Amendment to Amended and Restated Bylaws

On May 30, 2018, the Board, in conjunction with the corporate governance review discussed below, adopted amendments to the Company’s Amended and Restated Bylaws (as amended, the “Bylaws”). The amendments were effective upon their adoption. The amendments, among other things, generally update the Bylaws to eliminate certain obsolete provisions following the Company’s initial public offering and to reflect changes in law and practice, including the use of electronic transmission for notice, the ability of Delaware corporations to set two record dates for recessed and adjourned meetings (for notice of the meeting and for the right to vote), streamlining notice provisions for Board meetings in line with Delaware law, providing the Board with flexibility to reschedule stockholder meetings, adjustments to quorum requirements to ensure actions are taken by an appropriate number of directors, the elimination of the definition of “cause” with respect to the removal of directors to ensure alignment under evolving Delaware case law, the elimination of the provision that the chair of the Board would serve as the chief executive officer of the Company in the absence of a chief executive officer or president, and the insertion of an exclusive forum provision for Delaware. The Bylaws were also streamlined to eliminate provisions that were a recitation of Delaware law provisions and are often not included in more recent bylaws.

Furthermore, the Bylaws were amended to revise, and to consolidate into a single provision, the notice and information requirements for stockholders to nominate a candidate for election as a director or to propose other business at a stockholder meeting, and require, among other things, (i) additional limited disclosure of any material interest of such proposing stockholder in a director nominee or the proposed business; (ii) a description of all agreements, arrangements and understandings between a proposing stockholder and any other person in connection with the proposal; (iii) information regarding the proposing stockholder, including stock holdings in the Company; and (iv) information regarding the proposed director candidate for election. In addition, the provisions regarding indemnification were broadened and modernized throughout.

The foregoing description of the amendments does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Bylaws, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 3.2 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein. A copy of the Bylaws is also filed as Exhibit 3.3 and marked to show changes from the bylaws as previously in effect.

The Code applies to all of the Company’s directors, officers and employees. The amendments, among other things, (i) clarify the circumstances under which directors, officers and employees may accept gifts, as well as the types of gifts that may be accepted, (ii) update policies relating to the protection and privacy of employee records, (iii) strengthen and update provisions relating to compliance with certain laws, including the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, (iv) add provisions relating to procurement policies and the recruitment and employment of current and former U.S. government employees, and (v) require that all employees cooperate with any Audit Committee investigation.

Corporate Governance Review

On May 30, 2018, following a corporate governance review and consistent with the Board's focus on sound corporate governance principles, as well as in accordance with the terms of the Company's previously disclosed stipulation of settlement relating to the actions styled (i) In re comScore, Inc. Shareholder Derivative Litigation, No.

1:16-cv-09855-JGK (S.D.N.Y.), (ii) In re comScore, Inc. Virginia Shareholder Derivative Litigation, No.

CL-2016-0009465 (Va. Cir. Ct. Fairfax Cnty.) and (iii) Assad v. Fulgoni, et al., No. CL-2017-0005503 (Va. Cir. Ct., Fairfax Cnty.), the Board adopted certain governance policies and enhancements as described below.

The Board adopted a director resignation policy for directors in an uncontested election, which policy provides that any nominee for director who receives a majority of "withhold" votes in an uncontested election of directors is expected to tender to the Board his or her resignation promptly following the certification of the election results. In such event, the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board (the "Governance Committee") will promptly consider the tendered resignation and will recommend to the Board whether to accept or reject the resignation. The Board will act on the Governance Committee's recommendation no later than 90 days following the certification of the stockholder vote. The Company will promptly disclose the Board's decision (and, if the Board rejects the resignation, the Board's reasons for doing so).

The Board also adopted, upon the consideration and recommendation of the Compensation Committee, a clawback policy, which provides that (i) if an accounting restatement occurs, the Board shall seek to recover (a) any excess incentive-based compensation from an executive officer determined to have committed misconduct resulting in the restatement and (b) any compensation recoverable from the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") or Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") under Section 304 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002; (ii) the Board shall seek to recover any incentive-based compensation or other compensation from an executive officer if the compensation was determined to be based on financial results or operating metrics that were satisfied as a result of such executive officer's knowing or intentional fraudulent or illegal conduct; and (iii) the Board shall seek to recover from an executive officer any incentive-based compensation it determined was awarded due to an error in the amount of such compensation calculated.

The Board also adopted an anti-hedging and pledging policy, which prohibits directors, executive officers and their family members from hedging and pledging Common Stock as collateral for a loan or purchasing Common Stock on margin.

The Board also adopted revisions to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines to, among other things, (i) prohibit overboarding, such that the Company's executive officers on the Board are prohibited from serving on more than two public company boards, including the Board, and the Company's other Board members are prohibited from serving on more than four public company boards, including the Board; (ii) require independent Board leadership in the event the Chair is not independent; and (iii) include a provision that Board members are expected to attend each annual meeting of stockholders of the Company except in extraordinary circumstances. In addition, the Board also approved revisions to the charters of the Audit Committee, the Governance Committee and the Compensation Committee.

Additionally, the Compensation Committee, with the advice of its compensation consultant, undertook a review of the Company's stock ownership guidelines and recommended amending such guidelines to further align the interests of the Company's directors and executive officers with those of the Company's stockholders. Under the amended guidelines as adopted by the Board, each director is expected to own shares of Common Stock with a value at least equal to five times the director's annual cash retainer for the Board. The guidelines were also extended to executive officers, with the CEO expected to own shares of Common Stock with a value at least equal to five times the CEO's annual base salary and the CFO, Chief Operating Officer and other named executives expected to own shares of Common Stock with a value at least equal to three times their respective annual base salaries. A director or executive officer has five years from the date of becoming subject to the guidelines to achieve compliance and must hold 100% of the net shares acquired upon vesting or exercise of any equity award until he or she has satisfied the ownership guidelines. The Company previously had stock ownership guidelines only for non-employee directors at a level of two times their annual cash retainer.
