Preliminary Revocation Solicitation Statement Subject to Completion, dated June 16, 2014

ALLERGAN, INC.

Dear Stockholder:

As you may be aware, PS Fund 1, LLC and certain affiliated entities and persons (collectively, Pershing Square) recently disclosed that they became a stockholder of Allergan, Inc. (the Company or Allergan) after its rapid and originally undisclosed accumulation of beneficial ownership of approximately 9.7% of Allergan's common stock. Subsequently, Pershing Square and Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. (Valeant) announced an unsolicited proposal to acquire Allergan, which they revised twice, most recently on May 30, 2014, under which each share of Allergan common stock would be exchanged for 0.83 shares of Valeant common stock and $72.00 in cash. Valeant has also indicated the potential inclusion of a contingent value right related to DARPin® sales.

The Board of Directors of Allergan (your Board), after consulting with its independent financial and legal advisors, has unanimously determined that the proposal from Pershing Square and Valeant substantially undervalues Allergan, creates significant risks and uncertainties for the stockholders of Allergan, and is not in the best interests of Allergan and its stockholders. Despite your Board's conclusion, Pershing Square is now soliciting your revocable proxy (the Pershing Square Solicitation) in an effort to demand a special meeting of the Company's stockholders be called to consider and vote upon a number of proposals, which include (i) to remove six members of the Board that were duly elected by our stockholders at our recent annual meeting of stockholders on May 6, 2014, (ii) to request that the Board elect or appoint six of Pershing Square's nominees to serve on the Board none of whom have as of yet been identified by Pershing Square, (iii) to amend certain provisions of our Amended and Restated Bylaws and (iv) to request that the Board engage with Valeant, Pershing Square's co-bidder, regarding its proposal to acquire Allergan.

Your Board strongly believes that convening a special meeting is not in the best interests of Allergan or its stockholders at this time. Furthermore, as a co-bidder in an unsolicited bid to acquire Allergan that the Board has concluded substantially undervalues Allergan, the interests of Pershing Square are not aligned with the interests of all of our stockholders. Pershing Square has announced an agreement with Valeant under which Pershing Square would receive a fixed number of Valeant shares if a transaction between Valeant and Allergan occurs. As such, your Board believes that Pershing Square is incentivized to have Valeant pay the lowest possible price to acquire Allergan.

The Board does not believe that the issues raised in the Pershing Square Solicitation, including requesting discussions between Allergan and Valeant, should be addressed at a special meeting demanded by a stockholder with specific short-term interests that are not aligned with the interests of all of our stockholders. Rather, the Board strongly believes that the more prudent course of action is for Allergan to focus on extending its track record of substantial growth that the Board is confident will create significantly more value for stockholders than Pershing Square's and Valeant's unsolicited proposal.

If you have already submitted a white written request card to Pershing Square supporting the calling of a special meeting, you can revoke such request by marking YES, REVOKE MY REQUEST and submitting the accompanying BLUE revocation card to the Company. Even if you have not submitted a white written request card to Pershing Square, you may nevertheless communicate that you do not believe a special meeting is necessary or express your opposition to calling a special meeting by signing, dating and returning the accompanying BLUE revocation card to the Company.

Regardless of the number of shares of common stock of the Company that you own, your views are important. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,

David E.I. Pyott
Chairman & Chief Executive Officer

ALLERGAN, INC.
REVOCATION SOLICITATION STATEMENT OF ALLERGAN, INC.
IN RESPONSE TO A SOLICITATION OF WRITTEN REQUESTS FOR SPECIAL MEETING
BY PS FUND 1, LLC
, 2014

This Revocation Solicitation Statement (this Revocation Solicitation Statement) and the accompanying BLUE revocation card (the BLUE Revocation Card) are being furnished by Allergan, Inc., a Delaware corporation (we, the Company or Allergan), to the holders of outstanding shares of our common stock, par value $0.01 per share (our Common Stock), in connection with the solicitation of white written request forms (Written Requests) by PS Fund 1, LLC and certain affiliated entities and persons (collectively, Pershing Square). This Revocation Solicitation Statement and the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card are first being mailed to stockholders on or about , 2014.

