Check the following box if the filing is a final amendment reporting the results of the tender offer:

This filing relates solely to preliminary communications made prior to the commencement of an anticipated tender offer to allow eligible employees of Dolby Laboratories, Inc. (the Company) to exchange certain of their outstanding stock options for a reduced number of restricted stock unit awards to be granted under the Company's 2005 Stock Plan with a new vesting schedule.

On February 9, 2012, Andrew Dahlkemper, Senior Vice President, Human Resources, sent an email message to Company employees advising them that the Company's stockholders approved a proposal relating to a potential stock option exchange program (the Exchange Program) and providing additional information on the anticipated communications process for the stock option exchange program. A copy of Mr. Dahlkemper's email message to Company employees is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1.

The email communication to employees described in the report does not constitute an offer to holders of eligible options to exchange such options. The Exchange Program described in the email communication to employees has not commenced and the Company may still decide not to implement the Exchange Program. The Company will file a Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO with the Securities and Exchange Commission upon the commencement of the Exchange Program. Persons who may be eligible to participate in the Exchange Program should read the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO, including the offer to exchange and other related materials, when those materials become available because they will contain important information about the Exchange Program. The Company's stockholders and option holders will be able to obtain these written materials and other documents filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission free of charge from the Company's website at www.dolby.com or from the Securities and Exchange Commission's website at www.sec.gov.
