I. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE APPLICANTS

A. The Company

Garrison Capital LLC was organized as a limited liability company under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act in November 2010 and commenced operations on December 17, 2010. Garrison Capital LLC elected to be treated as a business development company (“BDC”) under the 1940 Act in October 2012. Following its election to be treated as a BDC, Garrison Capital LLC converted to Garrison Capital Inc., a Delaware corporation, which is an externally managed, non-diversified, closed-end management investment company. In connection with the conversion, the Company succeeded to the business of Garrison Capital LLC, and the members of Garrison Capital LLC became stockholders of the Company. The Company’s principal place of business is 1350 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019.

¹ The Advisers are both affiliates of and indirectly controlled by Garrison Investment Group LP. Garrison Investment Group LP is controlled by Steven Stuart and Joseph Tansey.

² The Advisers expect that any Future Co-Investment Affiliate will either be registered under the 1940 Act or exempt from registration as provided by Section 3(c)(1) or 3(c)(7) of the 1940 Act.

The Company has filed a registration statement on Form 8-A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “1934 Act”), a registration statement on Form 10 under the 1934 Act and a notification of election to be subject to Sections 55 through 65 of the 1940 Act on Form N-54A. As a BDC, the Company is subject to the periodic reporting requirements under Section 13(a) of the 1934 Act.

The Company’s investment objective is to generate current income and capital appreciation by making investments generally in the range of $10 million to $25 million primarily in debt securities of U.S.-based middle-market companies, which the Company defines as those having annual earnings before interest, taxes and depreciation of between $5 million and $30 million. The Company’s goal is to generate attractive risk-adjusted returns by assembling a broad portfolio of investments. The Company invests primarily in (1) first lien senior secured loans, (2) second lien senior secured loans, (3) “one-stop” senior secured or “unitranche” loans, (4) subordinated or mezzanine loans and (5) to a lesser extent, selected equity co-investments in middle-market companies. The Company uses the term “one-stop” or “unitranche” to refer to a loan that combines characteristics of traditional first lien senior secured loans and second lien or subordinated loans. The Company uses the term “mezzanine” to refer to a loan that ranks senior only to a borrower’s equity securities and ranks junior in right of payment to all of such borrower’s other indebtedness.

The Company maintains a seven-member board of directors (the “Board”) of which four members are not “interested persons” of the Company within the meaning of Section 2(a)(19) of the 1940 Act (the “Independent Directors”).

B. The Funds

Garrison Middle Market Funding LP was formed as a limited partnership under the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act on March 14, 2012. Garrison Middle Market Funding LP is a separate and distinct legal entity and relies on the exemption from registration provided by Section 3(c)(7) of the 1940 Act. Garrison Middle Market Funding LP is operated in accordance with a partnership agreement.

Garrison Middle Market Funding A LP was formed as a limited partnership under the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act on November 9, 2012. Garrison Middle Market Funding A LP is a separate and distinct legal entity and relies on the exemption from registration provided by Section 3(c)(7) of the 1940 Act. Garrison Middle Market Funding A LP is operated in accordance with a partnership agreement and was formed for the exclusive purpose of co-investing with Garrison Middle Market Funding LP.

The Funds seek to invest primarily in middle-market companies and institutions. Possible investments in such companies and institutions include (i) secured debt (including first lien, second lien, unitranche and one-stop loans and loans secured by receivables relating to financial assets (e.g., consumer loans)), (ii) unsecured debt (such as mezzanine loans, convertible/exchange loans or bonds), (iii) special situation investments (such as rescue financing, working capital and bridge loans), (iv) equity, warrants and equity-linked investments issued in connection with loan originations or as a result of restructurings, (v) bankruptcy financing (such as debtor-in-possession and exit loans) and (vi) equity and lower-rated debt tranches that constitute equity in collateralized loan obligation securitization vehicles managed by the Fund Adviser or any affiliate thereof.

There is considerable overlap between the Company's and the Funds' investment objectives and, as a result, investments in certain portfolio companies would be appropriate co-investments for both the Company and the Funds. Both the Funds and the Company will seek to invest in debt securities of U.S.-based middle-market companies.

C. The Advisers

The Advisers are both affiliates of, and indirectly controlled by, Garrison Investment Group LP, an alternative investment and asset management firm, which was formed as a limited partnership under the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act on March 21, 2007. Garrison Investment Group LP is controlled by its founders, Steven Stuart and Joseph Tansey. Any Future Co-Investment Affiliate will be advised by an Adviser or a Future Adviser. Any such Future Co-Investment Affiliate may seek to co-invest with the Company, the Funds and any other then-existing Future Co-Investment Affiliate.

