Item 8.01. Other Events.

On October 1, 2009, LHC Group, Inc. (the "Company"), one of the largest providers of home health services in the United States, announced that it has acquired 100% of the home health assets of John Paul Jones Hospital located in Camden, Alabama.

Edgar Filing: LHC Group, Inc - Form 8-K

The primary service area of this acquisition spans seven counties in Alabama, a Certificate of Need (CON) state. The estimated population of the service area is 163,000, with almost 15 percent over the age of 65. Combined net revenue for the Camden, Alabama, agency during the most recent 12 months was approximately $300,000. This acquisition is not expected to add materially to LHC Group's earnings in 2009.

Certain matters discussed in this Current Report on Form 8-K constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, such as statements about the impact of the acquisition on LHC Group's earnings. Forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements, including changes in reimbursement, changes in government regulations, changes in relationships with referral sources, increased competition for LHC Group's services, increased competition for joint venture and acquisition candidates, changes in the interpretation of government regulations, and other risks set forth in Item 1A. Risk Factors in LHC Group's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. LHC Group undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
