REASONS FOR THE CAPITAL INCREASE AND ITS IMPACT ON THE COMPANY

Given the successive expansion in the business scale of Tiancheng Leasing, further capital increase can greatly enhance the business expansion and the external financing capability of Tiancheng Leasing, which is conducive to consolidate its edges in business areas and better cope with market competition. After completion of the Capital Increase, the Company will not consolidate its financial statements with those of Tiancheng Leasing and accordingly the Capital Increase will not have a material impact on the financial status of the Company, nor does it exist circumstances which will affect the interests of the Company and its shareholders.

IMPLICATIONS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

As one or more of the applicable percentage ratios (as defined under Rule 14.07 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules) exceeds 0.1% but all are less than 5%, the Capital Increase is only subject to the reporting and announcement requirements set out in Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules but is exempt from the independent shareholders' approval requirements.

The Board of Directors of the Company has approved the resolution regarding the Capital Increase on 12 February 2018. Messrs. Cao Peixi, Liu Guoyue, Fan Xiaxia, Huang Jian and Wang Yongxiang, all being directors of the Company having connected relationship, abstained from voting on the relevant board resolution. The resolution was voted for by Directors who are not connected to the Capital Increase.

The Board of Directors of the Company (including the independent non-executive Directors) is of the view that the Capital Increase Agreement was entered into according to the following principles: (1) on normal commercial terms (on arm's length basis or on terms no less favourable to the Company than those available from independent third parties); (2) on terms that are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole; and (3) in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Company.