1. The Company Adviser

Garrison Capital Advisers LLC was organized as a limited liability company under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act on November 29, 2010 and is privately held. The Company Adviser is registered with the Commission pursuant to Section 203 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the "Advisers Act").

The Company Adviser has entered into a staffing agreement with Garrison Investment Group LP under which Garrison Investment Group LP has agreed to make experienced investment professionals available to the Company Adviser and to provide access to the senior investment personnel of Garrison Investment Group LP.

The Company Adviser currently manages the investment activities of the Company pursuant to an investment advisory agreement (the “Company Advisory Agreement”). The Company Adviser is responsible for sourcing potential investments, conducting research and diligence on prospective investments and equity sponsors, analyzing investment opportunities and structuring and monitoring investments on an ongoing basis for the Company. The investment committee of the Company Adviser consists of the following seven members: Joseph Tansey, Steven Stuart, Rafael Astruc, Brian Chase, Mitch Drucker, Susan George and Terence Moore.

2. The Fund Adviser

Garrison Investment Management LLC was organized as a limited liability company under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act on July 15, 2009 and is privately held. The Fund Adviser itself is not registered with the Commission pursuant to Section 203 of the Advisers Act; however, the Fund Adviser is a “relying adviser” of Garrison Investment Group LP, the managing member of the Fund Adviser.⁴

Under the limited liability company agreement of the Fund Adviser, Garrison Investment Group LP has agreed to provide or make available to the Fund Adviser experienced investment professionals.

The Fund Adviser manages the investment activities of the Funds pursuant to an investment advisory agreement (together with the Company Advisory Agreement, the “Advisory Agreements”). The Fund Adviser is responsible for sourcing potential investments, conducting research and diligence on prospective investments and equity sponsors, analyzing investment opportunities and structuring and monitoring investments on an ongoing basis for the Funds. The investment committee of the Fund Adviser consists of the following five members: Joseph Tansey, E.J. Antonio, Mitch Drucker, Susan George and Terence Moore.

D. Garrison Investment Group LP

Garrison Investment Group LP is an alternative investment and asset management firm that was founded in March 2007 by Steven Stuart and Joseph Tansey and is privately held. Garrison Investment Group LP is registered with the Commission pursuant to Section 203 of the Advisers Act. As of September 30, 2012, Garrison Investment Group LP had approximately $3.1 billion of committed and invested capital under management and a team of 61 employees, including 37 investment professionals. Garrison Investment Group LP is headquartered in New York, New York. Garrison Investment Group LP invests opportunistically in the debt of middle-market companies, primarily in the areas of corporate finance, real estate finance and structured finance.

II. RELIEF FOR PROPOSED CO-INVESTMENTS

A. Co-Investment in Portfolio Companies by the Company and the Co-Investment Affiliates

1. Mechanics of the Co-Investment Program

As described above, the Company Adviser and the Fund Adviser manage the Company and the Funds pursuant to their respective Advisory Agreements. The Company Adviser anticipates that it will determine that certain investments it recommends to the Company would also be appropriate investments for a Co-Investment Affiliate. Likewise, the Fund Adviser anticipates that it will determine that certain investments it recommends to the Funds would also be appropriate investments for the Company. Further, the Applicants anticipate that an Adviser or a Future Adviser will determine that certain investments it recommends to a Future Co-Investment Affiliate will also be appropriate investments for the Company. Such a determination may result in the Company and a Co-Investment Affiliate co-investing in certain investments (the “Co-Investment Program” and each investment, a “Co-Investment Transaction”).

As there is (and is expected to be) considerable overlap between the Company’s and the Co-Investment Affiliates’ investment objectives and investment policies, the Advisers anticipate that opportunities for potential Co-Investment Transactions will arise when the Advisers become aware of investment opportunities that may be appropriate for both the Company and a Co-Investment Affiliate. A portfolio company that is an appropriate investment for one entity may be an appropriate investment for two or more entities, with certain exceptions based on available capital, as discussed below.

⁴ See American Bar Association, Business Law Section, SEC No-Action Letter, available at <http://www.sec.gov/divisions/investment/noaction/2012/aba011812.htm> (January 18, 2012).