As you may be aware, Pershing Square recently disclosed that they became a stockholder of Allergan after its rapid and originally undisclosed accumulation of beneficial ownership of approximately 9.7% of our Common Stock. Subsequently, Pershing Square and Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. (Valeant) announced an unsolicited proposal to acquire Allergan, which they revised twice, most recently on May 30, 2014 (the Re-Revised Proposal, as discussed below), under which each share of Allergan Common Stock would be exchanged for 0.83 shares of Valeant common stock and $72.00 in cash. Valeant has also indicated the potential inclusion of a contingent value right related to DARPin® sales.

The Board of Directors of Allergan (the Board), after consulting with its independent financial and legal advisors, has unanimously determined that the Pershing Square and Valeant proposal substantially undervalues Allergan, creates significant risks and uncertainties for the stockholders of Allergan, and is not in the best interests of Allergan and its stockholders. Despite your Board's conclusion, Pershing Square is now soliciting your revocable proxy (the Pershing Square Solicitation) to demand a special meeting of the Company's stockholders, to consider and vote upon a number of proposals, which include proposals (i) to remove six members of Allergan's Board of Directors that were duly elected by our stockholders at our recent annual meeting of stockholders on May 6, 2014, (ii) to request that the Board elect or appoint six of Pershing Square's nominees to serve on the Board - none of whom have as of yet been identified by Pershing Square, (iii) to amend certain provisions of our Amended and Restated Bylaws (the Bylaws) and (iv) to request that the Board engage with Valeant, Pershing Square's co-bidder, regarding its proposal to acquire Allergan. Pershing Square's specific and short-term interests are not aligned with the interests of other Allergan stockholders because Pershing Square is a co-bidder with Valeant in its efforts to acquire Allergan. In addition, Pershing Square has announced an agreement with Valeant under which Pershing Square would receive a fixed number of Valeant shares if a transaction between Valeant and Allergan occurs. As such, Pershing Square is incentivized and would benefit if Valeant pays less for Allergan. Pershing Square and Valeant appear to be rushing to attempt to acquire Allergan at the lowest possible price they can. The Board intends to protect the interests of all Allergan stockholders by acting with due care and with regard to all available information.

Under our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the Charter) and our Bylaws, the calling of a stockholder-requested special meeting will require the delivery of valid and unrevoked written requests of record holders of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, subject to and in compliance with our Charter and Bylaws. As of [redacted], 2014, there were [redacted] outstanding shares of Common Stock. Based on the number of shares outstanding on [redacted], 2014, in order to request the special meeting in accordance with the Bylaws, Pershing Square would need to validly deliver to the Company pursuant to our Charter and Bylaws, executed and unrevoked written requests from record holders of approximately [redacted] shares of Common Stock, including the 28,878,538 shares purported to be owned by Pershing Square (as of June 13, 2014). The actual number of shares of our Common Stock for which executed and unrevoked written requests will need to be received in order to request a special meeting will depend on the number of shares that are outstanding at the time written requests representing valid and unrevoked written requests of holders of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock are delivered to the Company pursuant to our Bylaws. If prior to the date of such special meeting, we receive revocations of Written Requests (or holders who duly executed Written Requests no longer beneficially own their shares) such that there are no longer valid unrevoked Written Requests from holders of record of at least 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as provided in our Bylaws, the Board has the discretion to cancel the stockholder-requested special meeting.

The Company is a party to a Rights Agreement dated April 22, 2014, between Allergan and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (the Rights Agreement). As long as Pershing Square (along with any of its related persons) does not otherwise engage in (or has not otherwise engaged in) conduct that would result in its becoming an Acquiring Person (as defined in the Rights Agreement), Pershing Square's mere solicitation and receipt of Written Requests to cause a special meeting of stockholders pursuant to and in accordance with our Bylaws and the proxy rules and regulations of the Exchange Act, will not, of itself, cause Pershing Square to become an Acquiring Person.

As of [redacted], 2014, our directors and executive officers collectively beneficially own [redacted] shares of Common Stock, representing approximately [redacted] % of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. None of our directors or executive officers intend to deliver any Written Request with respect to any of their shares of Common Stock.

For additional information regarding the mechanics of the consent solicitation, see The Special Meeting Request Procedure Effectiveness of Written Requests.

