Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 31, 2010, Allergan, Inc. and its affiliates Allergan Sales, LLC and Allergan USA, Inc. (together, Allergan ) and Serenity Pharmaceuticals LLC ( Serenity ), entered into a License, Transfer, and Development Agreement (the Agreement ) for the development and commercialization of Ser-120, a nasally administered low dosage formulation of desmopressin currently in Phase III clinical trials for the treatment of nocturia. Nocturia is a common yet often under-diagnosed urological disorder in adults characterized by frequent urination at night time. Under the Agreement, Allergan will receive an exclusive worldwide license to develop, manufacture and commercialize Ser-120 for all potential indications except, under certain circumstances, primary nocturnal enuresis (pediatric bedwetting), which may remain with Serenity. Allergan will make a $43 million upfront payment to Serenity, potential development and regulatory milestone payments of up to $122 million, as well as potential sales milestone payments and royalties on worldwide sales. Serenity will initially be responsible for supplying the product necessary for development and commercial sale after regulatory approval, subject to Allergan s rights to assume manufacturing.

The foregoing description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report and incorporated herein by this reference.
