Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 14, 2007, Danaher Corporation (Danaher or the Company) and Raven Acquisition Corp., an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (the Purchaser), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Tektronix, Inc. (Tektronix). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, the Purchaser will commence a tender offer (the Offer) to purchase all of Tektronix 's outstanding shares of common stock (the Common Stock), including the associated preferred share purchase rights (the Rights), issued pursuant to the Rights Agreement, dated as of June 21, 2000 between Tektronix and ChaseMellon Shareholder Services, L.L.C. (such Common Stock, together with the associated Rights, the Tektronix Shares), at a purchase price of $38.00 per share in cash (the Offer Price). Upon successful completion of the Offer, the Purchaser will be merged with and into Tektronix (the Merger), with each outstanding Tektronix Share being converted into the right to receive the Offer Price in cash. Tektronix will survive the Merger as an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Parent.

The obligation to accept for payment and pay for Tektronix Shares tendered in the Offer is subject to customary conditions, including, among other things: (1) the tender of a majority of the total number of outstanding Tektronix Shares, on a fully diluted basis (excluding shares issuable under Tektronix 's outstanding Convertible Notes), (2) the absence of injunctions prohibiting the Offer or the Merger, (3) the expiration or termination of any waiting period (and any extension thereof) under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and material applicable foreign statutes and regulations, (4) the accuracy of the representations of Tektronix in the Merger Agreement, (5) compliance by Tektronix with its covenants in the Merger Agreement and (6) the absence of a material adverse effect on Tektronix.

In the Merger Agreement, Tektronix granted to the Purchaser an irrevocable option (the Top-Up Option) to purchase, at a per share price equal to the Offer Price, Tektronix Shares equal to the number of Tektronix Shares that, when added to the number of Tektronix Shares owned by Danaher and the Purchaser immediately following consummation of the Offer, equals one share more than 90% of the Tektronix Shares then outstanding. Pursuant to the Top-Up Option, Tektronix would only be required to issue up to that number of Tektronix Shares that would not require a vote of Tektronix 's shareholders to authorize additional shares of capital stock under the Articles of Incorporation of Tektronix up to a maximum of 19.90% of outstanding Tektronix Shares.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 2.01 to this report and is incorporated in this report by reference. The Merger Agreement has been attached to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Danaher, the Purchaser or Tektronix. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules provided by Tektronix to Danaher and the Purchaser in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement. These disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were used for the purpose of allocating risk between Danaher and the Purchaser, on the one hand, and Tektronix, on the other hand, rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement should not be viewed as characterizations of the actual state of facts about Danaher, the Purchaser or Tektronix.

Danaher and Tektronix issued a joint press release on October 15, 2007 announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement. A copy of the press release is included as Exhibit 99.01 to this report and is incorporated in this report by reference.

Important Information
