Extension of the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation. The exchange offer and consent solicitation will now expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on November 16, 2005, unless further extended. Conditions. Additionally, we have revised the exchange offer and consent solicitation to reduce the minimum of aggregate principal amount of outstanding notes that need to be tendered and not withdrawn by holders prior to the expiration of the exchange from $60,087,500 to $50,600,000.

Edgar Filing: SPACEHAB INC \WA\ - Form POS AM

This prospectus supplement amends, modifies and supercedes certain information included in the original prospectus to reflect the change in minimum condition, a change in the conversion price and procedures, a change in the target price that triggers mandatory conversion, the addition of a covenant placing restrictions on the sale of and the placement of liens on Astrotech Space Operations, Inc., Astrotech Florida Holdings, Inc. and their respective assets, and the change to the expiration date. This prospectus supplement should be read in conjunction with the original prospectus.

The Exchange Notes

Conversion. The exchange notes are convertible into our common stock at a conversion price of $1.50 per share. The exchange notes will be automatically converted into shares of our common stock at a conversion price of $1.50 per share if the closing price of our common stock exceeds $1.95 per share for 20 consecutive trading days at any time prior to the maturity date of the exchange notes.

Covenants. The new indenture for the exchange notes will contain an additional covenant restricting our ability to sell or place liens upon Astrotech Space Operations, Inc., Astrotech Florida Holdings, Inc. and their respective assets.

See Risk Factors beginning on page 5 of the prospectus supplement for a discussion of certain risks that have been amended and that you should consider before participating in the exchange offer and consent solicitation.

If you have already tendered your outstanding notes pursuant to the exchange offer and consent solicitation and have not withdrawn such notes, you do not need to take any further action to participate in the exchange. If you wish to tender your outstanding notes, but have not yet done so, you should follow the instructions included in the letter of transmittal.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or determined if this prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

DESCRIPTION OF THE EXCHANGE NOTES

Amended Terms of the Exchange Notes

The discussion set forth in the original prospectus regarding the terms of the exchange notes is hereby modified, amended and supplemented as follows:

Conversion Rights

Optional Conversion

Subject to the satisfaction of the conditions described under Description of the Exchange Notes Conversion Rights Conversion Procedures of the prospectus and subject to the conditions described under Description of the Exchange Notes Conversion Rights General of the prospectus, holders will be able to convert their exchange notes into our common stock at their option at a conversion price of $1.50 per share, which is equivalent to a conversion rate of approximately 667 shares for each $1,000 principal amount of exchange notes converted.

In addition to the other requirements for conversion, the exchange notes may only be converted at the option of the holders if the closing sale price of our common stock on the trading day immediately preceding the date of notice of conversion equals or exceeds $1.50, the conversion price of the exchange notes.

Mandatory Conversion

We will automatically convert all of the exchange notes at the conversion price of $1.50, as such price may be adjusted as described in Description of the Exchange Notes Conversion Rights Adjustments to Conversion Price of the prospectus, at any time on or prior to maturity if the closing sale price of our common stock has exceeded $1.95, or 130% of the conversion price of $1.50, as such price may be adjusted, for at least 20 consecutive trading days.

Certain Covenants

Limitation on Disposition of Astrotech Assets

If we or any of our Subsidiaries engage in an Astrotech Sale, then we shall apply all of the Net Cash Proceeds therefrom within 90 days of such Astrotech Sale as follows:

(A) first, to repay or repurchase Senior Secured Indebtedness secured by the Property that was disposed in such Astrotech Sale, provided that the related loan commitment is thereby permanently reduced by such amount of Senior Secured Indebtedness repaid or repurchased,

(B) second, to repay or repurchase the Indebtedness under the Credit Agreement, provided that the related loan commitment is thereby permanently reduced by such amount of Indebtedness under the Credit Agreement repaid or repurchased by this covenant, and

(C) third, to redeem outstanding exchange notes in cash at the redemption price then in effect.