YOUR BOARD HAS UNANIMOUSLY DETERMINED THAT THE PERSHING SQUARE SOLICITATION IS CONTRARY TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COMPANY AND ITS STOCKHOLDERS, AND STRONGLY OPPOSES THE SOLICITATION OF WRITTEN REQUESTS BY PERSHING SQUARE. ACCORDINGLY, THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT YOU DO NOT SIGN ANY WHITE WRITTEN REQUEST CARD SENT TO YOU BY PERSHING SQUARE. IN ADDITION, WHETHER OR NOT YOU HAVE PREVIOUSLY EXECUTED PERSHING SQUARE'S WHITE WRITTEN REQUEST CARD, YOU MAY ELECT AGAINST THE CALLING OF A SPECIAL MEETING, AND YOU MAY REVOKE ANY PREVIOUSLY EXECUTED WRITTEN REQUEST TO CALL A SPECIAL MEETING, IF YOU SIGN, DATE AND DELIVER THE ENCLOSED BLUE REVOCATION CARD USING THE PRE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED AT ANY TIME PRIOR TO THE DATE OF ANY STOCKHOLDER-CALLED SPECIAL MEETING.

If you have questions or need assistance revoking your Written Request for your shares, please contact our proxy solicitor:

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THIS REVOCATION SOLICITATION STATEMENT

Why am I receiving this Revocation Solicitation Statement?

Pershing Square recently became a stockholder of Allergan, after a rapid and originally undisclosed accumulation of beneficial ownership of approximately 9.7% of our Common Stock. When Pershing Square acquired beneficial ownership of its shares of our Common Stock, it knew but did not disclose to other Allergan stockholders that Valeant was planning to announce an unsolicited proposal to acquire Allergan. Thus, based on its reported arrangements with Valeant and its purchase price of the shares of our Common Stock following the announcement by Valeant, the gains on Pershing Square's shares of our Common Stock were approximately $1,500,000,000. As you may be aware, Pershing Square is soliciting written requests from Allergan stockholders to demand a special meeting of the Company's stockholders. At the proposed special meeting, we understand that Pershing Square expects to present to Allergan stockholders to consider and vote upon the proposals described under Description of the Pershing Square Solicitation.

You are receiving this Revocation Solicitation Statement as a stockholder of Allergan as of the date of this Revocation Solicitation Statement. As further described below, we request that you sign, date and deliver the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card, by mail in the event you desire to:

1. Revoke any Written Request that you may have delivered to Pershing Square to request that we call a special meeting; or
2. Communicate that you do not believe a special meeting is necessary or express your opposition to a special meeting, even if you have not already submitted a Written Request to Pershing Square (or have no intention to do so).

Who is making this solicitation?

Allergan is making this solicitation.

Should I oppose Pershing Square's efforts to call a special meeting?

The Board strongly believes that convening a special meeting is not in the best interests of Allergan or its stockholders at this time. As a co-bidder in an unsolicited proposal to acquire Allergan that the Board has concluded substantially undervalues Allergan, the interests of Pershing Square are not aligned with the interests of all of our stockholders. In addition, Pershing Square has announced an agreement with Valeant under which Pershing Square would receive a fixed number of Valeant shares if a transaction occurs. As such, Pershing Square would benefit if Valeant pays less for Allergan and is incentivized to cause Valeant to pay less for Allergan.

Furthermore, the Board does not believe that the issues raised in the Pershing Square Solicitation, including requesting discussions between Allergan and Valeant, should be addressed at a special meeting demanded by a stockholder with specific short-term interests that are not aligned with the interests of all of our stockholders. Rather, the Board strongly believes that the more prudent course of action is for Allergan to extend its track record of substantial growth that the Board is confident will create significantly more value for stockholders than Pershing Square's and Valeant's proposal.

What are you asking me to do?

The Board has unanimously determined that the Pershing Square Solicitation is contrary to the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, and vigorously opposes the solicitation of written request cards by Pershing Square. Accordingly, the Board recommends that you do not sign any white written request card sent to you by Pershing Square. Whether or not you have previously executed Pershing Square's white written request card, you may elect against the calling of a special meeting if you sign, date and deliver the enclosed BLUE revocation card by mail (using the enclosed pre-paid envelope) to our proxy solicitor, Innisfree M&A Incorporated (Innisfree), at 501 Madison Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, NY 10022.

If I have already delivered a Written Request, is it too late for me to change my mind?

No. You have the right to revoke your Written Request at any time prior to the date of any stockholder-requested special meeting by signing, dating and delivering a BLUE Revocation Card to our proxy solicitor, Innisfree, at 501 Madison Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, NY 10022.

When will the Written Requests become effective?