Upon issuance of the requested Order, in such cases, investment opportunities that are presented to the Company are expected to be referred to the Co-Investment Affiliates, and vice versa, and such investment opportunities may result in a Co-Investment Transaction. For each such referral, the Company Adviser will consider only the investment objective, investment policies, investment position, investment strategies, investment restrictions, regulatory and tax requirements, capital available for investment and other pertinent factors applicable to the Company. Likewise, when selecting investments for a Co-Investment Affiliate, the Fund Adviser or the applicable Future Adviser will select investments separately for the Co-Investment Affiliate, considering only the investment objective, investment policies, investment position, investment strategies, investment restrictions, regulatory and tax requirements, capital available for investment and other pertinent factors applicable to such Co-Investment Affiliate.

Under the Co-Investment Program, co-investment between the Company and the Co-Investment Affiliates is expected to be the norm and the Applicants anticipate that the Company and the Co-Investment Affiliates would routinely co-invest in Co-Investment Transactions. Each Co-Investment Transaction would be allocated between the Company and the Co-Investment Affiliates participating in the Co-Investment Transaction. Each Co-Investment Transaction and the proposed allocation of such Co-Investment Transaction would be approved prior to the actual investment by the required majority (within the meaning of Section 57(o) of the 1940 Act) (the “Required Majority”) of the Company.

All subsequent activity, such as sales, exchanges or other dispositions of or an additional investment in a portfolio company (each, a “follow-on investment”) that resulted from a Co-Investment Transaction will be made pursuant to the conditions contained in this Application. The Co-Investment Program requires that the terms, conditions, price, class of securities, settlement date and registration rights applicable to any Co-Investment Affiliate’s investment be the same as those applicable to the Company’s investment.

2. Reasons for Co-Investing

It is expected that co-investment in portfolio companies by the Company and the Co-Investment Affiliates will increase favorable investment opportunities for the Company and the Co-Investment Affiliates. The Co-Investment Program will be effected only if it is approved by the Required Majority on the basis that it would be advantageous for the Company to have the additional capital from the Co-Investment Affiliates available to meet the funding requirements of attractive investments in portfolio companies. A BDC that makes investments of the type contemplated by the Company typically limits its participation in any one transaction to a specific dollar amount, which may be determined by legal or internally imposed prudential limits on exposure in a single investment. In view of the foregoing, in cases where the Company Adviser identifies investment opportunities requiring larger capital commitments, it must seek the participation of other entities with similar investment styles. The availability of a Co-Investment Affiliate as an investing partner of the Company may alleviate some of that necessity in certain circumstances.

The Company could lose some investment opportunities if it is unable to provide “one-stop” financing to a potential portfolio company. Portfolio companies may reject an offer of funding arranged by the Company Adviser due to the Company's inability to commit the full amount of financing required by the portfolio company in a timely manner (i.e., without the delay that typically would be associated with obtaining single-transaction exemptive relief from the Commission). By reducing the number of occasions on which the Company's individual or aggregate investment limits require the Company Adviser to arrange a syndication with unaffiliated entities, the Company will likely be required to forego fewer suitable investment opportunities. With the assets of the Co-Investment Affiliates available for co-investment, there should be an increase in the number of opportunities accessible to the Company.

The Company Adviser and the Board of the Company believe that it would be advantageous for the Company to co-invest with the Co-Investment Affiliates and that such investments would be consistent with the investment objective, investment policies, investment position, investment strategies, investment restrictions, regulatory and tax requirements, capital available for investment and other pertinent factors applicable to the Company.

The term "Required Majority," when used with respect to the approval of a proposed transaction, plan, or arrangement, means both a majority of the Company's directors who have no financial interest in such transaction, plan or arrangement and a majority of such directors who are not interested persons of the Company.

The Company Adviser also believes that co-investment by the Company and the Co-Investment Affiliates will afford the Company the ability to achieve greater diversification and, together with the Co-Investment Affiliates, the opportunity to exercise greater influence on the portfolio companies in which the Company and the Co-Investment Affiliates co-invest.

