Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 2, 2016, Yuma Energy, Inc. (the “Company”), Yuma Delaware Merger Subsidiary, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (“Yuma Delaware”), Yuma Merger Subsidiary, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Yuma Delaware (“Merger Subsidiary”), and Davis Petroleum Acquisition Corp. (“Davis”), entered into an amendment (the “Amendment”) to the Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization dated February 10, 2016 (the “Merger Agreement”), among the Company, Yuma Delaware, Merger Subsidiary and Davis.

The Amendment extends the outside date of the Merger Agreement from September 30, 2016 to October 31, 2016. The Amendment also provides the Company’s board of directors with the ability to adjust the ratio of the reverse stock split from 10-for-1 up to 20-for-1. Additionally, the Amendment provides the Davis board of directors with the ability to adjust its employee bonuses; however, it does not increase the aggregate bonus amount.

The preceding is a summary of the material provisions of the Amendment and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Amendment filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference herein.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). Statements that are not strictly historical statements constitute forward-looking statements and may often, but not always, be identified by the use of such words such as “expects,” “believes,” “intends,” “anticipates,” “plans,” “estimates,” “potential,” “possible,” or “probable” or statements that certain actions, events or results “may,” “will,” “should,” or “could” be taken, occur or be achieved. The forward-looking statements include statements about future operations, estimates of reserve and production volumes, the anticipated timing for closing the proposed merger and the ability of the Company to enter into an amendment to its credit agreement. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and assumptions and analyses made by the Company and Davis in light of experience and perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments, as well as other factors appropriate under the circumstances. However, whether actual results and developments will conform with expectations is subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to: the possibility that the companies may be unable to obtain stockholder approval or satisfy the other conditions to closing; the possibility that the combined company may be unable to obtain an acceptable reserve-based credit facility; that problems may arise in the integration of the businesses of the two companies; that the acquisition may involve unexpected costs; the risks of the oil and gas industry (for example, operational risks in exploring for, developing and producing crude oil and natural gas); risks and uncertainties involving geology of oil and gas deposits; the uncertainty of reserve estimates; revisions to reserve estimates as a result of changes in commodity prices; the uncertainty of estimates and projections relating to future production, costs and expenses; potential delays or changes in plans with respect to exploration or development projects or capital expenditures; health, safety and environmental risks and risks related to weather; further declines in oil and gas prices; inability of management to execute its plans to meet its goals, shortages of drilling equipment, oil field personnel and services, unavailability of gathering systems, pipelines and processing facilities and the possibility that government policies may change. The Company’s annual report on Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2015, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, recent current reports on Form 8-K, and other SEC filings discuss some of the important risk factors identified that may affect its business, results of operations, and financial condition. The Company and Davis undertake no obligation to revise or update publicly any forward-looking statements, except as required by law.
