Item 3.03. Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders

The information included in Item 5.03 below is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On May 17, 2017, the Company filed a Certificate of Amendment to its Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the Certificate of Amendment), providing for the designation and terms of the Convertible Preferred Stock. The Certificate of Amendment became effective on May 17, 2017.

Pursuant to the Certificate of Amendment, the Convertible Preferred Stock will have an initial conversion rate of 6.1627 shares of Common Stock per share of the Convertible Preferred Stock, equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $162.27, subject to adjustment. The initial conversion price represents a premium of approximately 17.5% above the closing price of the Common Stock on May 11, 2017. The Convertible Preferred Stock will initially not bear any dividends and the liquidation preference of the Convertible Preferred Stock will not accrete. Each share of Convertible Preferred Stock may be converted only after being separated from the Equity Units and, prior to May 15, 2020, only upon the occurrence of certain fundamental change events. Upon any such conversion, the Company will pay or deliver, as the case may be, cash, shares of Common Stock or a combination of cash and shares of Common Stock, at the Company's election.

The Convertible Preferred Stock is expected to be remarketed in May 2020, unless the Company elects to remarket the Convertible Preferred Stock earlier, during a period beginning on and including February 12, 2020 and ending on and including April 28, 2020, at which time the conversion rate and/or the dividend rate may be increased and certain other terms of the Convertible Preferred Stock may change.

The Company may pay any dividend payments on the Convertible Preferred Stock (if the dividend rate of the Convertible Preferred Stock is increased upon successful remarketing) in cash, shares of Common Stock or a combination of cash and shares of Common Stock, at the Company's election, subject to the Company's right to defer dividend payments in certain instances. The Convertible Preferred Stock is perpetual, but the Company may redeem all or any portion of the outstanding Convertible Preferred Stock on or after June 22, 2020, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the liquidation preference thereof, plus any accumulated and unpaid dividends (whether or not authorized or declared), which will only accrue if the dividend rate of the Convertible Preferred Stock is increased upon successful remarketing.

Upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, before any distribution or payment shall be made to holders of Common Stock or any other class or series of capital stock ranking junior to the Convertible Preferred Stock, holders of the Convertible Preferred Stock are entitled to be paid out of the Company's assets legally available for distribution to its stockholders, after payment of or provision for the Company's debts and other liabilities, a liquidation preference of $1,000 per share of the Convertible Preferred Stock, plus an amount equal to any accumulated and unpaid dividends (whether or not declared) (which will only accrue if the dividend rate of the Convertible Preferred Stock is increased upon successful remarketing) up to but excluding the date of payment, but subject to the prior payment in full of all of the Company's liabilities and the payment of its senior stock.
