OF ALL OUTSTANDING SHARES OF CAPITAL STOCK OF VIACOM INC.

Dear Viacom Stockholders:

The enclosed Information Statement is being distributed to the holders of record of Class A common stock and Class B common stock of Viacom Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Viacom" or the "Company"), as of the close of business on each of June 6, 2016 (the "June 6 Record Date") and June 16, 2016 (the "June 16 Record Date" and, together with the June 6 Record Date, the "Record Dates") under Rule 14c-2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").

The purpose of the enclosed Information Statement is to inform you of actions purportedly taken by written consents of National Amusements, Inc. and NAI Entertainment Holdings LLC (together, "NAI"). NAI is indirectly owned by Sumner M. Redstone and Shari E. Redstone, two members of the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board of Directors"), and holds a majority of the aggregate voting power of all outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company entitled as of each of the Record Dates to vote generally in an election of directors. The enclosed Information Statement shall be considered the notices required under Section 228(e) of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL").

As of the close of business on each of the Record Dates, National Amusements, Inc. and its subsidiaries beneficially owned approximately 79.8% of our Class A common stock, and approximately 10% of our Class A and Class B common stock combined.

On the June 6 Record Date, NAI delivered to the Company two Actions by Written Consent (the "June 6 Written Consents") that NAI claimed effected certain amendments (the "June 6 Purported Bylaw Amendments") to the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws (the "Bylaws"). The June 6 Purported Bylaw Amendments primarily (1) require that any sale or financial transaction affecting all or a portion of Paramount Pictures Corporation ("Paramount") and various other subsidiaries of the Company that are utilized in the conduct of business of Paramount must be unanimously approved by all of the members of the Board of Directors then in office; (2) specify that the Board of Directors can amend the Bylaws only by an affirmative vote of all of the members of the Board of Directors then in office; and (3) modify, in certain respects, the Bylaws provision requiring that the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (the "Delaware Chancery Court") is the exclusive jurisdiction for certain types of corporate litigation.

On the June 16 Record Date, NAI delivered to the Company two additional Actions by Written Consent (the "June 16 Written Consents" and, together with the June 6 Written Consents, the "Written Consents") that NAI claimed effected certain additional amendments to the Bylaws (the "June 16 Purported Bylaw Amendments" and, together with the June 6 Purported Bylaw Amendments, the "Purported Bylaw Amendments"). The June 16 Purported Bylaw Amendments provide that any and all vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be filled by stockholders owning a majority of stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, except that in the case of a vacancy not due to a stockholder action to remove directors or to increase the number of authorized directors, the Board of Directors shall fill such vacancy if not filled by stockholder action within thirty days. The June 16 Written Consents also claimed to remove from the Board of Directors, without cause, George S. Abrams, Philippe P. Dauman, Blythe J. McGarvie, Frederic V. Salerno and William Schwartz (the "Incumbent Directors"), and to fill the resulting vacancies with Kenneth Lerer, Thomas J. May, Judith McHale, Ronald Nelson and Nicole Seligman (the "Purported Director Replacements"), and together with the Purported Bylaw Amendments, the "Purported Stockholder Actions").

There are litigations currently pending in multiple jurisdictions that may impact the validity of the Written Consents, as detailed in the Information Statement. If the Written Consents are valid, they constitute the only stockholder approval required to approve the Purported Stockholder Actions under the DGCL, our Certificate of Incorporation and our Bylaws. Our Board of Directors was not notified of the Written Consents or the Purported Stockholder Actions before the Written Consents were delivered to the Company on June 6, 2016 and June 16, 2016, and did not recommend to NAI that NAI approve the Purported Stockholder Actions. Our Board of Directors is not soliciting your consent or your proxy in connection with this action, and no consents or proxies are being requested from stockholders.

Under Rule 14c-2 of the Exchange Act, the Purported Stockholder Actions may constitute corporate action and may not be effective until 20 days after this Information Statement is first mailed or otherwise delivered to our stockholders entitled to receive notice thereof. The Company does not expect to take any action premised on the existence of any such 20 calendar day period and does not take a position on the question of whether the Purported Stockholder Actions constitute corporate action within the meaning of that Rule. In connection with one of the pending litigations discussed in the Information Statement, the Delaware Chancery Court entered an order preserving the status quo pending resolution of the claims. That order provides that, until the Court enters a final judgment in the consolidated action or a superseding order, the Board of Directors shall consist of the directors of Viacom before the Purported Director Replacements (including the Incumbent Directors).

