On July 26, 2018, the board of directors (the “Board”) of HomeStreet, Inc. (the “Company”) amended and restated the Company’s previously amended and restated bylaws to, among other things, (i) address developments in public company governance and amendments to the Washington Business Corporation Act since the Company’s initial public offering, (ii) clarify certain corporate procedures and (iii) make certain other enhancements and technical changes. The changes effected by the amendment and restatement of the Company’s bylaws (the “Amended and Restated Bylaws”) include, without limitation, the following:

- Adding procedural mechanics for calling special meetings of shareholders and enhanced provisions governing the ability of shareholders to bring business before annual or special meetings or nominate directors;
- Updating and enhancing provisions related to the conduct, adjournment and postponement of shareholder meetings;
- Changing the “Chairman of the Board” position from an officer to a Board position;
- Adding a Lead Independent Director provision;
- Requiring that the Board annually appoint a Chairman and, if the Chairman is an officer of the Company, requiring that the independent directors designate a Lead Independent Director;
- Providing that the Lead Independent Director convene and chair sessions of the independent directors or non-management members of the Board;
- Updating descriptions of officer positions of the Company; and
- Adding an exclusive forum provision identifying certain courts in the State of Washington as the exclusive forum for the adjudication of certain intra-corporate disputes.

All of the amendments are effective July 26, 2018. While shareholder approval of the exclusive forum provision is not legally required, the Board has determined that it will seek shareholder ratification of the provision at the Company’s 2019 annual meeting of shareholders.

The preceding is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amended and Restated Bylaws, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and are incorporated herein by reference.
