Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 6, 2006, Neoprobe Corporation (the "Company") entered into an employment agreement with Anthony K. Blair, pursuant to which Mr. Blair will serve as Vice-President Manufacturing Operations of the Company (the "Agreement"). The Agreement has a stated term of 12 months, commencing January 1, 2006, and terminating December 31, 2006. The Agreement provides for an annual base salary of $122,000. Mr. Blair may also receive an annual bonus at the discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors, in accordance with any bonus plan adopted by the Compensation Committee. The Agreement also provides for Mr. Blair's participation in the Company's employee benefit programs, stock based incentive compensation plans and other benefits as described in the Agreement.

In the event of the termination of Mr. Blair's employment by the Company "for cause," all salary, benefits and other payments shall cease at the time of termination, and the Company shall have no further obligations to Mr. Blair. If Mr. Blair resigns for any reason other than a Change of Control (as that term is defined in the Agreement), all salary, benefits and other payments shall cease at the time such resignation becomes effective. At the time of any such resignation, the Company shall pay to Mr. Blair the value of any accrued but unused vacation time, and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of such resignation. If Mr. Blair dies or his employment is terminated because of disability, all salary, benefits and other payments shall cease at the time of death or disability, provided, however, that the Company shall provide such health, dental and similar insurance or benefits as were provided to Mr. Blair, or his family, immediately before his termination by reason of death or disability, for the longer of 12 months after such termination or the full unexpired term of the Agreement. At the time of such termination, the Company shall pay to Mr. Blair the value of any accrued but unused vacation time, and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of such termination.

In the event the Company terminates Mr. Blair's employment without cause, the Company shall, at the time of such termination, pay to Mr. Blair the amount of $61,000, together with the value of any accrued but unused vacation time, and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of such termination. Additionally, the Company shall continue to provide Mr. Blair with all of the benefits provided to him pursuant to the Company's employee benefit plans for the longer of 12 months or the full unexpired term of the Agreement.

The Company also must pay severance to Mr. Blair, under certain circumstances, in the event of a Change of Control. The Agreement provides that if there is a Change in Control, and Mr. Blair is concurrently or subsequently terminated (a) by the Company without cause, (b) by the expiration of the term of the Agreement, or (c) by his resignation because he has reasonably determined in good faith that his titles, authorities, responsibilities, salary, bonus opportunities or benefits have been materially diminished, that a material adverse change in his working conditions has occurred, that his services are no longer required in light of the Company's business plan, or the Company has breached the Agreement, the Company shall pay to Mr. Blair, at the time of such termination, the amount of $122,000, together with the value of any accrued but unused vacation time, and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of termination, and shall provide him with all of his benefits provided pursuant to the Company's employee benefit plans for the longer of 12 months or the full unexpired term of his employment agreement.

The Agreement also contains non-competition and non-solicitation covenants. These covenants are effective during employment and for a period of 12 months following the termination of Mr. Blair's employment.