THIS IS NOT A NOTICE OF A SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS, AND NO STOCKHOLDER MEETING WILL BE HELD TO CONSIDER ANY MATTER DESCRIBED HEREIN. THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT IS BEING FURNISHED TO YOU SOLELY FOR THE PURPOSE OF INFORMING STOCKHOLDERS OF THE MATTERS DESCRIBED HEREIN PURSUANT TO SECTION 14(c) OF THE EXCHANGE ACT AND THE REGULATIONS PROMULGATED THEREUNDER, INCLUDING REGULATION 14C. WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A CONSENT OR PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A CONSENT OR PROXY.

INFORMATION STATEMENT

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A CONSENT OR PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A CONSENT OR PROXY.

PURPOSE OF INFORMATION STATEMENT

This Information Statement advises stockholders of Viacom Inc. (Viacom or the Company) of actions purportedly taken by written consents of National Amusements, Inc. and NAI Entertainment Holdings LLC (together, NAI). NAI is indirectly owned by Sumner M. Redstone and Shari E. Redstone, two members of the Company's Board of Directors (the Board of Directors), and holds a majority of the aggregate voting power of all outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company entitled as of June 6, 2016 (the June 6 Record Date) and June 16, 2016 (the June 16 Record Date and, together with the June 6 Record Date, the Record Dates) to vote generally in an election of directors.

GENERAL OVERVIEW OF ACTIONS

On the June 6 Record Date, NAI delivered to Viacom two Actions by Written Consent (the June 6 Written Consents) that NAI claimed (1) effected certain amendments (the June 6 Purported Bylaw Amendments) to the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws (the Bylaws) and (2) repealed any provision of or amendment to the Bylaws adopted by the Board of Directors without stockholder approval after September 15, 2011 (which provision has no effect, since the Board of Directors has not adopted any such provisions or amendments). The June 6 Purported Bylaw Amendments primarily:

require that any sale or financial transaction affecting all or a portion of Paramount Pictures Corporation (Paramount) and various other subsidiaries of the Company that are utilized in the conduct of business of Paramount must be unanimously approved by all of the members of the Board of Directors then in office;

specify that the Board of Directors can amend the Company's Bylaws only by an affirmative vote of all of the members of the Board of Directors then in office; and modify, in certain respects, the Company's existing Bylaws provision requiring that the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (the Delaware Chancery Court) is the exclusive jurisdiction for certain types of corporate litigation.

As the Company has previously disclosed, it is exploring opportunities for a significant strategic minority investment in Paramount. Any such transaction would be subject to approval of the Board of Directors. If the June 6 Purported Bylaw Amendments are valid, then any such transaction must be unanimously approved by all of the members of the Board of Directors then in office.

On the June 16 Record Date, NAI delivered to the Company two Actions by Written Consent (the June 16 Written Consents and, together with the June 6 Written Consents, the Written Consents) that NAI claimed (1) effected certain amendments (the June 16 Purported Bylaw Amendments and, together with the June 6 Purported Bylaw Amendments, the Purported Bylaw Amendments) to the Bylaws, (2) repealed any provision of or amendment to the Bylaws adopted by the Board of Directors without stockholder approval after September 15, 2011 (which provision has no effect, since the Board of Directors has not adopted any such provisions or amendments) and (3) effected the removal of certain individuals from, and appointment of other individuals to, the Board of Directors (the Purported Director Replacements , and together with the Purported Bylaw Amendments, the Purported Stockholder Actions). The June 16 Purported Bylaw Amendments:

provide that any and all vacancies on the Board of Directors occurring as a result of stockholder action to remove directors or to increase the number of authorized directors shall be filled only by the affirmative vote of stockholders representing at least a majority of stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors; and provide that any vacancy for any other reason shall be filled by the affirmative vote of the stockholders representing at least a majority of stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, unless such other vacancy is not filled by stockholder action within 30 days of the occurrence of such other vacancy, in which case such other vacancy may then be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

The Purported Director Replacements:

removed from the Board of Directors, without cause, George S. Abrams, Philippe P. Dauman, Blythe J. McGarvie, Frederic V. Salerno and William Schwartz (the Incumbent Directors); and filled the vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting from the removal of such directors with Kenneth Lerer, Thomas J. May, Judith McHale, Ronald Nelson and Nicole Seligman (the Purported New Directors). Copies of the June 6 Written Consents are attached to this Information Statement as Exhibit A, and copies of the June 16 Written Consents are attached to this Information Statement as Exhibit B. Biographies of the Purported New Directors, as publicly disclosed by NAI in a press release it issued in connection with the June 16 Written Consents, are attached to this Information Statement as Exhibit C.

