Item 502e. Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On March 6, 2008, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors approved an amended Change in Control Agreement (the "Amended Agreement") affecting 13 officers of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Brookline Bank (the "Bank"), including two named executive officers, Paul R. Bechet, the chief financial officer of the Company and the Bank, and David J. Pallin, the senior vice president responsible for the indirect automobile loan activities of the Bank. The purpose of the Amended Agreements (as well as the Agreements previously in effect) is to provide the officers certain benefits in the event of a change in control of the Bank or the Company. Each of the Amended Agreements are effective as of December 31, 2007 and are for a term of one year except for an agreement with one officer that is for a two year term.

The primary change in the Amended Agreement relates to how the amount to be paid upon a change in control is determined. In the Change in Control Agreements in effect prior to the amendments, the amount to be paid was a sum equal to one times the average of the three preceding years' annual base salary and cash incentive paid to the officer during such years. In the Amended Agreement, the amount to be paid is a sum equal to the officer's current annual base salary and the cash incentive paid to the executive attributable to the prior year. (In the case of the officer with a two year term, there was no change in how the amount to be paid is determined; it is a sum equal to two times the average of the officer's annual base salary for the current and preceding year and the cash incentives paid to the officer attributable to the two preceding years.)

Assuming a change in control occurred as of December 31, 2007, Mr. Bechet would have been entitled to receive $284,375 under the Amended Agreement instead of the $264,507 he would have been entitled to receive under the Agreement previously in effect. Mr. Pallin would have been entitled to receive $178,207 instead of the $187,241 he otherwise would have been entitled to receive under the Agreement previously in effect. For all the other 11 officers with Amended Agreements, the total amounts paid would have increased from $1,854,739 determined under the previously existing Agreements to $1,885,705 under the Amended Agreements.

Other changes in the Amended Agreement were made to comply with Section 409A final regulations issued by the Internal Revenue Service.

The Form of Change in Control Agreement approved by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors and entered into with 13 officers of the Bank is presented as part of this report on Exhibit 10.2.
