Item 1.01 - Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 16, 2007, the defendants, including RITA Medical Systems, Inc. (“RITA”) reached an agreement-in-principle with the plaintiff regarding the settlement of a purported class action lawsuit captioned Holleran v. RITA Medical Systems, Inc., et al., Case No. RG 06-302394 in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Alameda. In the complaint, the plaintiff, among other things, has alleged that, in pursuing the proposed merger transaction with AngioDynamics, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Angio”) and approving the merger agreement, the directors of RITA breached their fiduciary duties to RITA’s stockholders. In connection with the settlement, certain modifications are being made to the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated November 27, 2006, as amended December 7, 2006 (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Angio, Royal I, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Angio (“Merger Sub”), and RITA. In addition, certain supplemental disclosures are being made to RITA’s stockholders, which disclosures are filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference and incorporated by reference into RITA’s proxy statement dated December 22, 2006. RITA’s proxy statement is supplemented by, and should be read as part of and in conjunction with, the information filed in this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Forward-Looking Information

This document and its attachments include “forward-looking statements” intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Investors can identify these statements by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. These statements contain words such as “may,” “will,” “predict,” “project,” “might,” “expect,” “believe,” “anticipate,” “plan,” “intend,” “potential,” “could,” “would,” “should,” “estimate,” “continue,” “pursue,” or “our future success depends,” or the negative or other variations thereof or comparable terminology. In particular, they include statements relating to, among other things, future actions, strategies, future performance, future financial results of Angio and RITA and the proposed merger. These forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and projections about future events.

Investors are cautioned that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance or results and involve risks and uncertainties that cannot be predicted or quantified and, consequently, the actual performance or results of Angio and RITA may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the following factors as well as other factors described from time to time in Angio’s and RITA’s reports filed with the SEC, including Angio’s 2006 10-K and RITA’s Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005: financial community and rating agency perceptions of Angio and RITA; the effects of economic, credit and capital market conditions on the economy in general, and on medical device companies in particular; the ability to timely and cost-effectively integrate RITA into Angio’s operations; domestic and foreign health care reforms and governmental laws and regulations; third-party relations and approvals, technological advances and patents attained by competitors; and challenges inherent in new product development, including obtaining regulatory approvals.

Any forward-looking statements are made pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and, as such, speak only as of the date made. Angio’s and RITA disclaim any obligation to update the forward-looking statements. Investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements which speak only as of the date stated, or if no date is stated, as of the date of this document.
