Driehaus Capital Management Urges Willis Group Holdings to Revise Its Offer to Close the Valuation

Gap and the Merger-of-Equals Price Gap

CHICAGO, Ill., November 19, 2015 Driehaus Capital Management, a Chicago-based investment adviser of funds that own 1,175,113 shares of Towers Watson & Company (NASDAQ: TW), today issued the following open letter to TW shareholders:

Fellow Shareholders,

The increased consideration offered to Towers Watson shareholders today is an acknowledgement that the deal's initial terms were inadequate. This is a step in the right direction, but the offer is still too low and closes neither the valuation gap nor the merger-of-equals price gap.

A true merger of equals would dictate a special dividend of $17.72.¹ In the interests of all involved, we urge Willis Group Holdings to put its best and final offer on the table.

Sincerely,

K.C. Nelson

Portfolio Manager, Alternative Strategies

Driehaus Capital Management LLC

Note

Assistant Portfolio Manager

Driehaus Capital Management LLC

¹ Merger of equals assumes a 2.649x exchange rate and unaffected pre-announcement share prices.
