A portion of the purchase price will be deposited into an escrow account to secure certain post-closing obligations of the Sellers. The Purchaser will pay the purchase price for the Acquisition in cash with borrowings under its Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement following an amendment to increase the amount available under the revolving credit facility, as described below.

The Asset Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties regarding Pursuit and the Sellers, customary covenants, including a covenant regarding the conduct of Pursuit's business between signing and closing of the Acquisition and post-closing restrictive covenants from the Sellers and certain other parties in favor of the Purchaser, indemnification provisions and other provisions customary for transactions of this nature. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Asset Purchase Agreement were made only for the purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Asset Purchase Agreement and may be intended not as statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating risk to one of the parties if those statements prove to be inaccurate. In addition, such representations, warranties and covenants may have been qualified by certain disclosures not reflected in the text of the Asset Purchase Agreement and may apply standards of materiality in a way that is different from what may be viewed as material by stockholders of, or other investors in, the Company. The Company's shareholders and other investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Asset Purchase Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or conditions of the Company, Pursuit or the Sellers.
