Section 7 Regulation FD

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On March 15, 2013, Chesapeake Energy Corporation (the Company) announced that it has delivered notice to the Depositary to redeem the Company's 6.775% Senior Notes due 2019 (the Notes) at par and that it is continuing to pursue its lawsuit requesting the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York to confirm that the notice to redeem the Notes the Company issued today will be timely and effective to redeem the Notes at par, with payment to be made within 60 days after such notice, pursuant to the Special Early Redemption provision of the Notes. Copies of the press release and notice are attached as Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Also on March 15, 2013, the Company announced that, although the Court denied the Company's request for a preliminary injunction concerning The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company's obligation to accept the Company's notice of Special Early Redemption at par, the Company obtained what the Company views as comparable relief, in the form of preliminary statements from the Court that the Company believes show that if the notice is ultimately found to be untimely to effect the redemption at par, the notice will not be deemed to have effected a redemption at the make-whole price but, in that case, will be deemed ineffective for any redemption. A copy of the transcript of the Court's decision is attached as Exhibit 99.3 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
