Item 8.01 Other Events

Settlement of Certain Litigation

North Valley Bancorp (North Valley), the members of its board of directors and TriCo Bancshares (TriCo) have been named as defendants in a putative class action filed on behalf of North Valley shareholders. The lawsuit, which is captioned Solak v. North Valley Bancorp, et al., Case No. 179099 (the Action) and filed in the Superior Court of the State of California, Shasta County (the Court), challenges, among other things, the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 21, 2014 (the Merger Agreement) by and between TriCo and North Valley and the proposed merger between TriCo and North Valley contemplated therein (the Merger).

On July 31, 2014, following settlement discussions, the defendants entered into a memorandum of understanding with the plaintiffs regarding the settlement of the Action. In connection with the settlement contemplated by the memorandum of understanding and in consideration for the full settlement and release of all claims under the Action, TriCo and North Valley agreed to make certain additional disclosures related to the proposed Merger, which are contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K (this Current Report). The memorandum of understanding contemplates that the parties will negotiate in good faith and use their reasonable best efforts to enter into a stipulation of settlement.

The stipulation of settlement will be subject to customary conditions, including Court approval following notice to North Valley s shareholders. In the event that the parties enter into a stipulation of settlement, a hearing will be scheduled at which the Court will consider the settlement. There can be no assurance that the parties will ultimately enter into a stipulation of settlement or that the Court will approve the settlement even if the parties were to enter into such stipulation. In such event, the proposed settlement as contemplated by the memorandum of understanding may be terminated. The settlement will not affect the timing of the annual meeting of TriCo shareholders or the special meeting of North Valley shareholders, which are both scheduled to be held on August 7, 2014. The settlement is not, and should not be construed as, an admission of wrongdoing or liability by any defendant.

TriCo, North Valley, and the directors of North Valley continue to believe that the Action is without merit and vigorously deny the allegations that North Valley s directors breached their fiduciary duties. Likewise, neither TriCo, North Valley nor the directors of North Valley believe that any disclosures regarding the Merger are required under applicable laws other than that which has already been provided in TriCo s and North Valley s definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus (the Proxy Statement), which is included in TriCo s amended registration statement on Form S-4 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on June 27, 2014 and filed with the SEC as North Valley s definitive proxy statement on June 30, 2014. Furthermore, nothing in this Current Report or any settlement shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality of any of the disclosures set forth in this Current Report. However, to avoid the risk of the putative shareholder class action delaying or adversely affecting the Merger, to minimize the substantial expense, burden, distraction and inconvenience of continued litigation and to fully and finally resolve the claims, TriCo and North Valley have agreed to make these supplemental disclosures to the Proxy Statement.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

By including the above unaudited prospective financial estimates in this document, none of TriCo, North Valley or any of their respective representatives has made or makes any representation to any person regarding these estimates.
