de C.V. (Distribuidora), a Mexican sociedad anónima de capital variable and Vitro Packaging, LLC (Vitro Packaging and together with Vitro and Distribuidora, Sellers), a U.S. limited liability company, entered into a stock purchase agreement (the Purchase Agreement), pursuant to which Owens-Brockway has agreed to acquire Sellers' food and beverage glass containers business as conducted in the United States, Mexico and Bolivia (the Business).

Transaction Overview

Upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement, which has been unanimously approved by the Company's board of directors, the Company has agreed to purchase the Business from Sellers pursuant to a stock purchase (the Transaction). Upon the closing of the Transaction, Owens-Brockway will pay to Sellers approximately $2.15 billion in cash to acquire the Business, on a cash-free, debt-free basis, subject to a working capital adjustment and certain other adjustments.

Conditions to the Transaction

The completion of the Transaction is subject to certain customary closing conditions, including:

- the expiration or termination of the waiting period (and any extensions thereof) applicable under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976;
- the receipt of all required clearances, approvals or authorizations required by certain Mexican governmental entities under applicable antitrust and foreign investment laws; and
- the absence of any order, judgment, injunction, law or other legal restraint prohibiting the consummation of the Transaction.

Each party's obligation to consummate the Transaction is also subject to certain additional closing conditions, including (i) the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement (subject to certain materiality qualifiers) and (ii) the other party's compliance in all material respects with its covenants and agreements contained in the Purchase Agreement.

Other Terms of the Transaction

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants by each party that are subject, in some cases, to specified exceptions and qualifications contained in the Purchase Agreement. The covenants include, among others, the following: (i) Sellers are obligated to operate the Business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice between the execution of the Purchase Agreement and the closing of the Transaction, (ii) Sellers agree not to engage in certain transactions with respect to the Business between the execution of the Purchase Agreement and the closing of the Transaction, except with the written consent of Owens-Brockway (not to be unreasonably withheld) and (iii) Sellers agree, under the terms specified in the Purchase Agreement, not to compete with the Business (subject to certain exceptions) for a period of three years after the closing date of the transaction.

Each of the parties is required to use its respective reasonable best efforts to consummate the Transaction, including effecting certain regulatory filings described in the Purchase Agreement and obtaining all necessary consents and authorizations to consummate the Transaction. Without limiting the foregoing, nothing in the Purchase Agreement requires Owens-Brockway, in order to obtain the required consents from antitrust authorities, to take any action with respect to itself, the Business or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates including agreeing to the sale, divestiture or disposition of assets of Owens-Brockway or the Business (or any combination thereof) or taking actions that would limit Owens-Brockway's freedom of action with respect to its assets or assets of the Business (or any combination thereof); provided, however, that if requested by an antitrust governmental body, Owens-Brockway is required to take all actions necessary to divest or dispose of any of its businesses, products, rights, services, assets or properties so long as such divestiture, individually or in the aggregate, would result in the loss of EBITDA of the Business and Owens-Brockway combined and its affiliates of less than $30 million during the most recently available 12-month period ending on the date such divestiture is requested by an antitrust governmental body.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary termination provisions in favor of both parties, including if the initial closing of the Transaction has not occurred within nine months from the date thereof (subject to extension by either party for up to three additional months in the event that required antitrust approvals have not been obtained). In the event the Purchase Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including terminations related to the failure to obtain the required antitrust approvals, Owens-Brockway must make a cash payment of $150 million to Sellers as Sellers' sole and exclusive remedy.

The Company, through its direct, wholly-owned subsidiary, Owens-Illinois Group, Inc. and Owens-Brockway, has obtained debt financing commitments from Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch, Deutsche Bank AG Cayman Islands Branch and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. to provide sufficient funds to finance the acquisition, including the payment of the aggregate purchase price. The availability of financing pursuant to such commitments is subject to various customary conditions, including no material adverse change to the Business and the consummation of the acquisition. There is no financing condition to the Transaction.

Both Owens-Brockway and the Sellers have agreed, following the closing, to indemnify the other party for losses arising from certain breaches of the Purchase Agreement and for certain other liabilities, subject to certain limitations.