B. Applicable Law

1. Sections 57(a)(4) and 57(i) of the 1940 Act and Rule 17d-1 thereunder

Section 57(a)(4) of the 1940 Act makes it unlawful for any person who is related to a BDC in a manner described in Section 57(b) of the 1940 Act, acting as principal, knowingly to effect any transaction in which the BDC is a joint or a joint and several participant with that person in contravention of rules and regulations as the Commission may prescribe for the purpose of limiting or preventing participation by the BDC on a basis less advantageous than that of the other participant. Although the Commission has not adopted any rules specifically under Section 57(a)(4) of the 1940 Act, Section 57(i) of the 1940 Act provides that the rules under Section 17(d) of the 1940 Act applicable to registered closed-end investment companies (e.g., Rule 17d-1 under the 1940 Act) are, in the interim, deemed to apply to transactions subject to Section 57(a) of the 1940 Act. Rule 17d-1 under the 1940 Act, as made applicable to BDCs by Section 57(i) of the 1940 Act, prohibits any person who is related to a BDC in a manner described in Section 57(b) of the 1940 Act, acting as principal, from participating in, or effecting any transaction in connection with, any joint enterprise or other joint arrangement or profit-sharing plan in which the BDC is a participant, unless an application regarding the joint enterprise, arrangement or profit-sharing plan has been filed with the Commission and has been granted by an order entered prior to the submission of the plan or any modification thereof to security holders for approval, or prior to its adoption or modification if not so submitted.

In passing upon applications under Rule 17d-1 under the 1940 Act, the Commission considers whether the participation by the BDC in such joint transaction is consistent with the provisions, policies, and purposes of the 1940 Act and the extent to which such participation is on a basis different from or less advantageous than that of other participants.

2. Section 57(b) of the 1940 Act

Section 57(b) of the 1940 Act specifies the persons to whom the prohibitions of Section 57(a)(4) of the 1940 Act apply, including: (1) any director, officer, employee or member of an advisory board of a BDC or any person (other than the BDC itself) who is, within the meaning of Section 2(a)(3)(C) of the 1940 Act, an affiliated person⁶ of any such person; or (2) any investment adviser or promoter of, general partner in, principal underwriter for, or person directly or indirectly either controlling, controlled by, or under common control with⁷ a BDC (except the BDC itself and any person who, if it were not directly or indirectly controlled by the BDC, would not be directly or indirectly under the control of a person who controls the BDC), or any person who is, within the meaning of Section 2(a)(3)(C) of the 1940 Act an affiliated person of such person.

C. Need For Relief

Transactions effected as part of the Co-Investment Program could be prohibited by Section 57(a)(4) of the 1940 Act and Rule 17d-1 thereunder without a prior exemptive order of the Commission to the extent that a Co-Investment Affiliate falls within the category of persons described by Section 57(b) of the 1940 Act. Section 57(b) applies to any investment adviser to the Company. Accordingly, the Company Adviser and any deemed affiliate could be deemed to be persons related to the Company in a manner described by Section 57(b) and therefore subject to the restrictions of Section 57(a)(4) and Rule 17d-1 in connection with its participation in the Co-Investment Program.

⁷ Section 2(a)(9) of the 1940 Act defines “control” as the power to exercise a controlling influence over the management or policies of a company, unless such power is solely the result of an official position with such company. The definition of “control” clarifies that any person who owns beneficially, either directly or through one or more controlled companies, more than 25% of the voting securities of a company shall be presumed to control such company; any person who does not so own more than 25% of the voting securities of a company shall be presumed not to control such company; and a natural person shall be presumed not to be a controlled person.

D. Requested Relief

Accordingly, the Applicants respectfully request an Order of the Commission, pursuant to Section 57(i) of the 1940 Act and Rule 17d-1 thereunder, permitting the Co-Investment Affiliates to participate with the Company in the Co-Investment Program.

E. Precedents

The Commission has granted co-investment relief on numerous occasions in the past several years.⁸ Although various precedents involve somewhat different allocation formulae, approval procedures and presumptions for co-investment transactions to protect the interests of public investors in the BDC applicants than those described in this Application, the Applicants submit that the formulae and procedures set forth as conditions for the relief requested herein are consistent with the range of investor protection found in the cited orders. We note, in particular, that the co-investment protocol to be followed by the Applicants here is substantially similar to the protocol followed by Gladstone Capital Corporation and its affiliates, for which an order was granted on July 26, 2012, Medley Capital Corporation and its affiliates, for which an order was granted on March 26, 2012, NGP Capital Resources Company and its affiliates, for which an order was granted on November 10, 2011, and Ridgewood Capital Management LLC and its affiliates, for which an order was granted on October 21, 2009.⁹

