AMY GRAVINA NAMED TO
BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF ALICO INC.

LABELLE, Fla. (Sept. 16, 2002) - Ben Hill Griffin, III, chairman of the board and CEO of Alico, Inc. (ALCO), announces the election of Amy Gravina, APR, to the board of directors of the LaBelle-based agribusiness company. Gravina is the president of the Southwest Florida public relations and marketing firm of Gravina, Smith & Matte.

"Amy is a highly respected community leader who has been an integral part of the Alico team for more than a decade," said Griffin. "During the past 20 years, she has been involved in some of the most important issues facing the Southwest Florida region, and we look forward to her leadership on the board."

Gravina, who holds bachelor's and master's degrees in mass communication from the University of Florida, established Gravina, Smith & Matte in 1983. She previously had served as marketing director for the Mariner Group and as promotion director for CBS affiliate WINK-TV. She has earned numerous awards for public relations campaigns and marketing programs, and recently was honored with the highest award in the state from the Florida Public Relations Association.

For more than a decade, Gravina has been involved in the communications effort related to the siting of Florida Gulf Coast University and the planning for Alico's land holdings near the university.

Gravina currently serves on the boards of Florida Gulf Bank and the Uncommon Friends Foundation. She is a past director of the Economic Development Council of Collier County, the Foundation for Lee County Public Schools and the Chamber of Southwest Florida.

Alico Inc. is an agribusiness company, primarily engaged in the production of citrus, cattle, sugarcane, sod and forest products.