VOTES REQUIRED

Holders of our Class A common stock are entitled to one vote per share of Class A common stock; except as otherwise required by law, holders of our Class B common stock are not entitled to vote.

Section 228 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL) and Article II, Section 10 of the Bylaws provide that stockholders of the Company may act by written consent without a meeting if such stockholders hold the number of shares representing not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such actions at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Section 109(a) of the DGCL and Article IX of the Bylaws provide that the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the aggregate voting power of all outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company then entitled to vote generally in an election of directors, voting together as a single class, shall be required for the stockholders of the Company to amend, alter, change, repeal or adopt any Bylaws of the Company. Accordingly, approval of the June 6 Purported Bylaw Amendments required the affirmative vote or written consent of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Class A common stock on the June 6 Record Date, and approval of the June 16 Purported Bylaw Amendments and the Purported Director Replacements required the affirmative vote or written consent of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Class A common stock on the June 16 Record Date.

Section 141(k) of the DGCL and Article III, Section 16 of the Bylaws provide that any director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of record of outstanding shares representing at least a majority of all the aggregate voting power of outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company then entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class at a special meeting of stockholders called expressly for that purpose. Accordingly, approval of the removal of the Incumbent Directors from the Board of Directors required the affirmative vote or written consent of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Class A common stock on the June 16 Record Date.

Section 223(a) of the DGCL and, without giving effect to the June 16 Purported Bylaw Amendments, Article III, Section 2 of the Bylaws provide that subject to the rights of the holders of any series or class of stock other than common stock, vacancies in the Board of Directors shall, if occurring prior to the expiration of the term of office in which the vacancy occurs, be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and the directors so chosen shall hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders of the Company or until their successors are duly elected and shall qualify, unless sooner displaced. If the Purported June 16 Bylaw Amendments are valid, then vacancies in the Board of Directors occurring as a result of stockholder action to remove directors shall be filled only by the affirmative vote of the holders of record of the outstanding shares representing at least a majority of all the aggregate voting power of outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company then entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class, and shall not be filled by the Board of Directors. Accordingly, if the Purported June 16 Bylaw Amendments are valid, then approval of the appointment of the Purported New Directors required the affirmative vote or written consent of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Class A common stock on the June 16 Record Date.

As of the close of business on each of the Record Dates, we had 49,431,379 shares of Class A common stock outstanding, and National Amusements, Inc. and its subsidiaries beneficially owned 39,442,332 shares of Viacom's Class A common stock, representing approximately 79.8% of our Class A common stock on each Record Date. Of those shares, 35,726,517 shares, or approximately 72.3% of our Class A common stock, are represented by the Written Consents.

In a litigation captioned Philippe Dauman and George S. Abrams, Trustees v. Sumner M. Redstone et. al., filed in the trial court, Probate and Family Court, Norfolk County, Massachusetts on May 23, 2016, Philippe P. Dauman and George S. Abrams, two members of our Board of Directors, have challenged their removal on May 20, 2016 as trustees from the Sumner M. Redstone National Amusements Trust and as directors of NAI, on the grounds that such removals were the result of Mr. Redstone's incapacity and/or the product of undue influence exerted by Ms. Redstone. Also on May 23rd, attorneys for Mr. Redstone petitioned the Superior Court of California, Los Angeles County, seeking the court's confirmation of the validity of the removals. In the event that the removals of Messrs. Dauman and Abrams as trustees and as directors of NAI are determined to be the product of Mr. Redstone's incapacity and/or the product of undue influence, then the Written Consents may also be determined to be invalid and void.

On June 16, 2016, NAI filed a lawsuit in the Delaware Chancery Court (1) seeking the court's confirmation of the validity and effectiveness of the Purported Stockholder Actions, and (2) requesting that, pending a final court ruling, the court maintain the existing Board of Directors and prohibit the Board of Directors from taking any action not in the ordinary course of business. Also on June 16th, Mr. Salerno, who is Viacom's Lead Independent Director, filed a lawsuit in the Delaware Chancery Court, with the support of the independent members of the Board of Directors, seeking an expedited determination (1) that the June 16 Purported Bylaw Amendments and the Purported Director Replacements are invalid, (2) that the Board of Directors remains as currently comprised, (3) enjoining NAI from taking further wrongful actions under the authority of Sumner M. Redstone and (4) entering a status quo order providing that NAI shall not take any actions that would disrupt the Board of Directors' continuing management of the business and affairs of the Company in the ordinary course.