F. The Applicants' Legal Arguments

Rule 17d-1 was promulgated by the Commission pursuant to Section 17(d) of the 1940 Act and made applicable to BDCs by Section 57(i) of the 1940 Act. Rule 17d-1(a) under the 1940 Act permits an otherwise prohibited person, acting as principal, to participate in, or effect a transaction in connection with, a joint enterprise or other joint arrangement or profit-sharing plan in which a BDC is a participant if an application regarding the joint enterprise, arrangement or profit-sharing plan has been filed with the Commission and has been granted by an order issued prior to the submission of such plan or any modification thereof to security holders for approval, or prior to its adoption or modification if not so submitted. Rule 17d-1(b) under the 1940 Act states that in passing upon applications under such rule, the Commission shall consider whether the participation by the investment company in such joint enterprise, joint arrangement or profit-sharing plan on the basis proposed is consistent with the provisions, policies and purposes of the 1940 Act and the extent to which such participation is on a basis different from or less advantageous than that of other participants.

The Applicants submit that the fact that the Required Majority will approve each Co-Investment Transaction before investment, in addition to the other protective conditions set forth in this Application, will ensure that the Company will be treated fairly. The conditions to which the requested relief will be subject are designed to ensure that the principals of the Advisers and any Future Adviser would not be able to favor a Co-Investment Affiliate over the Company through the allocation of investment opportunities between them. Because many attractive investment opportunities for the Company will also be attractive investment opportunities for the Co-Investment Affiliates, the Applicants submit that the Co-Investment Program presents an attractive alternative to instituting an equitable protocol for the allocation of 100% of individual investment opportunities to either the Company or the Co-Investment Affiliates as opportunities arise. The Applicants submit that the Company's participation in the Co-Investment Transactions will be consistent with the provisions, policies and purposes of the 1940 Act and on a basis that is not different from, or less advantageous than, that of the Co-Investment Affiliates.

G. Conditions

The Applicants agree that any Order granting the requested relief will be subject to the following conditions:

1. Each time an Adviser considers a potential Co-Investment Transaction that falls within the Company's then-current investment objectives and strategies (as described in its registration statement on Form N-2 and other filings made with the Commission by the Company under the 1933 Act, any reports filed by the Company with the Commission under the 1934 Act and the Company's reports to stockholders, the "Objectives and Strategies"), the Company Adviser will make an independent determination of the appropriateness of such investment for the Company in light of the Company's then-current circumstances.

2. (a) If the Company Adviser deems the Company's participation in any Co-Investment Transaction to be appropriate for the Company, it will then determine an appropriate level of investment for the Company;

(b) If the aggregate amount recommended by the Company Adviser to be invested in such potential Co-Investment Transaction by the Company, together with the amount proposed to be invested by the Co-Investment Affiliates in the same transaction, exceeds the amount of the actual investment opportunity, then the amount proposed to be invested by each such party will be allocated among them pro rata based on the ratio of the Company's capital available for investment in the asset class being allocated, on one hand, and the Co-Investment Affiliates' capital available for investment in the asset class being allocated, on the other hand, to the aggregated capital available for investment for the asset class being allocated of such parties involved in such investment opportunity, up to the amount proposed to be invested by each party. The Company Adviser will provide the Independent Directors with information concerning the Co-Investment Affiliates' available capital to assist the Independent Directors with their review of the Company's investments for compliance with these allocation procedures; and

(c) After making the determinations required in conditions 1 and 2(a), the Company Adviser will then distribute written information concerning the potential Co-Investment Transaction, including the amount proposed to be invested by the Company and any Co-Investment Affiliate, to the Independent Directors for their consideration. The Company will co-invest with the Co-Investment Affiliates only if, prior to participating in such Co-Investment Transaction, the Required Majority concludes that:

- (i) the terms of the Co-Investment Transaction, including the consideration to be paid, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching of the Company or its stockholders on the part of any person concerned;

- (ii) the Co-Investment Transaction is consistent with:
 - (A) the interests of the stockholders of the Company; and

 - (B) the Company's then-current Objectives and Strategies;

