Same-store sales increase 5.7%

São Paulo, Brazil, June 14, 2007. Grupo Pão de Açúcar [NYSE: CBD; BOVESPA: PCAR4 (PN)] announces its sales performance for May 2007 (not audited and preliminary). The information presented below was calculated based on consolidated numbers and expressed in Real, in accordance with applicable Brazilian Corporate Law.

In May, gross sales totaled R$ 1,367.0 million, an increase of 7.4% compared to 2006. Net sales rose to R$ 1,152.9 million, up 8.1% in relation to the same period a year ago.

Sales growth in the month under the concept of same-store sales was 5.7% (gross sales) and 6.5% (net sales), continuing the growth trend observed since the start of the year. Moreover, customer traffic increased by 2.8% in relation to May 2006, as was also the case of the average ticket, which posted a similar growth rate in the month.

Among the company's different formats the highlight in the month was the performance posted by the supermarkets: (i) CompreBem and Pão de Açúcar registered sales growth above the average for the company; and (ii) Sendas posted a performance in line with the growth of the Group in both average ticket and customer traffic.

Same-store sales of non-food products rose by 4.2%, despite the significant price deflation observed in video products (mainly televisions), mobile phones and computer equipment. Growth in this category also suffered the impact from a strong comparison base in 2006, due to the World Cup event.

Food products, which were positively influenced by the performance of the perishable category, posted same-store sales growth of 6.2% .
