Notes:

1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

The unaudited interim financial report has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Main Board Listing Rules of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited. The accounting policies have been consistently applied by the Group and are consistent with those adopted in the 2002 annual financial statements which are prepared in accordance with IFRS.

2 TURNOVER

The Group is principally engaged in the provision of domestic, Hong Kong regional and international passenger, cargo and mail airline services, with flights operating primarily from the Guangzhou Baiyun International Airport in the People's Republic of China ("PRC"), which is both the main hub of the Group's route network and the location of its corporate headquarters.

Turnover comprises revenues from airline and airline-related businesses and is stated net of sales tax and contributions to the Civil Aviation Administration of China ("CAAC") Infrastructure Development Fund. The contributions to the CAAC Infrastructure Development Fund for the period are payable at 5% and 2%, respectively (2002: 5% and 2%, respectively) of the Group's domestic and international/Hong Kong regional traffic revenue, except for the period from 1 May, 2003 to 30 September, 2003 during which the Group is exempted from contributions to the CAAC Infrastructure Development Fund. The sales tax is payable at 3% (2002: 3%) of the Group's traffic revenue in respect of domestic flights and international/Hong Kong regional outbound flights, except for the period from 1 May, 2003 to 30 September, 2003 during which the Group's passenger revenue is exempted from sales tax.

The Group's turnover and operating (loss)/profit by geographic region are analysed as follows:

7 PROFIT APPROPRIATIONS

No transfer to statutory surplus reserve, statutory public welfare fund and discretionary surplus reserve has been made during the period and the corresponding period. According to the Articles of Association of the Company and certain of its subsidiaries and the PRC Company Law, any such transfer shall be proposed by the respective board of directors and approved by shareholders in the annual general meeting.

8 CONVENIENCE TRANSLATION

The unaudited consolidated profit and loss account has been prepared in Renminbi ("RMB"), the national currency of the PRC. Translations of amounts from RMB into Hong Kong dollars ("HK$") and United States dollars ("US$") solely for the convenience of readers have been made at the rates of HK$1.00 to RMB1.0606 and US$1.00 to RMB8.2774, being the average of the buying and selling rates as quoted by the People's Bank of China at the close of business on 30 June, 2003. No representation is made that the RMB amounts could have been or could be converted into HK$ or US$ at these rates or at any other certain rates on 30 June, 2003 or on any other date.

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

Edgar Filing: CHINA SOUTHERN AIRLINES CO LTD - Form 6-K

For the first half of 2003, the Group encountered unprecedented challenges and difficulties. The outbreak of the Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome ("SARS") earlier this year severely hit our air passenger business. The Group made warning announcements on 15 April, 2003, 12 May, 2003 and 1 August, 2003 in respect of the impact of SARS on our business. As a result of the outbreak of SARS, the Group recorded a loss of RMB1,232 million for the six months ended 30 June, 2003, as compared with a profit of RMB123 million for the same period last year.

During the period, the PRC aviation industry encountered unprecedented setbacks due to the outbreak of SARS in certain regions of the PRC. From April to June 2003, the Group's passenger volume and passenger load factor dropped substantially, whereas in terms of RPKs, figures for April through June 2003 dropped 40%, 83.5% and 61.5%, respectively, as compared to the same period last year. In order to minimise the negative impact of SARS, the Group implemented various timely measures to adjust its operating capacity, for example by reducing the number of flights and suspending certain routes, in response to the curtailed air traffic demand caused by the negative impact of SARS.

In order to alleviate the financial pressure suffered by the PRC civil aviation industry as a result of the SARS epidemic, the PRC government waived the levies of the CAAC Infrastructure Development Fund, sale tax and related supplementary taxes on passenger revenue payable by the airline companies during the period from 1 May, 2003 to 30 September, 2003.

In June 2003, the SARS epidemic was effectively under control in the PRC. With travel restrictions lifted by the World Health Organisation for all PRC regions, the PRC aviation industry has started to recover.

