We are a value-added distributor serving the dental, companion-pet veterinarian and rehabilitation supply markets.

As our largest business, Patterson Dental Supply provides a virtually complete range of consumable dental products, clinical and laboratory equipment, and value-added services to dentists, dental laboratories, institutions and other healthcare providers throughout North America. Patterson Dental Supply has the largest direct sales force in the industry, totaling approximately 1,400 sales representatives and equipment / software specialists serving the United States and Canada.

Webster Veterinary Supply is the leading distributor of veterinary supplies to companion-pet veterinary clinics in the eastern United States and the second largest nationally. One of the most respected names in the veterinary supply industry, Webster is a value-added, full-service distributor of consumable supplies, equipment, diagnostic products, vaccines and pharmaceuticals. On April 16, 2004, Webster acquired the assets of the ProVet division of Lextron, Inc., a privately owned veterinary supply company. The acquisition extends Webster's operations into the central and northwestern United States.

AbilityOne Products Corp. is the world's leading distributor of rehabilitation supplies and non-wheelchair assistive patient products to the physical and occupational therapy markets. AbilityOne delivers the industry's largest and most comprehensive range of distributed and self-manufactured rehabilitation products to a global customer base serving hospitals, long-term care facilities, clinics and dealers.

Unless otherwise indicated, all references to our company include the following subsidiaries: Direct Dental Supply Co.; Patterson Dental Canada, Inc., Patterson Dental Supply, Inc., Webster Veterinary Supply, Inc. and AbilityOne Products Corp.

Table of Contents

RISK FACTORS

Before you invest in our securities, you should be aware that there are various risks, including those described below. You should consider carefully these risk factors, the other information included in this document and the other information to which we refer you, before you decide to invest.

Risks related to our dental supply business

Health care expenditures may fall, decreasing our revenues.

The following factors could adversely affect our future operating results:

reduced growth in expenditures for dental services provided by private dental insurance plans.

the accuracy of our assumptions concerning future per capita expenditures for dental services, including assumptions as to population growth and the demand for preventive dental services, as well as specialty services, such as periodontic, endodontic and orthodontic procedures.

the rate of growth in demand for infection control products currently used for prevention of the spread of communicable diseases such as AIDS, hepatitis and herpes.

our ability to retain our base of customers and to increase our market share.

our ability to maintain satisfactory relationships with qualified and motivated sales personnel.

changes in the economics of dentistry affecting dental practice growth and the demand for dental products, including the ability and willingness of dentists to invest in high-technology diagnostic and therapeutic products such as digital x-ray equipment and the CEREC® restoration system.

our ability to meet increased competition from national, regional and local full-service distributors and mail-order distributors of dental products, while maintaining current or improved profit margins.

our continued ability to maintain satisfactory relationships with key vendors and our ability to create relationships with additional manufacturers of quality, innovative products.

Adverse conditions affecting employment and worker benefits may negatively affect the market for dental supplies and equipment.

Edgar Filing: PATTERSON DENTAL CO - Form S-3

We believe that the level of employment in the United States affects demand for dental services and products. Future adverse conditions affecting employment and worker benefits may materially adversely affect our business and prospects. We cannot assure you that the market for dental supplies and equipment or our market share will stay at current levels or grow.

Competition in dental products distribution could prevent us from getting or keeping customers.

The dental products distribution industry is highly competitive. Competition may force us to lose customers and market share. We face competition in many forms, including national, regional and full-service distributors and mail-order distributors of dental products. Further, at least 20 regional, full-service distributors and hundreds of small local distributors participate in the industry.

Table of Contents

Risks related to our veterinary supply business

Changes in demand for veterinary services for companion pets may negatively impact our revenues.

We cannot assure you that growth in future per capita expenditures for veterinary services, including the growth in the number of households owning companion pets and the demand for veterinary services, will continue.

We may not be able to successfully implement our strategy of becoming a leading company in the companion-pet veterinary supply market.

We cannot assure you that our business strategy of entering the veterinary supply field will be successful or that we will be able to increase the market share of Webster in the veterinary supply field. We intend to make additional acquisitions and expenditures to develop our line of business in the companion-pet veterinary supply market. To increase our market share, we may be required to:

identify and negotiate the purchase of acquisition candidates in the companion-pet supply industry with the same success that we achieved growth in the dental products supply industry.

leverage our existing distribution network to promote efficiencies and growth in the companion-pet supply industry, without significant new investments in physical infrastructure.

Although we have experience in identifying, negotiating and completing the purchase of dental product supply companies, we cannot assure you that we will be able to identify appropriate acquisition candidates or negotiate and consummate acquisitions in the veterinary supply field, the process of which can be lengthy and costly, and could divert management's attention from our current business.

