ELONG ANNOUNCES WARRANT EXERCISE BY IAC/INTERACTIVECORP

IAC Increases Its Stake in eLong to 52%; Aggregate Investment of Approximately $167 Million

BEIJING - December 16, 2004 - eLong, Inc. (NASDAQ: LONG), a leading online travel service provider in China, today announced that IAC/InterActiveCorp (NASDAQ: IACI) has exercised its warrant to purchase approximately 17.4 million shares of high-vote ordinary shares of eLong for an estimated cash purchase price of approximately US$108 million. The number of shares and purchase price are subject to adjustment following exercise pursuant to the terms of the related warrant agreement. IAC acquired the warrant in connection with its initial investment in eLong in August 2004, in which IAC invested $58.7 million. eLong expects that this sale will be completed in January 2005.

In accordance with the transaction agreements relating to IAC's initial investment, eLong will use half of the warrant proceeds to purchase approximately 8.7 million ordinary shares from certain of its pre-IPO shareholders. The repurchase will occur simultaneously with the completion of IAC's warrant exercise. Following the completion of the sale to IAC and the repurchase from certain pre-IPO shareholders, IAC will own approximately 52% of the outstanding capital stock of eLong (on a fully diluted basis), representing approximately 96% of the total voting power of eLong. As a result of this exercise, IAC also has the right to designate four additional members for appointment to eLong's Board of Directors.

In connection with IAC's exercise of the warrant, eLong expanded the size of its Board of Directors from seven to 11 members and announced the appointment of the following four IAC designees to its Board of Directors: Mike Doyle, Chief Financial Officer, IAC Travel Asia Pacific; Dermot Halpin, Managing Director, Expedia UK; Cameron Jones, Director, Hotels and Destination Services, IAC Travel Asia Pacific; and Arthur Hoffman, Managing Director, Expedia Australia. Following these appointments, six of the 11 members of eLong's Board of Directors will be IAC designees. eLong also announced the appointment of Martin Pompadur, Executive Vice President of News Corporation, who will replace Richard Xue, eLong's Director and Vice President of Business Development and Strategy.

We are extremely pleased to have a company of IAC's caliber further validate the quality and success of eLong's travel service offerings. By joining hands with IAC Travel, the world's largest online travel company, we believe that eLong's customers, suppliers, employees and shareholders will benefit from IAC Travel's extensive resources, consumer reach and online travel expertise, said Justin Tang, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of eLong.

eLong is leading a dramatic transformation in the way that travel is planned and purchased in China, said Barney Harford, President, IAC Travel Asia Pacific. We are delighted to be deepening our relationship with eLong, and we are excited by the opportunity this provides us to embrace the growth potential of the Chinese travel market. China represents an $87 billion travel and tourism market opportunity today, forecast to grow to more than $300 billion by 2014*.

eLong was advised by Allen & Company in connection with this transaction.