Besides, the political tension in the Middle East, in particular the Iraq war in March this year, led to a surge in oil prices which in turn caused an increase in the Group's jet fuel cost.

China Southern Air Holding Company ("CSAHC"), the holding company of the Company, and the Group is working together to prepare for the injections of the air transportation business of China Northern Airlines and Xinjiang Airlines into the Group and the preparation work for the reorganisation is progressing as scheduled. From 1 January, 2003 onwards, the domestic flights of the three airline companies have started to share the same flight code CZ. The Company will make further disclosure on the latest development of the reorganisation to its shareholders and investors in an appropriate time in accordance with the relevant rules and regulations.

For the period under review, the Group's total traffic revenue was RMB6,538 million, a decrease of RMB1,806 million or 21.7% from the same period last year. Meanwhile, the Group's total traffic volume decreased by 14.9% to 1,424 million RTKs. The aggregate utilisation rate of the Group's Boeing and Airbus aircraft was 7.33 hours for the period under review, a decrease of 2.38 hours or 24.5% from the same period last year.

Passenger revenue for the period under review was RMB5,616 million, down 26.3% from the same period last year, representing 85.9% of the Group's total traffic revenue. Passenger traffic volume decreased by 27.8% to 10,098 million RPKs.

Domestic passenger revenue was RMB4,510 million, down 24.8% from the same period last year. Domestic passenger revenue accounted for 80.3% of overall passenger revenue. Passenger capacity, in terms of ASKs, decreased by 18.8% from the same period last year, while passenger traffic volume decreased by 26.2% to 7,919 million RPKs from 10,728 million RPKs during the same period last year. As a result, the passenger load factor decreased by 5.8 percentage points to 58.3%. The passenger yield per RPK increased by 1.8% from RMB 0.56 to RMB 0.57, mainly due to a reduction in fare discounts during the period under review.

On Hong Kong regional routes, the Group recorded passenger revenue of RMB293 million, down 44.8% from the same period last year. Hong Kong regional passenger revenue accounted for 5.2% of total passenger revenue. Passenger capacity, in terms of ASKs, decreased by 32.5% from the same period last year, while passenger traffic volume decreased by 44.1% from 524 million RPKs to 293 million RPKs during the same period. As a result, the passenger load factor decreased by 10.5 percentage points to 50.4%. The passenger yield per RPK decreased slightly by 1.0% to RMB1.00.

Passenger revenue for the Group's international routes amounted to RMB813 million, a decrease of 25.5% from the same period last year. International passenger revenue accounted for 14.5% of total passenger revenue. Passenger capacity, in terms of ASKs, decreased by 17.7% from the same period last year, while passenger traffic volume decreased by 31.0% to 1,886 million RPKs from 2,733 million RPKs during the same period last year. As a result, the passenger load factor decreased by 10.8 percentage points to 56.0%. The passenger yield per RPK increased by 7.5%, mainly due to a reduction in fare discounts during the period under review.

Cargo and mail revenue was RMB922 million, an increase of 27.0% from the same period last year. Cargo and mail revenue accounted for 14.1% of total traffic revenue. Cargo and mail volume grew by 22.8% to 522 million RTKs from 425 million RTKs during the same period, mainly due to the launch of two international cargo routes, Shenzhen - Los Angeles and Shenzhen - Leige (Belgium) during the second half of 2002. The overall yield per cargo and mail tonne kilometre increased by 3.5%, mainly due to an increase in fares resulting from a reduction in supply during the period under review.

The Group's other revenue amounted to RMB195 million, a decrease of 8.8% from the same period last year, primarily due to a fall in aircraft short term lease income.

Total operating expenses increased by 4.8% to RMB8,107 million from the same period last year, primarily due to the combined effect of increases in fuel cost, aircraft repairs and maintenance and depreciation charges.