The Delaware Chancery Court consolidated the lawsuits referenced in the preceding paragraph (the Consolidated Action) and, on June 27, 2016, entered an order preserving the status quo during the pendency of the Consolidated Action (the Status Quo Order). The Status Quo Order will remain in place until a final judgment is entered in the Consolidated Action (or until the Delaware Chancery Court enters a superseding order). The Status Quo Order provides that, while it is effective, the Board of Directors shall consist of the directors of Viacom before the Purported Director Replacements, namely, George S. Abrams, Philippe P. Dauman, Thomas E. Dooley, Blythe J. McGarvie, Deborah Norville, Charles E. Phillips, Shari E. Redstone, Sumner M. Redstone, Frederic V. Salerno, William Schwartz and Cristiana Falcone Sorrell. The Status Quo Order further provides that, pending entry of the Court's final judgment in the Consolidated Action, except upon further order of the Court, none of Viacom, the Board of Directors, any committee of the Board of Directors, any member of the Board of Directors or any Viacom executive officer, or any person acting at the direction of any of them, shall authorize, agree to, knowingly cause or permit or take, directly or indirectly, any action that is outside the routine day-to-day operations of Viacom and its subsidiaries taken as a whole (the Consolidated Company) without providing five business days' prior written notice to NAI (which notice shall be treated confidentially). For purposes of the Status Quo Order, an action that is outside the routine day-to-day operations of the Consolidated Company includes in summary, but is not limited to:

- a. declaring any spin-off or other similar distribution of capital stock of Viacom or distributing any securities or assets of Viacom, other than Viacom's regular quarterly dividend;
- b. authorizing or entering into agreements with third parties not otherwise permitted by the Status Quo Order, except for agreements entered into in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice which do not effect a change in (i) the current business operations material to the Consolidated Company or (ii) the voting control or equity ownership of Viacom;
- c. authorizing, creating or amending securities of the Consolidated Company, subject to certain exceptions including if such action is taken in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or pursuant to existing agreements;
- d. authorizing or entering into agreements to issue, sell or dispose of securities of the Consolidated Company, subject to certain exceptions including if such action is taken in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or pursuant to mandatory provisions of existing agreements in existence as of June 15, 2016 (provided that under no circumstances may Viacom issue, sell or dispose of any Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock of Viacom);
- e. authorizing or entering into any action or transaction that would require Viacom stockholder approval;
- f. authorizing or entering into any transaction that is material to the business of Paramount and that is not in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, for any disposition of equity or assets of Paramount and its subsidiaries to a party other than the Consolidated Company;
- g. increasing the compensation and benefits payable to current officers and employees, hiring new officers or employees, or terminating or amending existing employment agreements, subject to certain exceptions including if such action is pursuant to agreements in existence as of June 15, 2016 or would not have required Board or Board committee approval prior to June 27, 2016;

- h. hiring a financial advisor where the aggregate fees would reasonably be expected to exceed $10 million;
- i. entering into an agreement that is reasonably likely to result in Viacom incurring liability or making any payment based upon the resolution of the claims alleged in the Consolidated Action regarding the validity of the June 6 Purported Bylaw Amendments or the June 16 Purported Bylaw Amendments;

- j. instituting or funding legal proceedings seeking the relief sought in the Consolidated Action, Dauman et al. v. Redstone, et al. pending in Probate and Family Court in Norfolk County, Massachusetts, or Mr. Redstone's petition pending in California Superior Court, subject to certain exceptions including the defense of legal proceedings seeking the relief sought in those actions and any advancement or indemnification obligations of the Consolidated Company in effect on June 16, 2016; and

- k. amending the Bylaws by action of the Board of Directors.

