NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On September 9, 2004, Bottomline Technologies (de), Inc. (the Registrant) was informed by Ernst & Young (E&Y), the Registrant's auditors, that it intends to seek the guidance of the SEC's staff regarding whether its independence as the Registrant's auditors may be affected as a result of an immaterial investment by a substantial shareholder of the Registrant in an unrelated company in which an affiliate of E&Y already held an immaterial investment. The Registrant has been advised that E&Y's affiliate and the Registrant's shareholder neither individually nor collectively control the unrelated company. Registrant was not aware of, associated with, or a party to, the investment in question. E&Y has advised the Registrant that it is seeking guidance from the SEC's staff on this issue on as prompt a basis as possible and that it will be unable to furnish its report on the financial statements of the Registrant until this matter is resolved. Therefore, the Registrant could not have timely filed the information required by Item 8 of Form 10-K without unreasonable effort or expense, and the information required by Item 8 of Form 10-K will be filed no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date. E&Y has also advised the Registrant that it has completed the audit of the Registrant's financial statements included under Item 8 and is prepared to release its consent and opinion with respect to such financial statements if it is concluded that E&Y is independent.
