Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 13, 2017, Agios Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing that Celgene Corporation (Celgene) has designated the development candidate focused on methylthioadenosine phosphorylase (MTAP) deleted cancers as a development candidate under the master research and collaboration agreement between the Company and Celgene, dated May 17, 2016 (the Agreement). Under the terms of the Agreement, Celgene will pay Agios an $8 million designation fee for the MTAP pathway program, which the Company expects to receive in the second quarter of 2017. The full text of the press release issued in connection with this announcement is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

The Company expects that the $8 million designation fee will be deferred and allocated among its performance obligations, identified as part of the Agreement, and recognized in proportion to the Company s satisfaction of each performance obligation. The last of these performance obligations are expected to be fully satisfied in the fourth quarter of 2022.