We and our Subsidiaries shall not engage in any Astrotech Sale unless (a) 100% of the consideration received in connection with such disposition consists of cash or Cash Equivalents and the assumption of Senior Secured Indebtedness of an Astrotech Subsidiary (provided that the amount of any Senior Secured Indebtedness of such Astrotech Subsidiary that is expressly assumed by a transferee in an Astrotech Sale is unconditionally released by the holder of such Senior Secured Indebtedness and shall be deemed to constitute repayment for the purposes of the preceding paragraph and shall also be deemed a permanent reduction in the amount of such Senior Secured Indebtedness).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, all Net Cash Proceeds from an Event of Loss (other than the proceeds of any business interruption insurance) shall be used within 365 days of receipt of such Net Cash Proceeds as follows:

(1) first, to repay or repurchase Senior Secured Indebtedness secured by the Property that was disposed in such Event of Loss, provided that the related loan commitment is thereby permanently reduced by such amount of Senior Secured Indebtedness repaid or repurchased by this covenant, and

Edgar Filing: SPACEHAB INC \WA\ - Form POS AM

(2) second, to make: (i) capital expenditures or (ii) investments in assets and property (other than notes, bonds, obligations and securities) which in the good faith reasonable judgment of our Board of Directors will immediately constitute or be a part of or useful in a Related Business immediately following such transaction, and

(3) third, to repay or repurchase the Indebtedness under the Credit Agreement, provided that the related loan commitment is thereby permanently reduced by such amount of Indebtedness under the Credit Agreement repaid or repurchased by this covenant, and

(4) fourth, to redeem exchange notes as described in clause (C) above.

This covenant will terminate when $1,000,000 aggregate principal amount or less of our 8% convertible subordinated notes due 2007 is outstanding.

This covenant may be amended and waived with the consent of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding exchange notes.

Limitation of Liens on Astrotech Assets

Neither we nor any of our Subsidiaries will create, assume or permit to exist any Lien, except Permitted Liens, upon (a) any Capital Stock of an Astrotech Subsidiary held by us or any of our Subsidiaries or (b) any of the Property of the Astrotech Subsidiaries. The foregoing covenant shall not apply to any Lien securing Acquired Indebtedness, provided that any such Liens extend only to the Properties that were subject to such Lien prior to the related acquisition by us or our Subsidiaries and was not created, incurred or assumed in contemplation of such transaction.

This covenant will terminate when $1,000,000 aggregate principal amount or less of our 8% convertible subordinated notes due 2007 is outstanding.

This covenant may be amended and waived with the consent of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding exchange notes.

- (F) Liens in our favor; and
- (G) Liens resulting from any judgment, decree, court order or award, to the extent not otherwise resulting in an event of default and any Liens that are required to perfect or enforce any rights in any administrative, arbitration or other court proceedings.

Senior Secured Indebtedness means our Indebtedness that is secured by a Lien that is not otherwise prohibited by the new indenture.

RISK FACTORS

The following risk factor, appearing on page 25 of the prospectus under Risks Related to the Exchange Notes, is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

A single beneficial owner will own more than a majority of the exchange notes. The exchange notes controlled by this owner will be convertible into greater than approximately 49.1% of our common stock.

SMH Capital Advisors, Inc., is a registered investment advisor who currently has been given discretionary authority to sell, tender or exchange an aggregate principal amount of $40,366,000 of the outstanding notes by the beneficial owners of those outstanding notes. While SMH Capital Advisors' ability to control the outstanding notes under its management is subject to certain limitations, including any specific directions of any beneficial owner relating to those outstanding notes or the transfer of such outstanding notes out of the account managed by SMH Capital Advisors, SMH Capital Advisors has previously expressed its intent to tender all outstanding notes under the prior terms of the exchange offer under its management at the time of the closing of the exchange offer. If all outstanding notes are tendered and validly accepted, then SMH Capital Advisors will control, on behalf of its clients, approximately 63.8% of the then outstanding exchange notes and, as such, would be able to control the outcome of matters submitted to the holders of exchange notes for approval that do not require the approval of all holders, including certain amendments to the terms of the notes or waivers of certain defaults.

