Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangement of Certain Officers.

On January 10, 2007, Lydall, Inc. (the Company), entered into an Indemnification Agreement with David Freeman, President and Chief Executive Officer, an Employment Agreement and Indemnification Agreement with Thomas P. Smith, Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, and Employment Agreements with Bill W. Franks, Jr., President, Lydall Transport and Kevin T. Longe, President, Filtration/Separation. The Company also entered into an Amendment to Letter of Understanding with Bertrand Ploquin, President, European Automotive. In addition, the Company entered into Employment Agreements with other officers of the Company.

Pursuant to Mr. Freeman's and Mr. Smith's Indemnification Agreements, Mr. Freeman and Mr. Smith are entitled to the rights of indemnification if, by reason of their Corporate Status (as defined in the agreements) they are, or are threatened to be made, a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, arbitration, alternate dispute resolution mechanism, investigation, administrative hearing or any other proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a Proceeding) other than a Proceeding by or in the right of the Company. They shall be indemnified against all expenses, judgments, penalties, fines, and amounts paid in settlement by them or on their behalf in connection with such Proceeding providing they acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company and, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that they are successful on the merits or otherwise, in any Proceeding, they shall be indemnified against all expenses actually and reasonably incurred by them or on their behalf in connection therewith. If they are not wholly successful in such Proceeding but are successful, on the merits or otherwise, as to one or more but less than all claims, issues or matters in such Proceeding, the Company shall indemnify them against all expenses actually and reasonably incurred by them or on their behalf in connection with each successfully resolved claim, issue or matter.

The Company shall advance all reasonable expenses incurred by them or on their behalf of them in connection with any Proceeding within ten days after the receipt by the Company of a statement or statements from them requesting such advance or advances from time to time, whether prior to or after final disposition of such Proceeding.

The Indemnification Agreements shall continue until and terminate upon the later of: (a) 10 years after the date that they shall have ceased to serve as a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Company or (b) the final termination of any Proceeding then pending in respect of which they are granted rights of indemnification or advancement of expenses.

Pursuant to Mr. Smith's Employment Agreement, Mr. Smith will continue to serve as Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer and will be entitled to an initial annual base salary of $240,000. Mr. Smith's agreement remains in place indefinitely until he is no longer employed by the Company or its subsidiaries.

Pursuant to Mr. Frank's Employment Agreement, Mr. Franks will continue to serve as President, Lydall Transport, Ltd. and will be entitled to an initial annual base salary of $258,000. In addition, the individual will receive (i) a pro-rata bonus for the year of termination and (ii) medical, dental and life insurance coverage for up to 12 months or until such individual becomes full-time employed with an employer who offers such insurance benefits, whichever is earlier, subject to any required employee contributions. Franks, Smith or Longe dies, the Company will provide to the deceased employee's estate, in addition to his base salary through termination date, (i) health coverage for his dependents for 12 months under COBRA and (ii) a pro-rata bonus for the year of death, if a bonus would have been earned for the year of death.

The amendment to the Letter of Understanding with Mr. Ploquin provides that in the event of a termination other than for gross misconduct or for good reason (as defined in the amendment) which occurs within 18 months following a Change of Control of the Company, the termination benefits would include: compensation equal to 24 months of gross remuneration including bonus which will include six months' compensation in exchange for a non-competition obligation, as required by law; a car allowance for 24 months; vesting in stock options and restricted stock; outplacement services not to exceed $10,000 and certain other benefits.