Flight operations expenses increased by 2.8% to RMB3,517 million from the same period last year. Of these expenses, fuel cost was RMB1,861 million, up 13.6% from the same period last year, mainly as a result of an average increase of 27.1% in fuel prices, despite a decrease in number of flights. Aircraft insurance costs decreased by 3.9% to RMB124 million, primarily due to a decrease in aircraft insurance premiums effective from October 2002. Operating lease payments decreased by 13.8% to RMB820 million, mainly as a result of the discontinuation of wet leases of five Boeing 737-300/37K aircraft from Zhongyuan Airlines and wet leases of two Boeing 747-400 freighters during the period under review. Air catering expenses decreased by 30.2% to RMB215 million, primarily as a result of a reduction in number of passengers carried during the period under review.

As compared with the first half of 2002, maintenance expenses increased by 20.0% to RMB1,218 million, due mainly to increases in aircraft overhaul charges and routine maintenance costs following the expansion of the Group's fleet in recent years.

Aircraft and traffic servicing expenses decreased slightly by 0.4% to RMB1,197

million from the same period last year, reflecting primarily the net effect of a decrease in flight number during the period and an increase in the charge rate of domestic landing and take-off fees effective during the fourth quarter of 2002.

Promotion and sales expenses decreased by 7.8% to RMB674 million as compared with the same period last year, primarily as a result of the reduction in traffic revenue.

As compared with the same period last year, depreciation and amortisation expenses increased by 9.7% to RMB1,017 million, reflecting primarily the effect of aircraft delivered during the second half of 2002 and the period under review.

Loss on sale of fixed assets amounted to RMB23 million, which was mainly resulted from the disposal of a retired Boeing 737-200 aircraft during the period under review.

Interest expense increased by 9.9% to RMB455 million in the period under review, primarily reflecting an increase in the balance of loan borrowings.

The Group recorded a net exchange loss of RMB5 million, a decrease of RMB154 million or 97.0% from the same period last year. The loss recorded in the same period last year was predominantly resulted from the Japanese yen denominated borrowings of the Group following the appreciation of Japanese yen during that period. The exchange rate of Japanese yen was more or less steady during the period under review.

As a result of the aforementioned factors, the Group recorded a loss attributable to shareholders of RMB1,232 million for the six months ended 30 June, 2003, as compared to a profit attributable to shareholders of RMB123 million for the same period last year.

LIQUIDITY, FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

As at 30 June, 2003, the Group's borrowings totalled RMB18,489 million, a decrease of RMB786 million from RMB19,275 million as at 31 December, 2002. Such borrowings were denominated, to a larger extent, in United States dollars and, to a smaller extent, in Japanese yen and Renminbi, with a significant portion being fixed interest rate borrowings. As at 30 June, 2003, cash and cash equivalents of the Group totalled RMB2,281 million, a decrease of RMB1,490 million from RMB3,771 million at 31 December, 2002. Of such balance, 12.9% was denominated in foreign currencies (mainly in United States dollars). Net debts (total borrowings net of cash and cash equivalents) increased by 4.5% to RMB16,208 million from RMB15,504 million at 31 December, 2002.

As at 30 June, 2003, the Group's shareholders' equity amounted to RMB8,381 million, a decrease of RMB1,232 million from RMB9,613 million as at 31 December, 2002, reflecting the net loss recorded for the period under review.

Net debt/equity ratio of the Group as at 30 June, 2003 was 1.93 times, as compared to 1.61 times as at 31 December, 2002.

FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT POLICY

In the normal course of business, the Group is exposed to fluctuations in foreign currencies and jet fuel prices. The Group's exposure to foreign currencies is mainly attributable to its debts denominated in foreign currencies. Depreciation or appreciation of the Renminbi against foreign currencies could affect the Group's results and financial position significantly because the Group's foreign currency payments generally exceed its foreign currency receipts. The Group is not able to hedge its foreign currency exposure effectively other than by retaining its foreign currency denominated earnings and receipts to the extent permitted by the State Administration of Foreign Exchange, or subject to certain restrictive conditions, entering into forward foreign exchange contracts with authorised PRC banks.

The Group is required to procure a majority of its jet fuel consumption domestically at PRC spot market prices. There are currently no effective means available to the Group for managing its exposure associated with the fluctuations in domestic jet fuel prices.