Furthermore, if all of the exchange notes were converted into our common stock and all shares of our preferred stock were converted into our common stock at a conversion price of $1.50 per share, including those under management by SMH Capital Advisors, then SMH Capital Advisors would have the ability, on behalf of its clients and subject to certain limitations, to vote approximately 49.1% of our shares of common stock and, as such, would have the ability, to a significant extent, to affect the outcome of all matters required to be submitted to our shareholders for approval, including decisions relating to the election of directors and our ability to be acquired and other significant corporate transactions.

The following risk factor should be added under the heading Risks Related to the Exchange Notes :

The indenture governing the exchange notes will contain a covenant restricting our ability to sell or place liens upon our Astrotech subsidiaries or their assets, which may adversely affect sources of capital available to us and our ability to meet our obligations.

The indenture governing the exchange notes will contain a covenant that requires us to apply the proceeds from the disposition of Astrotech Space Operations, Inc. and Astrotech Florida Holdings, Inc. or their respective assets prior to the repayment of the outstanding notes towards repayment of our senior secured indebtedness, our revolving credit facility and the exchange notes. In addition, we will be restricted in our ability to use these subsidiaries and any of their assets as collateral to secure any new indebtedness. We believe that the assets of these subsidiaries, particularly their real property assets, comprise a substantial part of the value of the assets that we own. If the exchange offer is completed and only the minimum aggregate principal amount of outstanding notes are tendered, then approximately $12,650,000 of the outstanding notes will remain outstanding and will be due and payable in October 2007. We cannot give any assurance that our cash flows will be adequate to repay those notes when they become due. A default on our repayment of any remaining outstanding notes would cause an event of default under the exchange notes. Because the restrictions in the new indenture will limit our ability to use our Astrotech subsidiaries and their assets as a source of liquidity, these restrictions could adversely affect our ability to meet our obligations, including our obligations with respect to any outstanding notes that are not tendered in the exchange offer.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

SPACEHAB, Incorporated is organized under the laws of the State of Washington. Sections 23B.08.500 through 23B.08.600 of the Washington Business Corporation Act provide that a corporation may indemnify an individual who is made a party to a proceeding because he or she is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if: (1) the individual conducted himself or herself in good faith; and (2) the individual reasonably believed: (i) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the corporation, that the conduct was in the corporation's best interest; and (ii) in all other cases, that the conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests; and (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. A corporation may not indemnify a director: (i) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation; or (ii) in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the director, whether or not involving action in his or her official capacity, in which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her. Indemnification is mandatory for an officer or director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding, or of any claim, issue or matter, against reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding. A Washington corporation may indemnify an officer, agent or employee to the same extent as a director.

SPACEHAB, Incorporated's restated articles of incorporation provide that the corporation shall indemnify any person who is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the corporation. The board of directors of the corporation has discretion to provide the same indemnification as to directors and officers to any employee or agent of the corporation. The indemnification covers reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, judgments, decrees, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement, incurred in connection with the action, suit or proceeding, subject to the standard of conduct as set forth in the Washington Business Corporation Act as outlined above. No indemnification is allowed in respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which the person seeking indemnification has been adjudged liable for (i) negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation, unless and to the extent a court of competent jurisdiction determines that such person is entitled to indemnification, or (ii) violating any of the terms and provisions of Section 16 of Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. The indemnification provisions in the restated articles of incorporation are nonexclusive of any other rights to which the person seeking indemnification may be entitled under any law, bylaw, or agreement.

The articles of incorporation of SPACEHAB, Incorporated provide that the corporation may, and the bylaws of SPACEHAB, Incorporated provide that the corporation shall, indemnify any person made or threatened to be made a party to any proceeding, whether brought in the right of the corporation or otherwise, by reason of the fact that such person is or was an officer or director of the corporation, to the full extent permitted by the Washington Business Corporation Act. The corporation may purchase and maintain indemnification insurance for any person to the extent provided by applicable law.

Item 22. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period during which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of this registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in this registration statement when it became effective.
