San Donato Milanese (MI), 12th August 2016 - Eni has restarted the activities at the Val d'Agri Oil Centre in Viggiano and is gradually reopening the production wells which are connected to it.

The resumption of production in the Val d'Agri's concession follows the notification of the release of the centre from the Prosecutor of Potenza as well as to the plant's operating authorization by the National Mining Office for Hydrocarbons and Earth Resources of the Ministry of Economic Development.

Eni reiterates that it will cooperate fully with the Court of Review while waiting on the outcome from the Attorney of Potenza.