Table of Contents

Under our Charter and Bylaws, the Written Requests will become effective if valid and unrevoked Written Requests of the holders of record of at least 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock are delivered to the Corporate Secretary of Allergan in the form and manner required by, and in compliance with, our Charter and Bylaws within 60 days after the date of the earliest dated Written Request.

What happens if I do nothing?

If you do not send in any white Written Request card that Pershing Square may send you and you do not return the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card, you will effectively be voting AGAINST Pershing Square's attempt to hold a special meeting.

Does the revocation have any effect on matters other than the Written Request?

No. We are seeking revocations only for the Written Request related to the calling of the special meeting. We are not currently seeking your proxy, vote, consent or authorization with respect to any other matter.

Whom should I call if I have questions about the solicitation?

1. to remove from office, without cause, the following six members of the current Board of Directors of the Company, [1], [1], [1], [1], [1] and [1], as well as any person or persons elected or appointed to the Board without shareholder approval after the Company's 2014 annual meeting and up to and including the date of the Special Meeting;

3. (i) to amend Article II, Section 3 and Article II, Section 9 of the Bylaws to remove certain special meeting provisions, to provide mechanics for determining the place, date and hour of and record date for any special meeting called at the request of the Company's shareholders and to provide mechanics for calling a special meeting if no directors or less than a majority of directors are then in office, and (ii) to amend Article III, Section 2 of the Bylaws to establish the authorized number of directors of the Company at nine directors, in each case as set forth in greater detail on Exhibit C to the Pershing Square Solicitation;

4. to repeal any amendment changing the Bylaws in any way from the version that was publicly filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 26, 2014 and became effective as of May 6, 2014; and

5. to request that the Board promptly engage in good faith discussions with Valeant regarding Valeant's offer to merge with the Company, without in any way precluding discussions the Board may choose to engage in with other parties potentially offering higher value.

BACKGROUND OF THE PERSHING SQUARE SOLICITATION

Today, we have approximately 11,600 highly dedicated and talented employees, global marketing and sales capabilities with a presence in more than 100 countries, a rich and ever-evolving portfolio of pharmaceuticals, biologics, medical devices and over-the-counter consumer products, and state-of-the-art resources in research and development, manufacturing and safety surveillance that help millions of patients see more clearly, move more freely and express themselves more fully. From our beginnings as an eye care company to our focus today on several medical specialties, including eye care, neurosciences, medical aesthetics, medical dermatology, breast aesthetics and urologics. Allergan is proud to celebrate more than 60 years of medical advances and proud to support the patients and customers who rely on our products and the employees and communities in which we live and work.

On April 21, 2014, Pershing Square and Valeant each filed a Schedule 13D with the SEC (the Schedule 13Ds) disclosing Pershing Square's holding of a 9.7% interest in our Common Stock. According to the Schedule 13Ds, Pershing Square acquired 597,431 shares of Common Stock in February 2014, with the remainder of the shares underlying call options and forward purchase contracts. Of the 28,878,538 shares beneficially owned by Pershing Square, 13,953,000 were acquired between the date Pershing Square's obligation to file a Schedule 13D with the SEC was triggered and April 21, 2014. According to the Schedule 13Ds, Pershing Square acquired its Allergan shares with full knowledge of the material nonpublic information that Valeant intended to make a bid for Allergan.

On April 22, 2014, David Pyott, Allergan's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, received an unsolicited proposal from Michael Pearson, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Valeant, to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Common Stock of Allergan in exchange for 0.83 shares of Valeant's common stock and $48.30 in cash per share of our Common Stock (the Initial Proposal). Prior to the Initial Proposal, the Board had not received any communication from either Valeant or Pershing Square regarding the Initial Proposal or any other proposed business combination between Allergan and Valeant and/or Pershing Square.

On April 22, 2014, the Board held a special meeting to discuss, among other things, the Initial Proposal and Pershing Square's arrangements with Valeant as disclosed in the Schedule 13Ds. At the meeting, the Board adopted the Rights Agreement. The Rights Agreement was not intended to prevent an acquisition of the Company on terms that the Board considers favorable to, and in the best interests of, all Allergan stockholders. Rather, the Rights Agreement aimed to provide the Board with adequate time to fully assess and respond to any proposal.

On April 29, 2014, the Board held a special meeting at which, among other topics, it continued to discuss the Initial Proposal.

On May 5, 2014, Michael Gallagher, the lead independent director of the Board, received a letter from Pershing Square in which it recommended that the Board approve the Initial Proposal.

