Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 3, 2012, the Company reached an agreement with various investors in the Corporation who held certain rights to buy common stock in the Corporation (Warrant Holders). The Warrant Holders and the Company agreed that it is in the best interests of the Warrant Holders, the Corporation and common stockholders to cancel a total of 61.5 million warrants. All of these warrants had strike prices that were above the closing bid price on the day before the agreement was reached, thus were considered “in the money” warrants. No compensation of any type was given to Warrant Holders who canceled their warrant positions.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On August 3, 2012, the Company reached an agreement with various investors in the Corporation who held certain rights to buy common stock in the Corporation (Warrant Holders). The Warrant Holders and the Company agreed that it is in the best interests of the Warrant Holders, the Corporation and common stockholders to cancel a total of 61.5 million warrants. All of these warrants had strike prices that were above the closing bid price on the day before the agreement was reached, thus were considered “in the money” warrants. No compensation of any type was given to Warrant Holders who canceled their warrant positions.

On August 6, 2012, the Company issued comments in a press release discussing the customer upgrade rate at its large retail partner, the largest warehouse club store chain in the United States. Management indicated that the customer upgrade rate had now climbed to in excess of 75%, providing the Company with additional high-margin revenue. The Company also commented that this same retail partner had given the Company an estimate of between 1,500 and 2,500 units for a significant promotion the retailer plans for early Fall of 2012. Additionally, the Company disclosed that it had sold approximately 4,000 MediPendant units during the June quarter and expects to exceed this amount for the September quarter.
