Section 8.01. Other Events

On November 29, 2016, the Company entered into an agreement to acquire MGF Gutsche GmbH & Co. KG (“Gutsche”) for approximately $58 million in cash, subject to certain customary post-closing adjustments (the “Acquisition”). The Acquisition is expected to be financed through a combination of cash on hand and borrowings from the Company’s existing revolving credit facility.

The Acquisition will be consummated pursuant to the terms of a Sale and Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) dated November 29, 2016, by and among Gutsche & Co., Messrs. Michael Gutsche and Eugen Gutsche, and Lühr Filter GmbH & Co. KG (collectively, the “Sellers”), and indirect subsidiaries of the Company (collectively, the “Buyers”). Pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, the Company will have exclusive rights to the Gutsche brand and the Sellers will be subject to 3-year non-compete and non-solicit covenants. The Acquisition is expected to close by year end, subject to receipt of customary merger control approval from German competition authorities and the completion of specified closing conditions.

Gutsche's operations in Fulda, Germany and Yixing, China serve a global customer base in the development, production and distribution of sophisticated filtration media and technical nonwovens for various applications.

Cautionary Note Concerning Factors That May Affect Future Results

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains “forward-looking statements” within the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Any statements contained in this report that are not statements of historical fact, including statements related to the expected timetable for completing the acquisition and Lydall’s plan for financing the acquisition, may be deemed to be forward-looking statements. All such forward-looking statements are intended to provide management’s current expectations for the future based on current expectations and assumptions relating to the Company’s business, the economy and other future conditions. Forward-looking statements generally can be identified through the use of words such as “believes,” “anticipates,” “may,” “should,” “will,” “plans,” “projects,” “expects,” “expectations,” “estimates,” “predicts,” “targets,” “prospects,” “strategy,” “signs,” and other words of similar meaning in connection with the discussions herein. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent risks, uncertainties and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. Such risks and uncertainties include, among others, any delays in receiving merger control approval from Germany or in satisfying other closing conditions and disruptions in the global credit and financial markets, including diminished liquidity and credit availability, that could have a negative impact on the Company’s completion of the Acquisition. Accordingly, actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by these forward-looking statements. Investors, therefore, are cautioned against relying on any of these forward-looking statements. They are neither statements of historical fact nor guarantees or assurances of future performance. Additional information regarding factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements is available in Lydall’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the risks and uncertainties identified in Part II, Item 1A - Risk Factors of Lydall’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2016 and Part I, Item 1A - Risk Factors of Lydall’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015.