On May 5 and 6, 2014, the Board held regular meetings at which, among other topics, it continued to discuss the Initial Proposal.

On May 10, 2014, the Board held a meeting to continue its consideration of the Initial Proposal, including among other things: the consideration mix; the value of Valeant's common stock; Valeant's organic growth, business model, operations, financial performance and condition; Valeant's acquisitions; the regulatory risks including tax, antitrust and legal matters; and the value, growth and business prospects of the Company as a standalone company. At the meeting, the Board unanimously rejected the Initial Proposal, concluding after a comprehensive review, conducted in consultation with its financial and legal advisors, that the Initial Proposal substantially undervalued the Company, created significant risks and uncertainties for the stockholders, and was not in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. On May 12, 2014, the Company sent a letter to Valeant and issued a press release announcing the Board's determination.

Table of Contents

On May 13, 2014, Pershing Square filed with the SEC a purported preliminary proxy statement, soliciting proxies from Allergan stockholders to vote at a purported meeting to be held by Pershing Square on a non-binding Pershing Square resolution requesting that the Board promptly engage in discussions with Valeant regarding Valeant's offer to merge with Allergan.

On May 13, 2014, Valeant issued a press release announcing that it would revise its proposal on May 28, 2014.

On May 19, 2014, Pershing Square sent a letter to Mr. Gallagher criticizing the Board's governance with regards to the Initial Proposal. On May 19, 2014, Mr. Gallagher sent a response letter to Pershing Square in which he noted that the Board strongly disagreed with Pershing Square's statements and tactics, including its blatant attempts to isolate Mr. Pyott.

On May 21, 2014, Pershing Square sent another letter to Mr. Gallagher. On May 21, 2014, Mr. Gallagher sent a response letter to Pershing Square, noting that the Board was well aware of its fiduciary duties and was being well advised by independent advisors.

On May 27, 2014, the Company filed an investor presentation with the SEC detailing its initial concerns about the sustainability of Valeant's business model. The Company also noted that it had retained two nationally-recognized financial consultants and forensic accountants, Alvarez & Marsal and FTI Consulting, to evaluate certain concerns about the inherent value of Valeant's business model and stock. The presentation raised a number of important issues about Valeant's business model and stock value that the Allergan Board and management believed Allergan's stockholders needed to be aware of. These included questions regarding Valeant's real organic growth, how the two largest Valeant acquisitions have performed under Valeant's ownership, Valeant's experience promoting products of Allergan's scale, the instability of Valeant's management team, the ability of Valeant to achieve its stated synergies without destroying Allergan's near-term and long-term value, the distribution strength of Allergan versus Valeant in important emerging markets, whether Valeant's low tax rate is sustainable, how Valeant's accounting practices compared with others in the industry and whether Valeant's business model, centered on a serial acquisition and cost cutting strategy, is sustainable.

On May 28, 2014, Valeant hosted an investor meeting and webcast and sent a letter to Mr. Pyott, revising the terms of its Initial Proposal, leaving the share consideration at 0.83 shares of Valeant common stock and raising the cash consideration to $58.30 with the possibility of a CVR related to DARPIn® sales (the Revised Proposal).

On May 29, 2014, the Board held a meeting at which it discussed the Revised Proposal.

On May 30, 2014, prior to any announcement by the Board regarding the Revised Proposal, Valeant and Pershing Square issued a press release and Valeant's CEO wrote a letter to Mr. Pyott making a re-revised proposal, leaving the share consideration at 0.83 shares of Valeant common stock and raising the cash consideration to $72.00 with the possibility of a CVR related to DARPIn® sales (the Re-Revised Proposal).

On June 2, 2014, Valeant and Pershing Square held a webcast where it discussed the terms of the Re-Revised Proposal. Also on June 2, 2014, Pershing Square filed a preliminary request solicitation statement with respect to the Pershing Square Solicitation.

On June 4, 2014, the Board held a meeting at which it discussed the Re-Revised Proposal.

On June 5, 2014, Pershing Square filed with the SEC a request to withdraw its purported preliminary proxy statement soliciting proxies from Allergan stockholders to vote at a meeting to be held by Pershing Square on a non-binding

Pershing Square resolution requesting that the Board promptly engage in discussions with Valeant regarding Valeant's offer to merge with Allergan.

