PART III

Item 10.	Directors and Executive Officers of the Registrant

As of the date of our 2004 annual meeting of shareholders which will be held on June 17, 2004, the number of directors that comprise our entire board of directors will be fixed at nine. Eight directors will be proposed for election at the annual meeting to hold office as directors until our next annual meeting of shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualify. All eight nominees currently serve on our board of directors.

In light of the provisions requiring a majority of independent directors and other corporate governance requirements recently adopted by New York Stock Exchange and the guidelines published by Institutional Shareholder Services imposing limits on the maximum number of boards on which an individual may concurrently serve, Sheli Z. Rosenberg resigned from our board and Gary R. Garrabrant and Steven Roth agreed not to stand for re-election.

As of the annual meeting, our board of directors will appoint another director who will meet the independence criteria set forth in the New York Stock Exchange listing standards to fill the vacancy created by the election of only eight directors at the annual meeting. The vacancy will be filled by board appointment and no nominations from the floor at the annual meeting will be considered or acted upon.

Our board of directors has determined that Messrs. Altman, Dobrowski and

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL TRUST INC - Form 10-K/A

Nassau and Dr. Sagalyn are independent under the criteria for independence set forth in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. With the appointment of an additional independent director to fill the vacancy, we will meet the New York Stock Exchange requirement for a majority of independent directors serving on the board of directors.

Compensation of Directors

Generally, our non-employee directors are not paid any cash fees for their services as such, but rather are compensated with an annual award of stock units under our 1997 amended and restated non-employee director stock plan with a value equal to $30,000. However, two of our non-employee directors have elected and will continue to be paid an annual cash retainer of $30,000. The number of stock units awarded to each director, which are convertible into an equal number of shares of class A common stock according to individual schedules set by each director, is determined quarterly in arrears by dividing one-quarter of the annual retainer amount ($7,500) by the average closing price of the class A common stock for the quarter. The stock units vest when issued. There is currently no separate compensation for service on committees of the board of directors. All directors are also reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in attending board and committee meetings.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The compensation committee of the board of directors was comprised during 2003 of Messrs. Altman, Edelman and Klopp, Ms. Rosenberg and Dr. Sagalyn.

Officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required by regulation of the SEC to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on our review of Forms 3, 4 and 5 and amendments thereto available to us and other information obtained from our directors and officers and certain 10% shareholders or otherwise available to us, except as described below, we believe that no director, officer or beneficial owner of more than 10% of our class A common stock failed to file on a timely basis reports required pursuant to Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act with respect to 2003. Form 4s required to be filed in October 2003 by Stephen D. Plavin and Brian H. Oswald as a result of grants of restricted stock were filed late in March 2004. In addition, to our knowledge, Rodney F. (1) Represents rights to receive cash payments pursuant to incentive bonus agreements based on the distributions, if any, received by us from our incentive interest in CT Mezzanine Partners II LP, which we refer to as Fund II.

During 2003, Messrs. Klopp, Plavin and Oswald were each granted a right to receive cash payments equal to the specified percentages of incentive distributions to be received by us from Fund II. These rights vest in equal increments of 50% upon the date of grant and 50% upon our receipt of incentive distributions from Fund II. Including these grants, incentive bonus agreements representing rights to receive cash payments equal to 25% of our total incentive distributions, if any, from Fund II have been granted to various employees.

(2) The incentive bonus agreements do not provide for any specified timeframe during which cash payments are to be made. Cash payments pursuant to incentive bonus agreements will be made when we receive incentive distributions, if any, from Fund II. We currently expect to receive incentive distributions from Fund II in 2006 and 2007.

(3) The incentive bonus agreements do not provide for minimum or maximum cash payments to the recipients. Cash payments will depend on the amount of incentive distributions, if any, we receive from Fund II. Our incentive distributions will depend on whether the investors in Fund II receive a return of 100% of their invested capital and a minimum return of 10% per annum on invested capital. The "Target" amounts shown in the table are based on numerous assumptions, including that all of Fund II's investments continue to perform and pay off in full by December 31, 2007. There can be no assurance that Fund II will perform in accordance with the foregoing assumptions and produce returns that will be sufficient to generate incentive distributions.

Item 14. Principal Accounting Fees and Services

Principal Accounting Firm Fees

Aggregate fees we were billed for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 by our principal accounting firm, Ernst & Young LLP are as follows:

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31,
2003	2002

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL TRUST INC - Form 10-K/A

(a) The audit-related fees include amounts billed to us for review of our registration statement and REIT accounting consulting advice in 2003.

(b) Tax fees include amounts billed to us primarily for tax planning and consulting, tax compliance and preparation and review of federal, state and local tax returns and tax fees related to REIT matters.

(c) All other fees include amounts billed to us related to audit of Fund II and Fund III and tax return preparation for these funds for which we are reimbursed by the funds.

The audit committee of the board of directors was advised of the services provided by Ernst & Young LLP that are unrelated to the audit of the annual fiscal year end financial statements and the review of interim financial statements and has considered whether the provision of such services is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young LLP's independence as our independent auditor.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policy

In accordance with our audit committee pre-approval policy, all audit and non-audit services performed for us by our independent accountants were pre-approved by the audit committee of our board of directors, which concluded that the provision of such services by Ernst & Young LLP was compatible with the maintenance of that firm's independence in the conduct of its auditing functions.

The pre-approval policy provides for categorical pre-approval of specified audit and permissible non-audit services and requires the specific pre-approval by the audit committee, prior to engagement, of such services, other than audit services covered by the annual engagement letter, that are individually estimated to result in an amount of fees that exceed $50,000. In addition, services to be provided by the independent accountants that are not within the category of pre-approved services must be approved by the audit committee prior to engagement, regardless of the service being requested or the dollar amount involved.

Requests or applications for services that require specific separate approval by the audit committee are required to be submitted to the audit committee by both management and the independent accountants, and must include a detailed description of the services to be provided and a joint statement confirming that the provision of the proposed services does not impair the independence of the independent accountants.

The audit committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. The member or members to whom such authority is delegated shall report any pre-approval decisions to the audit committee at its next scheduled meeting. The audit committee does not delegate to management its responsibilities to pre-approve services to be performed by the independent accountants.

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL TRUST INC - Form 10-K/A