Risks related to our rehabilitation supply business

We may not be able to successfully integrate the business of AbilityOne.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to integrate the operations of AbilityOne. In order to successfully integrate AbilityOne, we must:

position its distribution to achieve growth which parallels that of our dental supply business.

standardize accounting, operational and financial functions.

motivate, manage and retain key acquired personnel.

Problems or delays in integrating AbilityOne may result in substantial unanticipated costs and the diversion of management's attention from our existing dental supply and veterinary supply businesses. In addition, integration delays and our inability to achieve growth opportunities, could cause us to lose key employees and customers of AbilityOne, thereby diluting the value of the AbilityOne acquisition.

Possible healthcare reforms and the uncertainty of third party reimbursements may adversely affect the business of AbilityOne.

Healthcare related legislation and regulations may adversely affect expenditures or reimbursements for rehabilitative and assistive living products. Possible healthcare reforms, such as controls on healthcare spending and fundamental changes to the healthcare delivery system, may adversely impact AbilityOne's product sales. Due to uncertainties regarding the ultimate features of reform initiatives and their enactment and implementation, we cannot predict which, if any, of such reforms will be adopted, when they may be adopted or what impact they may have on AbilityOne's product sales. AbilityOne's sales will also depend, in part, upon the extent to which reimbursement for the cost of such products will be available from government health administration authorities, private health insurers, health maintenance organizations and other third party payers.

Other risks

Our management has the ability to significantly affect the outcome of shareholder voting, including the possibility of taking actions contrary to the preferences of shareholders at large.

As of June 30, 2003, our officers and directors, and our employee stock ownership trust, beneficially owned approximately 19.7% of our outstanding common stock. As a result, these shareholders, if they act together, would be able to exercise significant influence over the election of our directors and business affairs with respect to matters requiring shareholder approval. This concentration of ownership may have the effect of delaying, preventing or deterring a change in control, could deprive our shareholders of an opportunity to receive a premium for their common stock as part of a sale, and might affect the market price of our common stock.

We must comply with regulations governing the distribution of drugs and medical devices and additional regulations could negatively affect our business.

Various federal, state and local government entities and agencies regulate our operations. The Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act and the Safe Medical Devices Act both impact us. Such laws:

regulate advertising, record keeping, labeling, handling, storage and distribution of drugs and medical devices, require Federal Food and Drug Administration registration, and impose reporting requirements if a medical device causes serious illness, injury or death.

As a result of our acquisition of Webster, we have also become subject to the regulations of the Drug Enforcement Agency with respect to the veterinary drugs we distribute. Failure to comply with such regulations could materially and adversely affect our business in the companion-pet veterinary supply business, including the cessation of business if we lose our licenses to distribute drugs or controlled substances. In addition, each state in which we conduct business requires us to be licensed as a distributor of drugs and medical devices.

Our classified board, our ability to issue preferred stock and Minnesota law may prevent a change in control.

Edgar Filing: PATTERSON DENTAL CO - Form S-3

Our Articles of Incorporation and Minnesota law could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire control of Patterson, even if a change in control would be beneficial to our shareholders. Our board of directors is divided into three classes. Accordingly, our shareholders may not replace the entire board at once. We may also issue preferred stock without shareholder approval. Such issuances could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire us. In addition, Minnesota restricts certain control share acquisitions and business combinations. Such factors could hamper or prevent an unsolicited tender offer or takeover proposal and the issuance of preferred stock could adversely affect the rights of our shareholders.

Sale to selling shareholder

Pursuant to an agreement and plan of merger dated August 15, 2003, AbilityOne Products Corp. became a wholly owned subsidiary of our company. In connection with the merger, we authorized the issuance of 0.5% convertible debentures to two former stockholders of AbilityOne. The selling shareholder purchased from us for cash a convertible debenture in the principal amount of $3,000,000, at a purchase price equal to the principal amount. This debenture is convertible into shares of our common stock at a price of $50.98 per share, subject to adjustment as provided in the debenture. The shares registered hereby are the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of such person's debenture.

Edgar Filing: PATTERSON DENTAL CO - Form S-3

The selling shareholder, who before the merger served as President and Chief Executive Officer of AbilityOne, currently serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of our AbilityOne subsidiary.

Selling shareholder s registration rights

Pursuant to the convertible debenture, we agreed to register the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the debenture and take such other actions as the selling shareholder may reasonably request such that the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the debenture will be freely transferable under the Securities Act and other applicable law.

Our registration of the shares does not necessarily mean that the selling shareholder will sell all or any of the shares covered by this prospectus.

Item 17. Undertakings

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

Edgar Filing: PATTERSON DENTAL CO - Form S-3

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;
- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that the undertakings set forth in paragraphs (i) and (ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the provisions summarized in Item 15 above, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel, the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
