Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation Under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

On September 4, 2008, Pennsylvania Real Estate Investment Trust (the Company), PREIT Associates, L.P. (which is the operating partnership of the Company) and PREIT-RUBIN, Inc. (PREIT Associates and PREIT-RUBIN, collectively, the Borrower) entered into a senior unsecured Term Loan Agreement (the Term Loan Agreement) with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as agent, sole bookrunner and lead arranger. The Borrower has borrowed $130.0 million under the Term Loan Agreement. On September 9, 2008, four subsidiaries of the Company closed agreements for an aggregate of approximately $290.0 million through four separate loan transactions, each of which is secured by a mortgage on a mall owned indirectly by the Company through one of the four subsidiaries. The malls are Jacksonville Mall (Jacksonville, North Carolina), Logan Valley Mall (Altoona, Pennsylvania), Wyoming Valley Mall (Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania) and Patrick Henry Mall (Newport News, Virginia).

The Company used the proceeds of the borrowing under the Term Loan Agreement, these four mortgage loans and a borrowing under its Credit Facility to repay the Company's approximately $400 million, 15 property real estate mortgage investment conduit, or REMIC, in full. In connection with this repayment, the 15 malls were released from the liens under the REMIC, and, as described above, four of these malls were used to secure new mortgage financings. The Company assumed the REMIC in connection with its 2003 merger with Crown American Realty Trust.

Term Loan Agreement

On September 4, 2008 and September 9, 2008, the Company borrowed $83.5 million and $46.5 million, respectively, under the Term Loan Agreement. The Borrower swapped the floating interest rate on the amount borrowed to date under the Term Loan Agreement to a fixed rate of 5.325%. The Company may increase the outstanding amount of the term loan, subject to certain conditions and to the participation of additional lenders, on up to two additional occasions before the initial maturity date of March 20, 2010.

The lenders under the Term Loan Agreement include Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, TD Bank, N.A., U.S. Bank National Association and Wilmington Trust of Pennsylvania. The Borrower has one option to extend the term for twelve months, subject to the absence of any events of default at that time. Interest under the Term Loan Agreement is payable monthly in arrears, and no principal payment is due until the end of the term. The Term Loan Agreement contains lender yield protection provisions. The Borrower may not prepay the loan during the first twelve months of the term, but may prepay all or a portion of the term loan beginning in the thirteenth month, subject to a prepayment fee. The Company and certain of its subsidiaries are guarantors of the obligations arising under the Term Loan Agreement.

The Borrower is required to have interest rate protection as to a notional amount of not less than 80% of the term loan amount.

The Term Loan Agreement contains customary representations and affirmative and negative covenants, including compliance with certain financial covenants that are materially the same as those contained in the Company's Credit Facility. A description of the financial covenants under the Company's Credit Facility, as amended, is set forth on pages 51 and 52 of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 and on pages 2 and 3 of the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on May 27, 2008.

Upon the expiration of any applicable cure period following an event of default, the lenders may declare all outstanding obligations in connection with the Term Loan Agreement immediately due and payable. Upon the occurrence of a voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy proceeding of the Company, PREIT Associates, PREIT-RUBIN, Inc. or any material subsidiary, all outstanding amounts will automatically become immediately due and payable.

Wells Fargo Bank, National Association is the administrative agent and a lender under the Company's Credit Facility.
