Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 22, 2008, Cortex Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company) entered into an Amendment No. 2 to Employment Agreement (the Coleman Amendment) with James H. Coleman, the Company's Senior Vice President, Business Development, which amends his Employment Agreement with the Company dated as of May 17, 2000, as amended January 1, 2004 (the Employment Agreement), and an Amendment No. 1 to Severance Agreement (the Messinger Amendment) with Maria S. Messinger, the Company's Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, which amends her Severance Agreement with the Company dated as of October 26, 2000 (the Severance Agreement). The Coleman Amendment and the Messinger Amendment are referred to herein collectively as the Amendments and the Employment Agreement and the Severance Agreement are referred to herein collectively as the Agreements.

The Company entered into the Amendments for the purpose of bringing the Agreements into compliance with the applicable provisions of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the Treasury Regulations issued thereunder. Section 409A governs nonqualified deferred compensation arrangements. Section 409A imposes penalties and additional tax on service providers (including employees and directors) if a nonqualified deferred compensation arrangement does not comply with its provisions. The Coleman Amendment modifies the definition of termination for good reason and related procedures to comply with Section 409A, clarifies that any severance payments which are treated as non-qualified deferred compensation must be made upon a separation of service with the Company and that, subject to certain exceptions, such payments may be delayed for a period of six months if Mr. Coleman is deemed to be a specified employee at the time of his termination of employment and provides that certain other payments, including expense reimbursements, will be made only at times permissible without triggering tax penalties under Section 409A. The Messinger Amendment modifies the definition of termination for good reason and related procedures to comply with Section 409A and clarifies that any severance payments which are treated as non-qualified deferred compensation must be made upon a separation of service with the Company and that, subject to certain exceptions, such payments may be delayed for a period of six months if Ms. Messinger is deemed to be a specified employee at the time of her termination of employment.

The foregoing descriptions of the Coleman Amendment and the Messinger Amendment do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full texts of the Coleman Amendment and the Messinger Amendment, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibit 10.110 and Exhibit 10.111, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

See the disclosures set forth under Item 1.01 regarding the Coleman Amendment and the Messinger Amendment, which are incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.