On June 6, 2014, Pershing Square sent a letter to Allergan seeking, among other things, confirmation that Allergan will not take the position that the solicitation and receipt of revocable proxies by Pershing Square in connection with its request to cause Allergan to call a special meeting of stockholders pursuant to our Charter and Bylaws will trigger the rights under our Rights Agreement.

On June 9, 2014, the Board held a meeting at which it continued its consideration of the Re-Revised Proposal, including among other things: the consideration mix, the value of Valeant's common stock; Valeant's organic growth, business model, operations, financial performance and condition; Valeant's acquisitions; the regulatory risks including tax, antitrust and legal matters; and the value, growth and business prospects of the Company as a standalone company. At the meeting, the Board unanimously determined that the Re-Revised Proposal substantially undervalued the Company, created significant risks and uncertainties for the stockholders of Allergan, and was not in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. On June 10,

Table of Contents

2014, the Company sent a letter to Valeant setting forth the Board's conclusion regarding the Re-Revised Proposal and filed an updated investor presentation with the SEC with additional detail on the considerations behind the Board's rejection.

On June 11, 2014, Allergan responded to Pershing Square's June 6, 2014 letter. In addition, Allergan offered in its June 11, 2014 letter to Pershing Square to arrange a conference call to discuss any specific interpretational questions about Allergan's Rights Agreement.

On June 12, 2014, Pershing Square filed a complaint in the Delaware Court of Chancery, captioned PS Fund 1, LLC v. Allergan, Inc., C.A. No. 9760 (Del. Ch.), seeking declarations that certain actions taken in connection with the stockholder-called special meeting request will not trigger our Rights Agreement as well as an injunction against our taking any steps to enforce the relevant provisions of our Rights Agreement until the Court has ruled on Pershing Square's requested relief. On June 13, 2014, Pershing Square issued a press release regarding the filing of its complaint in Delaware.

On June 13, 2014, the Board held a meeting at which it discussed matters related to its rejection of the Re-Revised Proposal and the Board authorized the filing of this preliminary request revocation statement.

On June 16, 2014, Allergan filed this preliminary request revocation statement with respect to the Pershing Square Solicitation.

RESPONSE OF ALLERGAN

We believe that the Pershing Square Solicitation proposals fail to provide sufficient disclosure for Allergan stockholders to understand how Pershing Square's proposals are intended to interact and are confusing to Allergan stockholders. In addition, the calling and holding of a special meeting will have significant and important consequences for the Company as outlined below. Accordingly, we recommend that you carefully consider whether to support the Pershing Square Solicitation in light of the potential risks and costs to the Company discussed below. If, after careful consideration, you do not wish to support the calling of a special meeting, do NOT sign any white Written Request card sent to you.

Whether or not you have previously executed a white Written Request card, you may sign, date and deliver the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card as soon as possible to communicate that you do not believe a special meeting is necessary or to express your opposition to a special meeting.

Stockholders should take into account the following considerations when deciding whether to support the Pershing Square Solicitation:

There are certain significant risks and costs associated with calling and holding a special meeting of which stockholders should be aware before making the decision of whether to execute and return a white Written Request card in connection with the Pershing Square Solicitation.

A special meeting and the related solicitations risk diverting significant time and resources when it is critical that Allergan's Board and management be fully focused on operations and executing the Company's strategies. Rather than hold a special meeting, our Board and management strongly believe that the more prudent course of action is for Allergan to focus on extending its track record of substantial growth that the Board and management is confident will create significantly more value for stockholders than Pershing Square's and Valeant's proposal.

Successive solicitations would also require Allergan to incur additional financial costs, including with respect to internal allocations, third-party advisory fees, printing, mailing and solicitation expenses and other costs.

Table of Contents

Stockholders should carefully consider whether a special meeting is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. We strongly believe that a special meeting is no substitute for ongoing, direct, two-way communication between us and our stockholders.

IF YOU ARE NOT CONVINCED THAT A SPECIAL MEETING IS THE APPROPRIATE PATH OR YOU BELIEVE A SPECIAL MEETING IS UNNECESSARY AND WISH TO OPPOSE THE CALLING OF A SPECIAL MEETING, PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND DELIVER THE ENCLOSED BLUE REVOCATION CARD USING THE PRE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED AS PROMPTLY AS POSSIBLE, WHETHER OR NOT YOU HAVE SIGNED THE WHITE WRITTEN REQUEST CARD FROM PERSHING SQUARE.

