Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 24, 2008, MasterCard Incorporated and MasterCard International Incorporated (collectively, MasterCard or the Company ) entered into a settlement agreement (the Settlement ) with American Express Company ( American Express ) relating to the U.S. federal antitrust litigation between MasterCard and American Express. This Settlement ends all existing litigation between American Express and MasterCard. A copy of the Company s press release announcing the Settlement is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is hereby incorporated by reference.

As described in the press release included as Exhibit 99.1, under the Settlement, beginning on September 15, 2008, MasterCard will pay American Express up to $150 million each quarter for 12 quarters, payable in cash on the 15th day of the last month of each quarter, for a maximum of $1.8 billion. MasterCard expects to take a charge of approximately $1 billion on a tax-affected net present value basis in the second quarter of 2008. The charge is based upon MasterCard s assumption that American Express will achieve the financial performance hurdles described below. The quarterly payments will be in an amount equal to 15% of American Express s United States Global Network Services billings during the quarter, up to a maximum of $150 million per quarter. If, however, the payment for any quarter is less than $150 million, the maximum payment for subsequent quarters will be increased by the difference between $150 million and the lesser amount that was paid in any quarter in which there was a shortfall.
