Forward-Looking Statements

All statements included or incorporated by reference in this document, other than statements or characterizations of historical fact, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 27A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements are based on SanDisk Corporation's (SanDisk) current expectations, beliefs, and assumptions about its business and industry, management's beliefs, and certain assumptions made by SanDisk and Western Digital Corporation (Western Digital) regarding the proposed change. Forward-looking statements can often be identified by words such as anticipates, expects, intends, plans, may, will, should, would, could, potential, continue, ongoing, similar expressions, and variations or negative variations thereof. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, references to the anticipated benefits of the proposed merger and the anticipated costs of the merger with Western Digital's wholly-owned subsidiary, Schrader Acquisition Corporation. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially and adversely from those of the proposed merger statement.

Important risk factors that may cause such a difference in connection with the proposed merger include, but are not limited to, (1) the inability to complete the merger due to the failure to obtain stockholder approval for the merger or the failure to satisfy other conditions to the merger; (2) uncertainties as to the timing of the consummation of the merger; (3) risks that the proposed merger disrupts the current plans and operations of Western Digital or SanDisk; (4) the inability of Western Digital and SanDisk to retain and hire key personnel; (5) competitive responses to the proposed merger; (6) unexpected costs, charges or expenses; (7) the outcome of any legal proceedings that could be instituted against Western Digital, SanDisk or their respective directors or officers; (8) potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships resulting from the announcement or completion of the merger; (9) the inability to obtain, or the cost of obtaining, cost savings and synergies from the merger; (10) delays, challenges and expenses associated with integrating the companies; (11) the indebtedness planned to be incurred in connection with the merger; and (12) legislative, regulatory and economic developments. The risks associated with the proposed merger, will be more fully discussed in the joint proxy statement/prospectus that will be included in the filing of this document.

Form S-4 that will be filed with the SEC in connection with the proposed merger. The forward-looking statements in this document are made as of the date of this document and SanDisk nor Western Digital undertake any obligation to revise or update publicly any forward-looking statement to reflect future events or changes in circumstances. In addition, actual results are subject to other risks and uncertainties that relate more broadly to SanDisk's overall business, including its filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) including its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 3, 2015, and Western Digital's overall business and financial condition. The forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this document. We undertake no obligation to revise or update publicly any forward-looking statement.