THE SPECIAL MEETING REQUEST PROCEDURE

Voting Securities

As of _____, 2014, there were _____ shares of the Company's Common Stock outstanding. The Company has only one class of common stock.

Persons beneficially owning shares of the Company's Common Stock (but not holders of record), such as persons whose ownership of Common Stock is through a broker, bank, financial institution or other nominee holder, who wish to revoke a previously instructed Written Request must contact such broker, bank, financial institution or other nominee holder and instruct such person to execute a revocation using the BLUE Revocation Card on their behalf. Any failure to submit a Written Request will have the same effect as submitting a BLUE Revocation Card.

Effectiveness of Written Requests

Under our Charter and Bylaws, the Corporate Secretary of the Company is required to call a special meeting of stockholders upon the written request of the holders of record of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, subject to and in compliance with our Charter and Bylaws. If written revocations of the Written Requests have been delivered to the Corporate Secretary and the result is that Written Requests have been delivered from stockholders of record (or their agents duly authorized in writing) of less than 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, then the Corporate Secretary is not obligated to call a special meeting.

Under our Charter and Bylaws, if valid, unrevoked Written Requests signed by the holders of record of at least 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock are delivered to the Corporate Secretary of the Company in the form and manner required by, and in compliance with, our Charter and Bylaws within 60 days after the date of the earliest dated Written Request, the Written Requests will become effective. If prior to the date of such special meeting, we receive revocations of Written Requests (or holders who duly executed Written Requests no longer beneficially own their shares) such that there are no longer valid unrevoked Written Requests from holders of record of at least 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as provided in our Bylaws, our Board has the discretion to cancel the stockholder-requested special meeting. As a result, we may (and likely will) continue to solicit revocations of Written Requests up to and until the date of any stockholder-requested special meeting.

We intend to require full compliance with the provisions set forth in our Charter, Bylaws and applicable law, including the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, with respect to any special meeting sought to be called by Pershing Square or any other stockholders and reserve all rights. The filing or distribution of this Revocation Solicitation Statement is not intended as and should not be taken as an admission by the Company of the validity of the Pershing Square Solicitation.

The Special Meeting

The date and time of any special meeting will be set by our Board in accordance with our Bylaws and Delaware law.

If Pershing Square is successful in its efforts to solicit and deliver to us valid and unrevoked Written Requests from the holders of record of at least 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock in accordance with our Charter and Bylaws, in lieu of calling the stockholder-requested special meeting, our Board may present similar items (as defined in our Bylaws) to those items included in the Written Requests at a special meeting of stockholders called by the Board and that is held within 120 days after we receive the valid Written Requests from the requisite holders.

Table of Contents

Even if Pershing Square is successful in its efforts to solicit and deliver to us valid and unrevoked Written Requests from the holders of not less than 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as provided in our Bylaws, any stockholder that submitted such a Written Request may revoke such request at any time prior to the date of the stockholder-requested special meeting. If prior to the date of such special meeting, we receive revocations of Written Requests (or holders who duly executed Written Requests no longer beneficially own their shares) such that there are no longer valid unrevoked Written Requests from holders of record of at least 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as provided in our Bylaws, our Board has the discretion to cancel the stockholder-requested special meeting. As a result, we may (and likely will) continue to solicit revocations of Written Requests up to and until the date of any stockholder-requested special meeting.

As noted above, if a stockholder who submits a valid Written Request sells any of our shares after submitting such Written Request, the shares that such stockholder has sold will reduce the shares that count toward the 25% threshold. If, as a result of such sales, the number of shares owned by holders that have submitted valid Written Requests is reduced to below the 25% threshold at any time prior to the date a stockholder-requested special meeting is held, our Board has the discretion to cancel the stockholder-requested special meeting. Accordingly, any stockholder that has made a valid Written Request must continue to own all of such stockholder's shares through the date of the stockholder-requested special meeting if such stockholder wishes to ensure that all of such stockholder's shares will be counted toward the 25% threshold.

Effect of BLUE Revocation Card

A stockholder may revoke any previously signed Written Request by signing, dating and returning to us a BLUE Revocation Card. A Written Request may also be revoked by delivery of a written revocation of your request to Pershing Square. Stockholders are urged, however, to return all request revocations in the envelope provided to Innisfree. We request that if a revocation is instead delivered to Pershing Square, a copy of the revocation also be returned in the postage-paid envelope provided so that we will be aware of all revocations and so that the inspector of requests can accurately account for all revocations.