If the Written Consents are valid, then all necessary stockholder approvals in connection with the Purported Stockholder Actions have been given. Our Board of Directors was not notified of the Written Consents or the Purported Stockholder Actions before the Written Consents were delivered to the Company on the Record Dates, and did not recommend to NAI that NAI approve the Purported Stockholder Actions. We are not seeking written consent from any stockholder, and stockholders other than NAI will not be given an opportunity to vote with respect to the actions described in this Information Statement. This Information Statement is furnished solely for the purposes of advising stockholders of the actions purportedly taken by written consents and giving stockholders notice of the Purported Stockholder Actions as required by the DGCL and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act).

EFFECTIVENESS OF POTENTIAL CORPORATE ACTION

Under Rule 14c-2 of the Exchange Act, the Purported Stockholder Actions may constitute corporate action, and the Purported Stockholder Actions may not be effective until 20 days after this Information Statement is first mailed or otherwise delivered to our stockholders entitled to receive notice thereof. The Company does not expect to take any action premised on the existence of any such 20 calendar day period and does not take a position on the question of whether the Purported Stockholder Actions constitute corporate action within the meaning of that Rule. In addition, the Status Quo Order provides that, until the Delaware Chancery Court enters a final judgment in the Consolidated Action or a superseding order, the Board of Directors shall consist of the directors of Viacom before the Purported Director Replacements, including the Incumbent Directors.

DISSENER'S RIGHTS

Under the DGCL, holders of our capital stock are not entitled to dissenter's rights of appraisal with respect to an amendment to the Bylaws.

DISTRIBUTION AND COSTS

We will pay the cost of preparing, printing and distributing this Information Statement. Only one Information Statement will be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address, unless contrary instructions are received from one or more of such stockholders upon written request at the address noted above. (5) The adoption or approval of any amendment to the certificate or articles of incorporation of any Paramount Entity (or similar governing document of any Paramount Entity that is not a corporation, including any limited liability company agreement or partnership agreement) (any of (1) through (5) is referred to herein as a Paramount Transaction); or

(6) The vote or consent of any shares of capital stock, other equity interests, or other securities of any Paramount Entity owned or held, directly or indirectly, by the Corporation or any direct or indirect subsidiary thereof, with respect to, or in connection with, a Paramount Transaction.

RESOLVED FURTHER: that, effective immediately, Article IX of the Bylaws is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

In furtherance of and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the board of directors of the Corporation from time to time may adopt, amend, alter, change or repeal the bylaws of the Corporation by the affirmative vote of all the directors then in office; provided, that any bylaws adopted, amended, altered, changed or repealed by the board of directors or the stockholders of the Corporation may be amended, altered, changed or repealed by the stockholders of the Corporation. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation or these bylaws (and notwithstanding the fact that a lesser percentage may be specified by law, the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or these bylaws), the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the aggregate voting power of all outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation then entitled to vote generally in an election of directors, voting together as a single class, shall be required for the stockholders of the Corporation to amend, alter, change, repeal or adopt any bylaws of the Corporation.

RESOLVED FURTHER: that, effective immediately, Article VIII, Section 3 of the Bylaws is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Section 3. The Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (or, if and only if the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware lacks subject matter jurisdiction, any state or federal court located within the State of Delaware) shall be the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of the Corporation, (ii) any action or proceeding asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer or stockholder of the Corporation to the Corporation or the Corporation's stockholders, (iii) any action or proceeding asserting a claim against the Corporation or any director or officer of the Corporation arising pursuant to, or seeking to enforce any right, obligation, or remedy under, any provision of the DGCL, the Corporation's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, or these Bylaws (as each may be amended from time to time), (iv) any action or proceeding to interpret, apply, enforce, or determine the validity of any provision or provisions of the Corporation's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws (as each may be amended from time to time), or any amendment thereto or modification thereof, (v) any action or proceeding asserting a claim against the Corporation or any director or officer of the Corporation governed by the internal affairs doctrine, or (vi) any action or proceeding to determine the result of any vote or action by written consent of stockholders. The Board of Directors may consent in writing to the selection of an alternative forum; provided, however, that any such consent shall require the affirmative vote of all the directors then in office.

RESOLVED FURTHER: that, effective immediately, any provision of or amendment to the Bylaws adopted by the Board without stockholder approval after September 15, 2011, be, and the same hereby is, repealed.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY WRITTEN CONSENT OF STOCKHOLDER

WHEREAS: Section 228 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL) and Article II, Section 10 of the Amended and Restated Bylaws, as amended (the Bylaws) of Viacom Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), provide that stockholders of the Company may act by written consent without a meeting if such stockholders hold the number of shares representing not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such actions at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted;