- (iii) the investment by the Co-Investment Affiliates would not disadvantage the Company (e.g., participation by the Co-Investment Affiliates has not resulted in the terms or structure of the transaction being less favorable than would otherwise be available to the Company absent the Co-Investment Affiliates' participation), and participation by the Company is not on a basis different from, or less advantageous than, that of the Co-Investment Affiliates; provided, that if the Co-Investment Affiliates, but not the Company, gain the right to nominate a director for election to a portfolio company's board of directors or the right to have a board observer or any similar right to participate in the governance or management of the portfolio company, such event shall not be interpreted to prohibit the Required Majority from reaching the conclusions required by this condition (2)(c)(iii), if
 - (A) the Required Majority shall have the right to ratify the selection of such director or board observer, if any;

 - (B) the Advisers agree to, and do, provide periodic reports to the Company's Board with respect to the actions of such director or the information received by such board observer or obtained through the exercise of any similar right to participate in the governance or management of the portfolio company; and

 - (C) any fees or other compensation that the Co-Investment Affiliates or any affiliated person of the Co-Investment Affiliates receives in connection with the right of the Co-Investment Affiliates to nominate or appoint a board observer or otherwise to participate in the governance or management of the portfolio company will be shared proportionately among the Company (which may, in turn, share its portion with its affiliated persons) and the other participating Co-Investment Affiliates in accordance with the amount of each party's investment; and

- (iv) the proposed investment by the Company will not improperly benefit the Advisers, any applicable Future Adviser or any affiliated person of any of them (other than the Company or the Co-Investment Affiliates) (a) to the extent provided by condition 12 of this Application; (b) to the extent provided by Sections 17(e) or 57(k) of the 1940 Act; (c) indirectly, as a result of an interest in securities issued by one of the parties to the Co-Investment Transaction; or (d) in the case of fees or other compensation described in condition 2(c)(iii)(C).

3. The Company shall have the right to decline to participate in any Co-Investment Transaction or to invest less than the amount proposed.

4. The Company Adviser shall present to the Board of the Company, including the Independent Directors, on a quarterly basis, all information concerning potential Co-Investment Transactions, including a record of all investments made by the Co-Investment Affiliates during the preceding quarter that fell within the Company's then-current Objectives and Strategies that were not made available to the Company and an explanation of why such investment opportunities were not offered to the Company, as well as investments made by the Co-Investment Affiliates that the Company considered but declined to participate in, so that the Independent Directors may determine whether all investments made during the preceding quarter, including those investments which the Company considered but in which the Company declined to participate, comply with the conditions of the Order. All information presented to the Board of the Company, including the Independent Directors, pursuant to this condition shall be kept for at least two years after the liquidation or dissolution of the Company and shall be subject to examination by the Commission and its Staff. In addition, the Independent Directors shall consider at least annually the continued appropriateness of the standards established for co-investments by the Company, including whether the use of the standards continues to be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders and does not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned.

5. Except with respect to follow-on investments made pursuant to condition 8 below, the Company shall not invest in reliance on the Order in any portfolio company in which any Co-Investment Affiliate or any affiliated person thereof is an existing investor.

6. The Company shall not participate in any Co-Investment Transaction unless the terms, conditions, price, class of securities to be purchased, settlement date and registration rights are the same for the Company as for the Co-Investment Affiliates. The grant to a Co-Investment Affiliate, but not the Company, of the right to nominate a director for election to a portfolio company's board of directors, the right to have an observer on the board of directors or similar rights to participate in the governance or management of the portfolio company shall not be interpreted as violative of this condition 6, if conditions 2(c)(iii)(A), (B) and (C) are met.

7. (a) If any Co-Investment Affiliate elects to sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of an interest in a security that was acquired by the Company and such Co-Investment Affiliate in a Co-Investment Transaction, the Fund Adviser or the applicable Future Adviser shall provide immediate notice of such election to the Company Adviser and the Company Adviser shall:

(i) notify the Company of the proposed disposition at the earliest practical time; and

(ii) formulate a recommendation as to participation by the Company in any such disposition and provide a written recommendation to the Independent Directors.

(b) The Company shall have a right to participate in such disposition on a proportionate basis, at the same price and on the same terms and conditions as those applicable to the Co-Investment Affiliates.

(c) The Company may then participate in such disposition without obtaining prior approval of the Required Majority if: (i) the proposed participation of each Co-Investment Affiliate in such disposition is proportionate to its outstanding investments in the portfolio company immediately preceding the disposition; (ii) the Board of the Company has approved as being in the best interests of the Company the ability to participate in such dispositions on a pro rata basis (as described in greater detail in this Application); and (iii) the Board of the Company is provided on a quarterly basis with a list of all dispositions made in accordance with this condition. In all other cases, the Company Adviser shall provide its written recommendation as to the Company's participation to the Independent Directors, and the Company shall participate in such disposition solely to the extent that a Required Majority determines that it is in the Company's best interests.