Unless you specify otherwise, by signing and delivering the BLUE Revocation Card, you will be deemed to have revoked any Written Request for a special meeting.

Any BLUE Revocation Card may itself be revoked by marking, signing, dating and delivering a written revocation of your BLUE Revocation Card to the Company, or to Pershing Square, or by delivering to Pershing Square a subsequently dated white Written Request card that Pershing Square sent to you.

The revocation of any previously delivered white Written Request card or BLUE Revocation Card must be signed and have a date subsequent to the previously delivered Written Request or Revocation Card. The revocation is not required to state the number of shares held unless you wish to revoke your Written Request with respect to less than all shares as to which you previously requested the special meeting, in which case you must state the number of shares to which your revocation relates. In addition, if you have more than one account with respect to which you have delivered a Written Request, the revocation should identify the relevant account for which the Written Request is being revoked.

We have retained Innisfree to assist in communicating with stockholders in connection with the Pershing Square Solicitation and to assist in obtaining BLUE Revocation Cards as appropriate. If you have any questions about how to complete or submit your BLUE Revocation Card or any other questions, Innisfree will be pleased to assist you. Please contact Innisfree toll-free at (877) 800-5187 (for stockholders) or collect at (212) 750-5833 (for banks and brokers).

David E.I. Pyott, 60, has been our Chief Executive Officer since January 1998 and in 2001 became Chairman of the Board. Mr. Pyott also served as our President from January 1998 until February 2006, and again from March 2011 until June 2013. Mr. Pyott has driven the growth of Allergan by fueling internal development through significant investment in Research & Development while also identifying and leveraging unique, synergistic external opportunities. Allergan's investment in Research & Development has increased from less than $100 million in 1998 to over $1 billion in 2013. Allergan is currently the fastest growing and second largest global ophthalmic pharmaceutical company and holds leadership positions in other specialty areas including neurosciences, medical aesthetics and medical dermatology. In addition to internally driven innovation, Allergan acquired Inamed Corp. for over $3 billion in 2006 and Groupe Laboratoires Cornéal in France in 2007 primarily for their breast implant and dermal filler technologies. In adding these products to BOTOX® Cosmetic, Allergan created a new global category: medical aesthetics, and is the world's largest medical aesthetics company.

Before joining Allergan, Mr. Pyott served as the Head of the Novartis Nutrition Division and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Switzerland-based Novartis AG, working over 17 years in several positions in strategic planning, marketing and general management in five countries around the world.

Mr. Pyott is also the lead independent director of the board of Avery Dennison Corporation, a publicly-traded company focused on pressure-sensitive technology and self-adhesive solutions, where he serves as Chairman of its Compensation and Executive Personnel Committee and as a member of its Governance and Social Responsibility Committee, and a member of the board of directors of Edwards Lifesciences Corporation, a publicly-traded company focused on products and technologies to treat advanced cardiovascular diseases, where he serves on its Audit and Public Policy Committee. Mr. Pyott is a former member of the board of Pacific LifeCorp and Pacific Mutual Holding Company, the parent companies of Pacific Life Insurance Company. Mr. Pyott is a member of the Directors' Board of The Paul Merage School of Business at the University of California, Irvine. Mr. Pyott serves on the board and Executive Committee of the Biotechnology Industry Organization. Mr. Pyott's in-depth knowledge of our operations and the markets and industries in which we compete, combined with his entrepreneurial leadership experience in the healthcare industry, position him well to serve as our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and provide a critical link between management and our Board, enabling our Board to provide its oversight function with the benefit of management's perspective of the business. For these reasons, and given Mr. Pyott's substantial public company governance experience from serving on the boards of several large public companies, our Board has concluded that Mr. Pyott should serve as one of our directors.

DELIVERY OF DOCUMENTS TO STOCKHOLDERS SHARING AN ADDRESS

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (e.g., brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement and annual report addressed to those stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding, potentially means extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies.

A single Revocation Solicitation Statement will be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected stockholders. Once you have received notice from your broker that it will be householding communications to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate Revocation Solicitation Statement, please notify your broker and direct your written request to Innisfree, at 501 Madison Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, NY 10022. Stockholders who currently receive multiple copies of the Revocation Solicitation Statement at their address and would like to request householding of their communications should contact their broker.
