On September 22, 2008 we issued a press release announcing that we are scheduled to participate in the Thomas Weisel Partners Consumer Conference 2008 on Tuesday, September 23, 2008 at 1:30 p.m., Eastern time. Copies of the press release and a slide presentation we are using during the meeting are attached as exhibits to this Report on Form 8-K.

Our presentation will contain certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 concerning our operations, performance, and financial condition. Such forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated. Such risks and uncertainties may include, but are not limited to: the failure to implement our business plan for increased profitability and growth in our retail stores and direct-to-consumer segments; the failure to sell Figi's; the failure to find a suitable permanent replacement for our former Chief Executive Officer within a reasonable time period; the failure to consummate our identified strategic solution for our other non-core assets; the failure to effectively implement our planned consolidation and our cost and capital budget reduction plans; the failure to effectively implement our plans for consolidation of the Catherines Plus Sizes brand, a new organizational structure, and enhancements in our merchandise and marketing; the failure to generate a positive response to our new Lane Bryant catalog and the Lane Bryant credit card program; the failure to successfully implement our expansion of Cacique through new store formats; the failure to achieve improvement in our competitive position; adverse changes in costs vital to catalog operations, such as postage, paper and acquisition of prospects; declining response rates to catalog offerings; the failure to maintain efficient and uninterrupted order-taking and fulfillment in our direct-to-consumer business; changes in or miscalculation of fashion trends; extreme or unseasonable weather conditions; economic downturns; escalation of energy costs; a weakness in overall consumer demand; the failure to find suitable store locations; increases in wage rates; the ability to hire and train associates; trade and security restrictions and political or financial instability in countries where goods are manufactured; the interruption of merchandise flow from our centralized distribution facilities; competitive pressures; and the adverse effects of natural disasters, war, acts of terrorism, or threats of either, or other armed conflict, on the United States and international economies. These, and other risks and uncertainties, are detailed in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 2, 2008, our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and our other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We assume no duty to update or revise our forward-looking statements even if experience or future changes make it clear that any projected results expressed or implied therein will not be realized.