CHARGES ON ASSETS

As at 30 June, 2003, certain aircraft of the Group with an aggregate carrying value of approximately RMB14,376 million (as at 31 December, 2002: RMB14,783 million) were pledged as collateral under certain loan and lease agreements.

CAPITAL AND INVESTING COMMITMENTS

As at 30 June, 2003, the Group had capital commitments of approximately RMB7,125 million. Of such amounts, RMB4,034 million was related to the acquisition of aircraft and related flight equipment and RMB2,608 million was related to the Group's facilities and equipment to be constructed and installed at the Guangzhou new airport. The remaining amount of RMB483 million was related to the Group's other airport and office facilities and equipment, overhaul and maintenance bases and training facilities. The Group's capital expenditures are generally subject to receipt of various approvals of the Chinese Government and may be subject to change depending on the timing of such approvals, prevailing market conditions, the availability of financing and other relevant factors.

As at 30 June, 2003, the Group was committed to making a capital contribution of approximately RMB201 million to an associated company.

CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

There have been no material adverse changes in the contingent liabilities of the Group since 31 December, 2002.

RECENT ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

RECENT ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

With the continued growth in China's economy and the negative impact of the SARS epidemic being subsided, China's aviation transportation market has started to recover. "Blue Sky Rejuvenation Programme" initiated by the Civil Aviation Administration of China for boosting the demand for the aviation market helps to drive up the volume of passenger and cargo transportation. The Company has also started a new promotion plan, the "Sunshine Action" under which a series of promotional and marketing programmes have been launched aiming to turn around the passenger transportation volume and cargo throughput.

With the approval of the China Securities Regulatory Commission ("CSRC"), the Company completed the issuance of 1,000,000,000 A shares at an issuance price of RMB2.70 each from 10 July, 2003 to 17 July, 2003 and successfully raised gross share proceeds of RMB2.7 billion. These A shares are listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange since 25 July, 2003. With the approval at the shareholders' meeting of the Company, the proceeds from the share issue will be used to purchase Boeing 737-800 aircraft for replacing certain existing aircraft, the operating leases of which will be expired.

The directors of the Company believe that the successful listing of the A shares helps the Company in developing new financing channels, broadening the shareholder base and enhancing the standard of corporate governance. Pursuant to the mandate granted at the Shareholders' meeting of the Company, the directors of the Company have handled and perfected matters relating to the A shares issuance, including the making of corresponding amendments to the Articles of Association of the Company and application to the State Administration for Industry and Commerce for an amended business licence to reflect the changes in shareholding structure and share capital after the issuance of A shares, in accordance with the requirements of China's rules and regulations.

PROSPECTS FOR THE SECOND HALF OF THE YEAR

The continued development of China's economy and the subsiding effect of the SARS epidemic in China will provide an improved market environment for the development of the aviation transportation business during the second half of the year. The business of the Group is expected to improve as a result.

The Closer Economic Partnership Arrangement between Mainland China and Hong Kong will foster the growth of passenger and cargo transportation between China, Hong Kong and the Pearl River delta. The Board believes that the Group will benefit from this new development.

The reorganisation of the aviation transportation operations of CSAHC and the Group will proceed in steady pace as planned.

The Group will continue to implement the marketing strategy based on its "Sunshine Action" with an aim to increase passenger load factor and passenger revenue.

The Group will continue to exercise strict cost-control measures in order to enhance efficiency for the Group as a whole.

USE OF PROCEEDS

As stated in the 2002 annual report of the Group, as at 31 December, 2002, the Group had RMB40 million remaining from the proceeds of the Company's initial public offer.

Consistent with the disclosure in the Prospectus of the Company dated July 1997, the Company intends to use the remaining proceeds of RMB40 million (held as at 30 June, 2003 as short-term deposits with Southern Airlines Group Finance Company Limited, a PRC authorised financial institution and an associated company of the Group) for various projects, including the development of the computerised accounting system.
