Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On June 18, 2013, Stereotaxis, Inc. (the Company) received a determination letter from the Listing Qualifications Staff (the Staff) of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (NASDAQ) notifying the Company that the Staff had denied the Company's request for an extension to evidence compliance with the requirements for continued listing on The NASDAQ Global Market as set forth in NASDAQ Listing Rule 5450(b), including the $50.0 million in total assets and total revenue requirement or its alternatives (collectively, the Rule), and, as a result, the Company's securities would be subject to delisting from NASDAQ unless the Company requests a hearing before the NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel (the Panel).

The Company intends to timely request a hearing before the Panel, at which it will present its plan to achieve compliance with the continued listing requirements for The NASDAQ Capital Market, which are lower than the requirements for The NASDAQ Global Market. Accordingly, the Company intends to request that the Panel transfer the Company's listing to The NASDAQ Capital Market and grant the Company an extension of time to achieve compliance with the requirements for continued listing on that market. The hearing request will automatically stay the delisting of the Company's securities pending the issuance of the Panel's decision following the hearing and the expiration of any extension period granted by the Panel. Under the NASDAQ Listing Rules, the Panel may, in its discretion, determine to continue the Company's listing pursuant to an exception for a maximum of 180 calendar days from the date of the Staff's determination letter, or through December 16, 2013. While the Company is diligently working to achieve compliance with the continued listing requirements for The NASDAQ Capital Market, there can be no assurance that the Panel will grant the Company's request for a transfer to The NASDAQ Capital Market and an extension of time to achieve compliance with the applicable listing requirements.

As previously disclosed, on March 20, 2013, the Company received notification from the Staff indicating that the Company no longer satisfied the Rule given that the Company did not evidence $50.0 million in total assets and total revenues for the most recently completed fiscal year or for two of the last three most recently completed fiscal years and did not otherwise satisfy the alternative listing requirements set forth in the Rule. The Company thereafter provided a plan to regain compliance with the Rule for the Staff's review, which was subsequently denied by the Staff.
