The letter to the Board of Directors is attached to this Amendment as Exhibit 99. The Filing Parties acquired their holdings of the Common Stock because they believed the Common Stock represented a favorable investment opportunity. The Filing Parties believe that the Company's market capitalization is so low that the costs of being public are prohibitive and that the Board of Directors should consider thoroughly potential opportunities to enhance shareholder value through, among other options, a business combination or sale of the Company or its assets. The Filing Parties may engage in discussions with the directors of the Company and third parties regarding the possibility of supporting such a transaction.

The Filing Parties will, from time to time, revisit the purpose of their investment in the Company in order to maximize shareholder value. Accordingly, future acquisitions of the Common Stock may be for the purpose of, among other things, effecting an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, asset sale or reorganization of the Company.

The Filing Parties may also participate in discussions with potential purchasers of their shares of Common Stock, sell some or all of their shares of Common Stock in the open market or through privately negotiated transactions, or change their intention with respect to any and all of the matters referred to above.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a)-(b) The aggregate number and percentage of the outstanding Common Stock of the Company beneficially owned (i) by each of the Filing Parties, and (ii) to the knowledge of the Filing Parties, by each other person who may be deemed to be a member of the group, is as follows:

* Based on 5,129,760 shares of Common Stock, $.001 par value, outstanding as of May 3, 2007, which is based on information reported in the Company's 10-Q, for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2007.
