Table of Contents*3 MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS*3.1 Overview and brief analysis of the Group's operating activities during the reporting period

During January to September 2006, international crude oil prices remained at a high level, thereby significantly increasing the production costs of the Group. As the prices of petroleum products are controlled by the State, there was limited room for prices of petroleum products to increase. As such, the gap between the domestic and international prices of refined oil products was rapidly enlarged. Consequently, the Group's refinery business suffered a serious loss. During January to September 2006, the Group made a provision for finished goods amounting to RMB67.482 million, which directly led to a loss recorded by the Group for the period of January to September.

During January to September of 2006, the Group's income from principal operations totaled RMB37,142 million, an increase of 10.40% as compared to the corresponding period of the previous year. Sales of synthetic fibres, resins and plastics, intermediate petrochemicals and petroleum products amounted to RMB3,547 million, RMB11,736 million, RMB4,865 million and RMB15,022 million, respectively. The Group's net loss for the period amounted to RMB60.274 million.

During January to September of 2006, the Group processed 6,759,500 tons of crude oil (of which 90,100 tons were sub-contracted processed crude oil), representing a decrease of 5.07% as compared to the corresponding period of the previous year. The Group's unit cost of crude oil processed amounted to RMB3,844.98 per ton, an increase of 24.57% as compared to the corresponding period of the previous year. The weighted average selling prices of the Group's synthetic fibres, resins and plastics, intermediate petrochemicals and petroleum products increased by 2.70%, 7.33%, 0.69% and 16.94%, respectively.

3.1.1 Principal operations and products accounting for 10% or more of income from principal operations or gross profit from principal operations

Price-setting principles of connected transactions

The directors of the Company (including independent non-executive directors) believe that the above connected transactions were conducted on normal commercial terms which were no less favorable than those offered to or by any third party and were conducted in an ordinary course of business. This was confirmed by the independent non-executive directors of the Company.

3.2 Reason for the projection of possible losses in the accumulated net profit for the period from the beginning of the year to the end of the next reporting period or warning for possible significant changes as compared to the same period last year

Due to the fact that international crude oil prices remained at a high level while the prices of refined oil products are controlled by the State, the refinery business suffered a serious loss during January to September 2006. The Board estimates that the net profit of the Group for the 12 months ended 31 December 2006 will drop substantially when compared to the net profit for the 12 months ended 31 December 2005.

3.3 As at the date of this quarterly report, the schedule of share segregation reform for the company which share segregation reform not yet completed

The Company published an announcement on 9 October 2006: that the share segregation reform of the Company formally commenced and trading in the Company's shares was temporarily suspended due to the commencement of the share segregation reform. The Company disclosed its share reform proposal as well as a notice of the relevant A shareholder meeting on the website of Shanghai Stock Exchange and in China Securities Journal and Shanghai Securities News on 16 October 2006. On 23 October 2006, the Company published an announcement in respect of the result of the communication among shareholders. Shanghai Petrochemical Announces 2006 First Three Quarter Results

(Hong Kong, October 26, 2006) Sinopec Shanghai Petrochemical Company Limited ( Shanghai Petrochemical or the Company ) (HKEx:338; SSE: 600688; NYSE: SHI) announced today the unaudited operating results of the Company and its subsidiaries (the Group ) for the nine-month periods ended September 30, 2006 (the Period ). In accordance with PRC Accounting Standards, during the Period, the Group s income from principal operations amounted to RMB37,142 million, an increase of 10.40% as compared to the corresponding period of the previous year. Net loss amounted to RMB60.27 million (2005: Net profit RMB1,749 million).

Mr. Rong Guangdao, Chairman of Shanghai Petrochemical, said, During January to September 2006, although the Group s income from principal operations increased as compare to the corresponding period of the previous year, due to continued upsurge of international crude oil prices, the Group s production costs also increased significantly. In addition, there was limited room for increasing product selling prices, in particular for refined oil products, as prices were controlled by the State, there was a great discrepancy of selling prices between the domestic and the international markets. As a result, the Group s refinery business suffered a serious loss. However, following the two-times increase in prices on petroleum products, the loss situation for July to September of the Group has been improved.

During the Period, the Group s sales of synthetic fibres, resins and plastics, intermediate petrochemicals and petroleum products amounted to RMB3,547 million, RMB11,736 million, RMB4,865 million and RMB15,022 million, respectively. The consolidated average selling prices of the above-mentioned products increased by 2.70%, 7.33%, 0.69% and 16.94%, respectively.

During the Period, the Group processed 6,759,500 tons of crude oil (of which 90,100 tons were on sub-contracted basis). With the effect of increased crude oil prices, the Group s unit cost of crude oil processed also increased by 24.57% to RMB3,844.98 per ton.

Looking ahead, Mr. Rong said, Although the loss situation of the Group has been improved, the Group still faces a difficult external environment. The Group will adjust its developing approach in line with such economic changes, focus on optimization and adjustment, improve upon the management philosophy, expedite meticulous management, improve the application of the appropriated methodology, and accelerate the pace of reform programs so as to maintain steady development of the Group.

Shanghai Petrochemical is one of the largest petrochemical companies in PRC and was one of the first Chinese companies to make a global securities offering. Located in Jinshan District in the southwest of Shanghai, it is a highly integrated petrochemical complex which processes crude oil into a broad range of products in synthetic fibres, resins and plastics, intermediate petrochemicals and petroleum products.