(d) The Company and each Co-Investment Affiliate shall each bear its own expenses in connection with any such disposition.

8. (a) If a Co-Investment Affiliate desires to make a follow-on investment in a portfolio company whose securities were acquired by the Company and such Co-Investment Affiliate in a Co-Investment Transaction or to exercise warrants or other rights to purchase securities of the portfolio company, the Fund Adviser or the applicable Future Adviser shall provide immediate notice of such election to the Company Adviser and the Company Adviser shall:

(i) notify the Company of the proposed follow-on investment at the earliest practical time; and

(ii) formulate a recommendation as to the proposed participation, including the amount of the proposed follow-on investment, by the Company.

(b) The Company may then participate in such follow-on investment without obtaining prior approval of the Required Majority if: (i) the proposed participation of each Co-Investment Affiliate in such investment is proportionate to its outstanding investments in the portfolio company immediately preceding the follow-on investment; (ii) the Board of the Company has approved as being in the best interests of the Company the ability to participate in follow-on investments on a pro rata basis (as described in greater detail in this Application). In all other cases, the Company Adviser shall provide its written recommendation as to the Company's participation to the Independent Directors, and the Company shall participate in such follow-on investment solely to the extent that a Required Majority determines that it is in the Company's best interests.

(c) If with respect to any follow-on investment:

(i) the amount of a follow-on investment is not based on the Company's and the Co-Investment Affiliates' initial investments in the securities of the applicable portfolio company immediately preceding such follow-on investment; and

(ii) the aggregate amount recommended by the Company Adviser to be invested by the Company in such follow-on investment, together with the amount proposed to be invested by the Co-Investment Affiliates in the same transaction, exceeds the amount of the follow-on investment opportunity, then the amount invested by each such party shall be allocated among them pro rata based on the ratio of the Company's capital available for investment in the asset class being allocated, on one hand, and the Co-Investment Affiliates' capital available for investment in the asset class being allocated, on the other hand, to the aggregated capital available for investment for the asset class being allocated of such parties involved in the investment opportunity, up to the amount proposed to be invested by each party. The acquisition of follow-on investments as permitted by this condition will be subject to the other conditions set forth in this Application.

9. The Company shall maintain the records required by Section 57(f)(3) of the 1940 Act as if each of the investments permitted under these conditions were approved by the Required Majority under Section 57(f) of the 1940 Act.

10. No Independent Directors may also be a director, general partner, managing member or principal, or otherwise an "affiliated person" (as defined in the 1940 Act) of any Co-Investment Affiliate.

11. The expenses, if any, associated with acquiring, holding or disposing of any securities acquired in a Co-Investment Transaction (including, without limitation, the expenses of the distribution of any such securities registered for sale under the 1933 Act) shall, to the extent not payable by an Adviser or a Future Adviser under any agreement with the Company or the Co-Investment Affiliates, be shared by the Company and the Co-Investment Affiliates in proportion to the relative amounts of their securities to be acquired or disposed of, as the case may be.

12. Any transaction fee (including break-up or commitment fees but excluding broker's fees contemplated by Section 17(e)(2) of the 1940 Act) received in connection with a Co-Investment Transaction shall be distributed to the Company and the Co-Investment Affiliates on a pro rata basis, based on the amount they invested or committed, as the case may be, in such Co-Investment Transaction. If any transaction fee is to be held by the Fund Adviser or a Future

Adviser pending consummation of the Co-Investment Transaction, the fee shall be deposited into an account maintained by the Fund Adviser or the applicable Future Adviser at a bank or banks having the qualifications prescribed in Section 26(a)(I) of the 1940 Act, and such account shall earn a competitive rate of interest that will also be divided pro rata between the Company and the Co-Investment Affiliates based on the amount they invest in such Co-Investment Transaction. None of the Co-Investment Affiliates or any affiliated person of the Company shall receive additional compensation or remuneration of any kind (other than (i) the pro rata transaction fees described above and (ii) investment advisory fees paid in accordance with the Investment Advisory Agreements with the Company and the Funds and any investment advisory agreement with a Future Co-Investment Affiliate) as a result of, or in connection with, a Co-Investment Transaction.
